

VARIOUS SENTENCES GIVEN THE CONVICTED DYNAMITERS

Ryan Heads The List With A Seven Year Term In Leavenworth Prison--Seven Others Are Given Six Years In The Same Prison

SENTENCE SUSPENDED ON FIVE OF DEFENDANTS

Judge Anderson Takes a Fling at Attorneys for Defense by Saying Had Some of the Defendants Had the Proper Legal Advice They Would Not Have Been Found Guilty--Prisoners Will Probably Go to Penitentiary Tonight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 30.—Sentences varying from seven years imprisonment in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., to one year and one day and to suspend sentences were today imposed upon the 38 labor union officials convicted in the dynamite conspiracy cases.

talk with members of their families. Some of the men made pleas for mercy; others wept in the arms of their wives.

- Frank Ryan, president iron workers' union seven years. John T. Butler, Buffalo, vice president, six years. Herbert S. Hockin, former secretary and treasurer of Detroit, six years. Olaf A. Tveitmo, San Francisco, secretary of the California Building Trades Council, six years. Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco, six years. Phillip A. Cooley, New Orleans, six years. Michael J. Young, Boston, six years. Frank J. Higgins, Boston, two years. J. E. Munsey, Salt Lake City, six years. John H. Barry, St. Louis, four years. Paul J. Morrin, St. Louis, three years. Henry W. Legleitner, Denver, three years. Charles N. Beum, Minneapolis, three years. Michael J. Cunnance, Philadelphia, three years. Richard H. Houlhan, Chicago, two years. William Supe, Chicago, one year and one day. Edward Smith, Peoria, Ill., three years. James E. Ray, Peoria Ill., one year and one day. Murray L. Pennell, Springfield, Ill., three years. William C. Bernhardt, Cincinnati, one year and one day. Wilford Bert Brown, Kansas City, Mo., three years. Frank K. Painter, Omaha, two years. Peter J. Smith, Cleveland, four years. George Anderson, Cleveland, three years. Michael J. Hannon, Scranton, Pa., three years. Edward E. Phillips, Syracuse, N. Y., one year and one day. Charles Wachtmeister, Detroit, one year and one day. Ernest G. W. Bases, Indianapolis, three years. Fred Sherman, Indianapolis, two years. Frank C. Webb, New York, six years. Fred J. Mooney, Duluth, one year and one day. William J. McCain, Kansas City, three years. William E. Redding, Milwaukee, three years. Sentences on the following were suspended: Patrick J. Farrell, New York. James Cooney, Chicago. James Coughlin, Chicago. Hiram R. Kline, Muncie, Ind. Frank J. Murphy, Detroit.

Referring to the iron workers' strike, which began in 1905 and which the Government charged was the motive which prompted John J. McNamara to use dynamite as a weapon, Judge Anderson said the strike was attended by picketing, then by sluggings and riots.

President-Elect Woodrow Wilson And Scenes Of His Birth And Childhood Recently Visited

The place of Wilson's birth and early boyhood. Upper left: House where he was born; upper right, church of which Governor Wilson's father was pastor. Below is a view of the rear of the house in which the President-elect was born.

GERMAN SECRETARY OF STATE PASSES

Alfred Von Kiderlen Waechter Dies Suddenly While On A Visit To His Sister

STUTTGART, Germany, Dec. 30.—Alfred von Kiderlen-Waechter, Secretary of State of the German Empire, died suddenly from heart failure at his home here today after a brief illness.

Kiderlen-Waechter was enjoying his usual Christmas visit to his sister, the Baroness von Gemmingen, near here. He had felt ill for several days, but he called to physicians who were called to attend a fatal termination as his heart action was very irregular.

Alfred von Kiderlen-Waechter was 60 years of age. He had occupied office as Imperial Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs only since June 28, 1910, when he succeeded Wilhelm von Schoen, who became German ambassador to France.

WELL KNOWN WOMAN OF GASTONIA DIES

Mrs. Florence Happerfield Succumbs To Long Illness--Settlemeyer Brought To Trial

Chronicle Bureau, Gazette Building, Gastonia, Dec. 30. Mrs. Florence Happerfield, after an illness of some time died yesterday afternoon at her home here and was buried this morning at 10 o'clock, following funeral services at the residence by Rev. J. E. Abernethy.

PRESIDENT-ELECT BEGINS SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH LEADERS

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 30.—President-Elect Wilson today began his conferences with Democratic members of both houses of Congress, whom he intends to consult about men and policies for his administration.

