Purcell's | Women Garments of Quality | Purcell's Extraordinary Values $5.95 For Women's and Misses' All Wool Serge Dresses.

Actually Worth $9.50

This is a lot of Dresses of about 45 altogether. We closed out at 1-3 of their wholesale price. Made of a good weight all wool serge, braid trimmed, comes close up to neck, and touches up attractively with red broad cloth at collar and waist. Colors, Navy with red trimmed, Brown with tan trimmings.

Sizes, 14, 16, 18 and 38.

See Window Display.

PURCELL'S

THE CHARLOTTE EVENING CHRONICLE, SATURDAY, NOVEMBE 23, 1912.

ham for the past year. He is con-nected with the Aronson & Browne Amusement Company and is local manager of these people, having charge of the Arcade Theater. Though he has been in Durham but a comparatively short time he has made many friends who will be ready to congratulate him that he has been able to win such a charming girl. 0 9 9

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lassiter will leave Monday for Raleigh to attend the wedding of Mrs. Lassiter's brother, Mr. James Gordon Hanes, and Miss Emmie Louise Drewry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Drewry, which will take place Wednesday evening.

The Cranford Book Club will meet this afternoon with Miss Sallie Bethune at her home on North Gra-ham street. 000

Mrs. Charles E. Platt will receive Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in honor of her guest, Miss M. A. Shaw of Birmingham, Ala. No cards will be issued but the members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and friends of Mrs. Platt are invited to call. 000

The Y. W. C. A. extension chap-ter will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Miss Susan Bynum at her home on Travis street. Elizabeth Heights.

The friends of Mrs. T. J. Gattis will regret to learn that she is quite sick at her home on Clement avenue, Elizabeth Heights. 000.

Cards reading as follows have been received in the city. Dr. and Mrs. William Tontaine Lippitt announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Morsell Mr. Charles Stewart Graham on Saturday, the second of November one thousand nine hundred; and twelve. San Juan, Porto Rico. Dr. Lippitt is an uncle of Mr. Thornton T. Perry son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Scott of this city. 000

Mrs. J. Lee Koiner, who is the guest of Mrs. B. D. Springs, and Miss Marie Koiner, who is visiting Mrs. Thomas W: Alexander will return to their home in Richmond Wednesday and Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Koiner and Miss Koiner will entertain at a dinner party at the Country Club in Richmond in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Preston B. Wilkes, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Montague, Jr. Mrs. Montague before her marriage a few weeks ago was Miss Caludia Collier of New York. Miss Koiner was an attendant at both the Reilley-Wilkes and Collier-Montague wed-dings

000 Miss Rita Beard is spending the week-end in the city with her aunt,

The management of the Old-Time Fiddlers' Convention to be held at the Charlotte Auditorium Thanksgiving afternoon and night has arranged the most attractive program for Ye Old-Time Fiddlers' Convention ever held in this city. Besides having secured the services of 30 or more fiddlers; banjo pickers, " guitar" players, etc., who will play as bands, duets and solos, they have also secured the services of Mrs. Joe Person, who has a National reputation as a plano player of the old Southern airs. She plays with great success "The Italian Waltz" and "Bet My Money on the office building, including secret serv-Bob-Tail' Nag." The Victor Talking ice, weather bureau, etc., is the lat-Machine Company, paid Her; five dollars per minute to make records of building of Charlotte's new and costher playing. On Thanksgiving Day she plays for sweet charity, the proceeds going to the benefit of the charity patients of the Presbyterian Hospital, In addition to the above, Prof. W. C.

Hill of Rutherford College, with his nephew and niece, will add greatly to the occasion by his fine rendition of the "Mocking - Bird" and many other old selections.

Mr. Otho Henderson has eccepted the challenge of Mr. Wingo and there will be great interest in the violin solo, contest , hetwen, the. men . of . Inman; S. C., and Huntersville. Col. Walter R. Henry will preside and introduce the players as well as play himself.

REV. MR. CONRAD GLOSES HIS WORK IN NORTH CHARLOTTE

After, five years of service as pastor of the North Charlotte Baptist Church' Rev. S. F. Conrad will close his work tomorrow.

