ENORMOUS SCORE IS MADE BY LOCAL TEAM

Y. M. C. A. Basketball Quintet's Total 109 Points Against The Belmont Team

The representative basketball team of the Charlotte Y. M. C. A. won its first game of the season last night by defeating Belmont High School 109 to 10. While the local boys were expected to win, no one thought that they would round up such a large score. Judging by last night's game and score, Charlotte will be represented by the best basketball quintet in the history of basketball at the association. Query for Belmont was nearly the whole team. He not only scored all of the points for his team, but also played a good defensive game. The locals scored 54 field goals, and while the team work was not perfect, in another week or two the local fans will see another Columbus team. In the first half Willmann, Crowell and Alexander played the forward positions, with Andrews in center and Ross and Bill Stewart guards. In the second half Crowell and Stewart worked as guards. Averett center and Page and Clark guards. Within the next few days the first half will be picked out of the men playing last night. Three regular men have already been picked. Averett will hold down center, Frank Crowell left forward, and Page, who is captain of this year's team, will hold down one of the guards. Tonight, in the local series the Whites will play the Greens and C. U. S. will play C. H. S. Both games promise to be good ones. The first one will be called at 8:15.

WAKE FOREST HOPES TO DEFEAT DAVIDSON

Wake Forest football team is in its sixth year and in the second year of Thompson's coaching. The team has become one to be reckoned with by the leading teams in the South Atlantic States. The team as a whole is a light one, and although numbers of time it has been outweighed the score has been remarkably close. Plays used by light teams must be resorted to: fake plays and forward passes are the Baptists' best asset. As yet Wake Forest has held A. and M., Washington and Lee and the Universities of North and South Carolina to close scores. The Washington and Lee teams, favorites in the race for the South Atlantic States, made only three touchdowns against Wake Forest, while this same team piled up 54 points against Davidson. Coach Thompson is likely to use practically the same line-up, he has used in former games against Davidson in Charlotte. The main man in the line-up for the Baptists will be Duke Carter at center. Dubs is playing his third year on the team and in every game he has outplayed his opponent. He weighs 180 pounds, and Wake Forest men easily chose him as the best center in the Carolinas. He breaks through the opposition line at any time and makes as many tackles as any man on the team. At right guard will be either Camp or Moore, both first year men on the team, but both have done good work. Williams, who has played three years on the varsity, will play left guard. He weighs 175 pounds and is a steady, hard-working man. Captain Holding easily holds the position of right tackle. Captain Holding is an all-state tackle and a great fighter in a game. Britton, a second year man, is playing the other tackle. Half dozen men desire to play the ends against Davidson, but Whitsett at right end and Cuthrell and Daniel on left end have the best chance. Faucette has been out of the game for two weeks on account of injuries, but if he again gets into condition he will probably be used. All of these ends are light but are considered good tackles and fast men. Billings is expected to play quarter back. Billings was shifted to this position only three weeks ago and his work is exceptionally pleasing. White and Rankin will be the substitutes at quarter. There are several back field men, among them Utley, Gosch, Riddick A. and Riddick W., who will doubtless be used. W. Riddick will play full-back and do the brunt of the work. He will be used as his second man. "Phil" Utley will play left half and be the man in the back field. His broken field running is his great work and he has made many gains for Wake Forest in his last four years of play. Gooch is an old Hornor star and one of the heaviest and fastest men on the team. A. Riddick is a good ground gainer, and is also playing his first year on the team. Thirty men will be carried in the squad and will arrive in Charlotte Wednesday night. The band of rooters will arrive Thursday noon. Every man on the hill is talking of the game; the team is at its hardest days of work and all are anxiously awaiting the end of the 1912 football season. As to the results, hope and belief of victory is in every mind, but in the words of Coach Thompson, "the team must work," and that is the keyword and upon the keyword thereby hangs a result. It will certainly be one of the greatest games played on that day.

WORK AMONG CONSUMPTIVES IN CHARLOTTE

Intelligent and Effective Campaign Against Tuberculosis by Miss Shatto Under Direction of Associated Charities—A Day's Work Described.

The following is a section of a report of Miss Kathryn M. Shatto, the tuberculosis nurse of the Associated Charities: "Would you like to go with nurse for a time and know her work? The first case this morning is to see John Black, who did not come to the clinic yesterday. Last summer he delivered ice but in August had to give up his work. The knock at the door is answered by John's sister who tells us that he is better and has gone to work for a grocer two blocks from

View of exterior of improvised sleeping porch for tuberculosis patient. After introducing herself, the nurse says she has come to see if John can be relieved at 4 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, so that his treatment may be continued. "Surely, and I will remind him to go," is the reply. The next visit is to a house where three sisters were infected with tuberculosis. The oldest refused treatment until too late. The younger took treatments for four months and then stopped. She continued to im-

Tuberculosis patient getting the full benefits of fresh air. Then to the clinic to see if there are any new cases and make a list of the absentees that they may be visited tomorrow. The English banner says, "No Tuberculosis After 1920." The New York banner, "No Uncared for Tuberculosis in 1915." What shall the North Carolina banner say?

