BASKETBALL AT WAKE FOREST
Work Begins For Season With Squad—Many Of Faculty To Attend State Convention

(Special to The Chronicle.)

WAKE FOREST, Dec. 3.—Basketball practice has opened up in earnest at Wake Forest, with the close of the football period. From now on until the Christmas holidays, the squad, under the direction of Coach Crozier, will be at hard work in practice for the opening of the season in the middle of January.

On account of the fact that only two of last year's team are back this year and prospects for material were not as bright as they have been, there was some talk of discontinuing the game at Wake Forest, but when the issue was put to the student body last week, it was unanimously voted down, and so basketball will again be the early Springtime sport.

Under Coach Crozier's coaching, Wake Forest has the record of losing only three games on its home floor, and only two of these college games. They being with the University of Virginia, V. P. I. and the Columbus, Ga., Y. M. C. A.

Captain Holding and "Phil" Utley are the only two regulars of last year's five again in college. Captain Holding will doubtless have no trouble in holding his own at center, and Utley's playing at one of the guards is always pleasing to a Baptist audience. The loss of Forwards Royal Holding and Beam is one which the team can ill afford, for Beam and Royal could throw goals as often and in the pinches equal to any pair of forwards in this section.

W. Holding, Captain Holding's younger brother, a last year's substitute, is a strong contender for one of the forwards this year and chances are that he will get a regular place on the team. Tyner, a last year's substitute, is also a good man, whose chances are good for a varsity position.

The recent class game between the Lawyers and Meds brought out some good material. Mayberry, a heavy and fast man, who has had considerable basketball experience here, may also be on the team. Davis, Ashcroft and Hall, also are showing up well, especially the latter, whose goal-throwing may be of much value.

Wake Forest is a member of the State Inter-Collegiate Basketball Association with several other colleges of the State. These are: The University, A. & M., Trinity, Elon, Guilford. They will all play several games among themselves for the State basketball championship. Wake Forest hopes to maintain her high record when she meets these teams. Heretofore, she has had little trouble in winning from them, and if Coach Crozier works his material into a championship quintet it will be a wonderful season's work.

Manager Henry is also at work with several Virginia teams, but as yet he is not ready to give out his schedule. All eyes are on Coach Crozier and his basketball squad, with the thought of their past record, they are hoping that this season will be a like success.

The sessions of the Baptist State Convention, which will be held in Goldsboro the coming week beginning with Tuesday night, will call away from the "Hill" several of the members of the faculty.

President William Louis Potat expects to attend and will probably deliver an address concerning the needs of Wake Forest. Rev. Walter N. Johnson, the college chaplain, will also attend. Dean Charles E. Brewer, who is one of the secretaries of the Convention, will also be present, as will Dr. W. R. Cullom, and Prof. J. Henry Highsmith. In the absence of Dean Brewer, Dr. E. W. Sikes will assume his duties.

A matter of special importance to Wake Forest, both to the faculty and the students will be brought up, and that is of urging to the Convention the need of an adequate church building for the town and college. Pastor W. N. Johnson has been at work on raising funds for a church building at Wake Forest for the past year, and is deeply interested in the matter. A building is planned, but he feels that the Baptists of the State should contribute largely to a church building for the college. Wake Forest as a town has raised $15,000, so says Mr. Johnson, and he desires that the State contribute $25,000. He with Dr. Potat and others will do all in their power for this church building before the Convention at Goldsboro this week.

President Potat and Professor Highsmith attended the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly at Greensboro last week. Dr. Potat delivered an address before that body.

New French Trade in Hair.
(Paris Correspondence London Telegraph.)

In one of the large shops near the Opera, a detective noticed a man of respectable appearance stooping to pick up something which he thrust furtively into his pocket. His suspicions aroused, the detective followed, and a few moments afterward the suspect bent down, once more picked up something and put it in his pocket. He rose to find the detective's hand on his collar. Taken to a private room, in spite of his indignant protests, he was searched, and a bag which he carried under his raincoat was found to be full of "chichis," the false curls dear to the large-batted Parisienne. The gentleman then stated that he was a picker-up of these unconsidered trifles, and that, frequenting the great shops in the exercise of his profession, he counted it a bad day when he could not pocket 15 to 20 of them, so careles are their wearers in the ardor of a chase for bargains. As it was impossible to accuse the man of theft he was set free, after being warned not to do it again.