When he entered upon this work he accepted the care of the church when they were worshiping in a small cottage house, with no prospect of securing a lot for a house, and with little hope of building a house of their

wn. They now have a most desirable lo-Mrs. C. C. Kennedy. on North cation on the car line and a most ele-Church street. Miss Beard is teach- gant house, splendidly, equipped for

Mr. Conrad has raised and paid poses mentioned when the new postoffice is built.

The government official examined the old building and in some respects found that it might be desirable for the housing of the offices mentioned, according to Mr. Spence, but the visit Postoffice Department Has Plans was purely one of investigation and nothing definite whatever was given out as a result thereof.

The new postoffice building as at present planned will be a two-story structure and will be built for the sole accommodation of the postoffice business and the Federal Court, leaving a number of offices to be provided fice on West Trade street, commonly for in some other manner. Hence the known as the Mint building, or else inspection of the mint building with a possible view of utilizing it for the provision for entirely new quarthese purposes. ters for the various offices in the post-

The situation opens up an interesting field, for if the mint building is rehabilitaced it would be necessary to secure an additional and special appropriation for this work.

The prospect of letting all of the government building tenants into the Mint building, except the postoffice and the Federal Court, may meet with varying degrees of enthusiasm, but the matter is yet in an altogether indefinite shape, yet the situation is one that is of supreme interest to the city generally, and the result of the efforts of Uncle Sam to properly provide for his various machinery and officials now in the government building will watched with wide interest.

ing, as the plans for the new building -Mr. Van McDonald of Montgomdo not contain any prevision, it is ery, Ala., son of Mrs. Jessie McDonald of this city, was in a wreck a few days ago near Albany, Ga., but his triends will be glad to learn that with the exception of a sprained arm and a few slight bruises he escaped serious injury. The engine ran into

NATIONAL - SUPERVISIO

No system of bank super vision or regulation can ex cel that of the United State Government. The men the head of the Charlott National Bank make it rule to comply strictly with the requirements of th Federal Banking Laws and the soundness of the institution is further assured by periodical examinations un der the direction of the Comptroller, of the Cur rency.

THE CHARLOTTE NATIONAL BAN CAPITAL & SURPLUS $410,000.00

AGED MAN HERO

Invalid Unable to Walk Organized Servants Into Fire Fighting Form and Saves Valuable Art Colle merchant was the hero of which threatened to destroy his five story residence on Twenty sixth stree today.

Just before 1 o'clock Mr. Field said, for the various other offices at present located therein. A representative of the Treasury Department was in the city this week and discussed with Postmaster J. Spence and others the feasinility of using the mint building for the pur- an open switch.

MAY REHABILITATE

OLD MINT BUILDING

Which May Involve The

The rehabilitation of the assay est proposition in connection with the

In other words, -unless other ar rangements are made to provide for the numerous offices in the postoffice building outside the postoffice proper and the Federal Court quarters, it is possible that an appropriation will be asked to rehabilitate the old Mint building and locate the secret service, weather - bureau and other offices therein as a permanent arrangement

This plan failing it would be necessary to seek other plans for the office at present in the postoffice buildly postoffice structure.

Present Structure

BY MARGARET KELLY ABERNETHY.

Miss Esther Springs won the prize music written across the top and an for the highest score at the beautiful ink sketch of a singer in the left bridge party given yesterday after- hand corner were given each guest. noon by Mrs. Robert C. Moore at her Mrs. Oscar A. Meyer presided at the home on Kingston avenue at which piano and rendered 17 songs, many time she announced the engagement were old-time melodies while others of her miece, Miss Marguerite Clark- were from the present day operas. The guests were allowed three minson Springs and Mr. Richard Austin son Springs and Mr. Richard Austin Myers. Miss Helen Liddell received the consolation prize and Miss Springs was given a souvenir of the occasion. Those playing were Misses Margerite Those playing were Misses Margerite the prize, a handsome mahogany tray, and Esther Springs, Marie Koiner of Richmond, Stuart Jones, Elisabeth Chambers, Lula Taliaferro, Flora Jef-went to Mrs. David Ovens. Mrs. fries, Minta Jones, Helen Liddell, Sa- Margaret Kelly Abernethy cut the rah Brockenbrough, Mrs. Joe Jones consolation, a sandwich basket, and and Mrs. Dolph 'M. Young. Miss Mrs. Stevenot received the guest of Springs left last night for Raleigh, henor prize, a nut bowl. An elegant where she will be one of the attend- two-course lunch was served, after ants at the wedding of Miss Emmie | which Mrs. Thomas C. Guthrie ren-Louise Drewry and Mr. James Gor- dered in artistic fashion several songs. man Hanes of Winston-Salem, which Those enjoying Mrs. Alexander's hoswill take place Wednesday evening at stevenot, J. B. Alexander, J. Frank 9 o'clock in Christ Episcopal church. Wilkes, Thomas C. Guthrie, W.