125,000 GARMENT WORKERS ON STRIKE

Unions Of New York Clothing Makers Start Big Protest Today

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Women and men garment workers, estimated to number 125,000 today went on a strike in New York city today tying up approximately 4,000 factories.

FOOD CRUSADERS BEGIN ON APPLES

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The food crusaders started in today to break the high price of apples. With a carload on hand and "unlimited" supplies behind them, they began selling Baldwin's at five cents a quart, apples as good, they declared, for which local retailers have been asking from 12 to 15 cents a quart.

DEMOCRATS FIGURE ON HOUSE REORGANIZATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Democratic leaders are busily figuring on the organization of the House in the coming Congress, but the only change in the House officers expected is that of sergeant-at-arms. It is expected that Charles F. Riddell, the incumbent, will retire and a fight for the office is on between Robert B. Gordon of Ohio, now superintendent of the public document room, and former Representative Ryan of Buffalo, N. Y., who was a candidate when the Democrats took control of the Sixty-second Congress.

WORLD EVENTS TOLD BRIEFLY

Current News Of Interest In Paragraph By Telegraph And Cable

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Dec. 30.—Martin J. O'Toole, Pittsburgh's $22,000 baseball pitcher, was married here today to Miss Rose Catherine Heffernan, O'Toole and his bride have been friends since childhood.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The silver cups awarded annually in the Asiatic and Pacific fleets for the highest aggregate score in small arms practice, have been won this year by the gunboat Helena, of the Asiatic fleet, and the cruiser South Dakota, in the Pacific fleet.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 30.—A severe snowstorm now prevailing in the Cascade mountains has disarranged schedules on all Northern transcontinental lines and trains are running from 5 to 24 hours late.

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 30.—Uneasiness is felt here regarding the schooner Thomas S. Dennison, Captain Brown, due here from Baltimore with a cargo of paving bricks.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Memorial services will be held today for the 652 victims of the Iroquois Theater fire which occurred on this date in 1903.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 30.—Formal dedication of the new central Young Men's Christian Association building took place here yesterday, making the close of a two-year campaign to raise $750,000, the estimated cost of the building, which is one of the best equipped in the country.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 30.—Search was begun here today for the body of Ned Kline, a musician of the cruiser California who lost his life yesterday attempting to rescue Miss Anna Hidden, who was drowned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Sickness has invaded the diplomatic circles, and five members of the foreign colony are laid up.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The food crusaders started in today to break the high price of apples. With a carload on hand and "unlimited" supplies behind them, they began selling Baldwin's at five cents a quart, apples as good, they declared, for which local retailers have been asking from 12 to 15 cents a quart.

TODAY'S NEWS OF CHARLOTTE

Happenings Of The City Sketched In Brief As Seen By The Chronicle Reporters

—Mr. D. H. Littlejohn, of the city staff of the Evening Chronicle, has gone to the Charlotte Sanatorium for a treatment of two weeks.

—There will be a called meeting of the health department of the Woman's Club Tuesday morning in the Carnegie Library at 10:30 o'clock.

—The many friends of Mr. R. M. Dowd will learn with regret that he is rather seriously ill at his home in Dilworth with an attack of pneumonia.

—Messrs. Hook & Rogers are the architects for improvements which are to be made in the front of the store building now occupied by the Little Long Company.

—Unfinished business in regard to the paving situation in the city, notably the levying of assessments, will be the principal business confronting the board of aldermen which will meet tonight at 8 o'clock.

—There will be a public dance at the Dilworth Hall on New Year's Eve. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock and continue until the midnight hour.

—Mr. George Carr, who has been spending the Christmas holidays in the city, has returned to Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Carr went to Jacksonville two months ago to accept the office of assistant engineer and his many friends here learn with interest that he is succeeding well in that city.

—More rain this afternoon and tonight," said Weather Man Atto this morning. "Tomorrow we will have unsettled weather but it won't be very much colder. The thermometer will drop a degree or two but not much. This morning the mercury went up to 49 degrees which is unusually warm for this time of the year."

—Mr. William P. Harris, who has been with the Gibson-Woolley Company since the organization of that firm, has disposed of his interest in the store and expects to remove to the country to farm at an early date.

—The special communication of Phalanx Lodge, No. 31, A. F. & A. M., which will be held tonight, promises to be an exceedingly interesting event.

—Rev. Ira S. Caldwell preached his final sermon to the congregation of Chalmers Memorial Church yesterday as supply pastor. He left today for Florida to spend a few days during the month of January. Rev. J. W. Simpson of Concord will supply the pulpit at this church.