WHY IS IT, SUSAN,

Bill Johnson has 6 children, doesn't get as good salary as I do, but he gets along better, owns his own home, 3 of his kids are at school, and he's liberal to his church. We have no children, give nothing to the church, and are always in debt. It beats me. Susan says "Don't ask me. You know I don't spend much on the table, keep but one fire, and belong to no church or charitable societies. Fate just seems against us, Bill."

LISTEN TO ME, SUSAN.

Fate's got nothing to do with it. You're not doing your duty. You keep two servants, wear ostrich plumes, silk stockings, $6.00 shoes, and are forever running over the country to some meeting of the Boo Club. There's but scant home life at your house. You're no help to Bill—you're a drawback. You can't run with the bunch you've tied up with. All right if you have the coin, but you haven't got it. You've missed the functions of a wife, and there's walking ahead of you. Bill's a good fellow, but you're ruining a home and losing a husband.

BUY A KID, STRANGLE THE POODLE, take Building and Loan with that strange duck, Ed Keesler, create a home, and make Bill happy. No strings to this recipe.

NEWS OF THE DAY
FROM ROCK HILL

Ministers Off To Attend Baptist Convention--Prominent Citizen Dead

(Special to The Chronicle.)

ROCK HILL, S. C., Dec. 3.—Rev. W. J. Nelson and Rev. W. S. Walters have gone to Abbeville to attend the sessions of the State Baptist Convention which begins Tuesday. On Monday night a mass meeting of the ministers will be held. Several Baptist laymen are preparing to go down on Tuesday or Wednesday to attend the sessions.

There will be several matters of interest to come before the convention, the principal one being the question of establishing a sanatorium in the State. This question will doubtless be decided in the affirmative and a committee appointed to select a site and have charge of the work of erecting the buildings. Rock Hill will make a determined effort to secure this institution, as will several other cities.

Mr. J. C. Hardin, who has been the efficient manager of the insurance department of the First Trust and Savings Bank for several years, has resigned his position to accept the position of sales manager for the Rock Hill Buggy Company, assuming his new duties Monday morning. Mr. Hardin has made a success in the insurance business and is well fitted to take up his new work.

Requisition papers for the extradition of Ed. Williams, alias James Smith, the negro wanted on the charge of forgery, have been applied for and an officer will go to Tampa, Fla., Tuesday night or Wednesday morning to bring the negro here to stand trial. The negro caught there has been identified as the man wanted here.

The latter part of October Williams forged about half a dozen checks in Rock Hill and several in Fort Mill, securing about $100 from various parties. He took French leave of the city a few hours after it was discovered that the checks had been forged. Then began a merry race between the criminal and the officers. Detective S. H. White traced him to Tennessee and he was able to leave the city half an hour before the officer arranged to arrest him. He was then traced through Georgia and Florida. Mr. White learning that he had a brother in Plant City, Fla. Circulars were sent out and the negro was caught in Tampa two weeks ago.

Local Methodists were greatly pleased on learning Monday afternoon that the ministers who were in charge of the local churches during the past year had been returned to their charges and that in addition Dr. H. W. Bays had been appointed as pastor of Laurel Street Church, formerly served in connection with one of the circuits. Especially gratifying was the news that Rev. E. K. Hardin had been returned as pastor of St. John's Church, and Rev. T. C. O'Dell was returned as presiding elder of the Rock Hill District. The annual Conference in 1913 will be held in Rock Hill with St. John's Church as host.

His many friends throughout the city will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Saxon Chaplin, which occurred at his home on East Main street Monday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock. Mr. Chaplin had been in failing health for several years, but had been in bed but a little more than one week. Even during the time he was in bed his condition was not considered dangerous and his death comes as a great shock to his relatives and many friends as well.

Mr. Chaplin was born near St. Matthews in what is now Calhoun County. He engaged in mercantile business there, removing to Rock Hill in 1891. For a number of years he was engaged in the mercantile business here, retiring a number of years ago on account of his health. He was 60 years of age.

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meets, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.