Miss Flora Jeffries will be hostess mother, Mrs. E. R. to the Thursday Afternoon Embroidery Club at her home on Elizabeth Charles F. Wadsworth, Oscar A. Meyavenue this afternoon. Mrs. J. P. er, David Ovens, Louis N. Schiff, W. Quarles, Miss Evelyn Weeks and Miss R. Foreman, R. L. Gibbon, Charles Berta McCarthy of Lynchburg, Va., M. Carson, W. S. Liddell, J. S. Ogden, will be guests of the club.

0 0 0 Miss Mary Grace Ray of McAden- ry, Jeremiah Goff, Margaret Kelly ville spent yesterday in the city shop- Abernethy and Misses Anna Twelveping.

000

Mrs. Floyd L. Liles returned to her home in Spartanburg yesterday after spending several days here as the an's Club will meet Moadny afternoon guest of her sister, Mrs. John F. Love, at 3 o'clock with Mrs. V. J. Guthery on East Morchead street. 000

Miss Fannie Dockery of Rocking- Announcement is made of the apham is the attractive guest of Miss proaching marriage of Mr. George Mary Brockenbrough at her home on Hall, formerly of this city, to Miss South Tryon street. 000

Mrs. Luke Seawell was able to be out yesterday for the first time after which the announcement was made a six weeks' illness.

000

Mrs. Bernard, Crocker returned to her home in Raleigh this morning after spending a week here as the guest of Mrs. A. B. Justice on East Eighth and most popular girls in the whole street extension.

500

In honor of Mrs. George A. Stevenot She has lived here all of her life of New York. Mrs. Walter S. Alex- and has many if not more friends ander entertained delightfully in her than any other girl of her set. She apartments at the Selwyn Hotel yes- is free from the petty snobbishness terday afternoon. Five tables were that has knocked the props from un-arranged in the large living room, der the attractiveness of many a which was effectively decorated with woman, and possesses that democratic pink and white chrysanthemums and disposition that is the captivating potted plans and holly branches, for charm of good sense and a pretty a musical contest. Attractive cards face. Mr. Hall is a native of Charwith pencils attached and a bar of lotte, though he has been in During this year at Stanley. service at a cost for half this lot and 000 house of $7,367.50, all of which has

The host of friends of Mrs. B. Rush been paid or covered by subscription Lee will be glad to know that her to be paid in the near future. condition for "the past two days, shows improvement. Mrs. Lee underwent a serious operation at the during the present year on this prop-Mercy General Hospital last Sunday erty about $1.800. The church has and during the week has been critically ill. Mrs. Lee is one of Char- called as his successor Rev. L. M. lotte's most popular women and her room at the hospital is lined with Hobbs, who has moved upon the field and will serve the church for half quantities of beautiful flowers. his time, dividing his time between 000

Belmont in Gaston County and North Miss Edna Ross of Providence is spending the day in the city shopping. Charlotte.

0.0.0 Mr. Conrad will still ' remain ' in Mrs. T. H. Bomar will spend Charlotte and make his home in Wednesday in the city with her sis-Piedmont though he has not yet deters. Mrs. R. L. Gibbon and Mrs. J. J. Hutchison en route to her home in cided definitely as to his future work. Pecos, Texas'from Morganton.