SALISBURY SOCIAL

(Special to The Chronicle.) SALISBURY, Nov. 22.—One of the prettiest weddings ever seen in Salisbury was that of Miss Grace Gaskill and Ralph J. Hole, which took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Gaskill, on South Main street. The ceremony, which was witnessed by near friends and relatives of the bride and the groom, was performed in the reception hall. The bride came down the stairs accompanied by her mother and met the groom at the foot of the stairway. Rev. John W. Moore, pastor of the First Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was lovely in her handsome traveling suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth and black silk beaver hat. Following the ceremony a beautiful reception was held. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mrs. A. E. Gaskill, Mrs. Sarah Hole, Mrs. J. F. McCubbins and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hole. The dining room was very beautiful in its wedding decorations. Mrs. Hugh Brown sat at one end of the table and served ice cream while Miss Luna Thompson served at the other. Mrs. J. H. Gorman and Mrs. D. W. Burright presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. R. M. West, Mrs. R. W. Norman and Misses Janet Quinn, Theresa McCubbins and Mary Ramsay assisted in the serving. In cutting the wedding cake the ring fell to Miss Ila Thompson, the dime to Miss Janet Quinn and the thimble to Miss Mary Linn. Following the reception the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to the Northern cities, after which they will be at home at Mr. Hole's attractive bungalow in Fulton Park. The bride is one of Salisbury's brightest and most popular young women. Since the announcement of her engagement a few weeks ago she has been the re-

"CASCARETS" BEST

BOWEL CLEANSER

No Bilioussness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation. Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sores and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give you a thorough cleansing inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Kathleen Klutz, Mrs. A. E. Gaskill and Mrs. J. F. McCubbins came in after the game.

Another charming compliment to Miss Gaskill was the beautifully appointed dinner which was given by Mrs. T. J. Jerome Monday evening at her home on South Fulton street.

Misses Annie and Louise Neave charmingly entertained a few friends at bridge Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Harry Zeitler of Charlotte, who is the guest of Misses Mary and Elva Kelly. There were two tables of auction and after several interesting games had been played delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Charles Reiser delightfully entertained at auction bridge last Monday evening at her home, Fulton street, in honor of Misses Belle Hicks and Annie Furman. Auction was played at four tables and in a series of spirited games, the highest scores were attained by Miss Sophie Klutz and Mr. Lock McKenzie. Miss Klutz was awarded a beautiful gold hat pin which she presented to Miss Hicks, while Mr. McKenzie received the gentleman's prize, a book.

Following the game, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Neave and little Miss Margaret Robertson, served a tempting salad course.

Miss Susie Whitehead charmingly entertained the members of the Lucky Thirteen Bridge Club and a number of other guests Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock at her home on North Fulton street. The attractive home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Miss Whitehead, assisted by Mrs. Whitehead received the guests in the hall and invited them into the drawing room, where the card tables were placed.

Auction bridge was played at nine tables and at the close of the games a delicious salad course was served. Miss Whitehead proved herself a charming hostess and the occasion was one of rare enjoyment for her fortunate guests.

Mrs. Percy Grimes entertained the members of the Bas de Soie Club and a number of other guests most delightfully at bridge Wednesday afternoon in honor of her attractive house guest, Mrs. James H. Cordon of Raleigh and Miss Grace Gaskill, whose marriage to Mr. Ralph Hole was the leading social event of Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Grimes' home was attractively decorated for the occasion. Auction bridge was played at ten tables and several extremely interesting rubbers were enjoyed. The highest score was attained by Miss Elizabeth Bingham, who was awarded a beautiful pair of black silk stockings. Mrs. Cordon was also presented with a pair of silk stockings while Miss Gaskill was presented with a handsome bound and illustrated copy of George Eliot's beautiful poem, "Two Loves."

At the close of the games a delicious two-course lunch was served. Mrs. R. W. Norman and Mrs. Charles Bell assisted in serving. Miss Kathleen Klutz was elected a member of the club.

Mrs. Sidney Cooper of Henderson is the charming guest of Mrs. R. W. Norman.

Miss Jeanie Jones of Asheville spent several hours in the city Tuesday with Miss Jeanie Klutz en route to Petersburg, Va.

Mrs. F. D. Lethco and mother, Mrs. Price, of Charlotte, and Miss Nina Murphy of Charlotte, who have been the guests of Mrs. P. B. Beard, have returned to their home.

Mrs. L. B. Crouch and Miss Julia Crouch have returned home from Washington where they attended the National convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. James P. Moore and Mrs. H. D. Abernathy of this city went to Greensboro Wednesday afternoon, where they will visit their sister, Mrs. F. M. Wood, on West Sycamore street.
