

Those who want exciting sport and who never miss games that are dangerous to life and limb are eagerhabsorbing the details of the first game of auto polo played in New Y ork, which took place at the American League baseball park. Only about a dozen games have been played ut a dozen games have been played this far throughout the country, but already seven players have gone to the hospital seriously injured, some of them maimed for life. The first real games will be played at Madison Square Garden the first week in December. It can be played on a field the size of a football field, and generally four men play at a time. Two of the men drive the autoes and the other two do the actual playing -when they are not crawling from under upturned machines. The auto is stripped down to the chasis except for a narrow running board for the player, who is armed with a polo mallet with which he endeavor s to drive the ball, a soccer football,