0.0.0 Mrs. R. S. Reinhardt of Lincoln- FINAL HOME MISSION STUDY on, and daughter, Mrs. George A. Brown of Boston, Mass., are spending the day in the city shopping. 000

000

000

Brevard street, Mrs. Springs' mother,

Mrs. W. B. Gentry, of Madison.

home on North Tryon street.

Thanksgiving Day.

MEETING MONDAY AFTERNOON Mrs. J. M. Odell of Concord is the The last meeting of the Home Misguest of Mrs. D. P. Hutchison at her sion Study will occure Monday afternoon at $:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church and it will be in Miss Katherine Cramer will Jeave the interest of christian unity.

Monday for West Point, N. Y. to wit-A report from each denomination ness the Army Navy football- game on home missions will be made and short talks on the following subjects Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Springs have as their guest at their home on North will follow:

"The Church in a Unified Program of Advance"-Mrs. T. S. Franklin. "The Church as a Religious Force"

-Mrs. Bryce McLaughlin. "The Church as a Social Agency"-Mrs. -C.-C. Hook. ----

"The Stranger Within Our Gates"-Mrs. W. M. McCabe.

"The Submerged Faith"-Mrs. W. C. Dowd. "The Pearl of the Antilles"-Miss Laura Orr. The same general

"The Woman of Tomorrow"-Miss Helen Brem.

"The Rural Church"--Mrs. , E. Scholtz. "The Work of the Federation of Churches"-Miss Edith Fry.

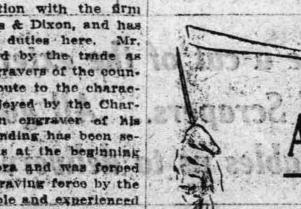

"The-Woman of Vision"-Mrs.-T.-F Marr.

EXPERT ENGRAVER SECURED BY LOCAL JEWELRY CONCERN

Mr. Phil Stead, formerly with the tically arranged with pink chrysan-Gerham Manufacturing Company of hemums and asparagus . ferns, the handle was tied with a graceful bew of pink tulle. Crystal dishes scattered New York and an expert engraver. has taken a position with the firm about the table contained pink and of Garibaldi, Bruns & Dixon, and has green mints. A saled course was served. Miss Essic Stokes poured coffee and was assisted by Misses Julia Irwin, Lillian Reid and Annie Dawey entered upon his duties here. Mr. Stead is recognized by the trade as one of the best engravers of the country and it is a tribute to the character of business enjoyed by the Char-lotte firm that an ongraver of his reputation and standing has been secured. The firm is at the beginning lapse of eight years the gallantry of of the Christmas, era and was forged Herman Victor of Omaha, Neb, in to augment its engraving force by the rescuing two children from drewning addition of a capable and experienced Though the skirts of the new evening gowns are often made of heavy brocades or embossed velvets, the bodices are as airy as can be imagined. one layer of net being sometimes mounted over a lining, of flesh-tinted chiffon to give the effect of a most pronounced decolletage. The gown pictured here has a bodice of lace and net and the skirt of rose and gray, brocade is draped over a petticoat of the net and lace. The square train at the side is an odd notion, and buttoned boots of pink satin accompany the gown:

with a Niller a think a the awoke to find his room filled with smoke. Athough unable to get out of bed on account of his age and an injury to his ankle, he reached for a telephone at his bedside and notified police headquarters of the fire. Then he pounded on the frame of his bed until he aroused his wife in an adjoining room and the 10 servants on the floor above.

Two of the servants carried him a an armchair to the ground floor when he coolly organized his employes into a fire fighting force. directing them in moving his $500.000 art collection. The firemen arrived in time to confine the blaze to the floor where it. started.

The chief damage was to a private chapel which adjoined the Fields sleeping rooms and which contained + priceless collection of Bibles and prayer books in many languages.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Albert Wittson will return his home in New York tonight after spending a few days here on busi-

Mr. Robert 3, Brevard arrived in the city last night from Medford. Ore., en route to Atlanta tonight to visit his mother and sister, Mrs. R. J. Brevard and Mrs. Baxter S. Moore.

Mr. Osmond L. Barringer arrived home this morning from Atlanta. wher he attended the horse show. Judge W. J. Adams arrived in the city this morning from Hendersonville to spend the week-end with h's family at the Central Hotel.

Mr. J. B. Ivey returned home this morning from High Point, where he spent two days attending the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

The Great Tonsorial Way.

"Twas on a dark Thursday in November that Wilfred Frothingham walked with determined feet into the Wistaria Tonsorial Parlor.

"I noticed your sign 'No tip shop." he told the boss barber. "and though I really don't need anything just now came in to get a haircut just to help the worthy cause along." "I getcha, mister," replied the bost barber, evidently a man of some education, but not much.

Frothingham climbed into the boss barber's chair, and, being weary from from a walk of several blocks, rell asleep. In time he woke up, as he always did sooner or later, and found the boss barber presenting him with a bill with one hand while he flourished a razor with the other. nin-ty-four "Seven dollars and cents," please," said the barber, "hair cut, shave, singe, shampqo, massage electric massage, mustache trimmed. hot towels, cold towels and manicure. "seven dollars and ninety-four cents please."

"Quite reasonable! Quite reason able!" faltered Frothingham, he he wrote out a check. "It's a real pleasure to pay, a barber's bill without having, to give up a tip." And he reeled outside to the nearest weighing machine to see if the barh had really made such a difference in him, CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 28-The activity of the soldiers who with bloodhounds have been traiting suspected disturbers through the mountains of the martial law region of the Kanawha coal field, resulted carly today in the capture near Leewood, W. Va., of a man whose name was given as King. He was wanted in connection with the attack on the military train last Friday when Engineer Blankenship was shot.

the pretty and charming daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Bahnson of Winston-Salem. Bright yellow chrysanthemums artistically arranged in baskets and vases adorned the parlor. Mrs. Thomas H. Wright met the callers in the hall and invited them into the parlor where Mrs. Patterson stood and presented them to the guests of honor, Misses Pauline and Louise Bahnson. Others receiving with them one of the most attractive in Durham. and Mrs. J. Haigh Daingerfield. In the doorway, between the parlor and dining room was Mrs. Robert Lassiter. The color scheme of the dining room was pink and green. In the center of the circular mahogany table, which was covered, with a handsome lace piece, was a long handle basket of white and gold artis-

000 The board of directors of the Wom-One of the most beautifuliy appointed receptions of the season was that given by Mrs. Edmund V. Patat Elizabeth Heights. terson at her home on Garland Court 0,00 yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, in honor of her house guests, Misses Louise and Pauline Bahnson, Carter.

Placide Englehard Kramer of Durham, the happy event to be solemn-ized January 8. The luncheon at was given Thursday by the mother of the bride-elect and the following from The Durham Herald will be read with interest by the many Charlotte friends of Mr. Hall:

J. Chambers, O. D. Wheeler and of Lynchburg, W. A. Zweier,

W. Faison, Lociswood Jones, E. V.

Finlayson, F. H. White, John M. Har-trees, Ruth Carpenter and Edna

000

Hirshinger.

"The bride is one of the prettiest in the Missouri river was officially man. gnized by the Federal Gover ment today when Scoretary MacVeash MR. BOYER WILL MANAGE of the Treasury Department awarded him a medal of honor. On December 24, 1904, three children playing on thin ice of the river plunged into the Mr. Luther Boyer, who for a num-cold water and Mr. Victor saved the ber of years has been connected with lives of two of them. NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL To all knowing sufferents of rhementium, wheth for muscular of of the feints, scialica, lumbers, backarhe, pains in the fidners of meuration which has respectedly cured all of these totimes. She feels it her day to send it to all sufferents FREE. You cure yourself at house as thousands will testify -- no change of climate being never ary. This simple discovery ballabes usic sais from the blead, and brightens the stiftened joints, pur-ties the blead, and brightens the system. If the there interasts you, for prof address. Mas. M. Summers, Box E., Notre Dame, Ind.

12.17

AFTER YEARS OF WAITING

r i mar

and a prive set of the set of (Punch.) Customer-'Arf-pound o' butter. Shopman-Yes, mum. The best? Customer-Naw, the worst; same as we ad be fore.