THE CHARLOTTE EVENING CHRONICLE, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1913.

PURCELL'S | Women's Garments of Quality | PURCELL'S

Today and Saturday Last Days of "MERODE UNDERWEAR SALE"

The makers of the Merode Underwear believe they produce the best moderate priced Underwear in America. Thousands of satisfied customers whom have used "Merode" for years have reason to believe the same thing. But there are other thousands of women unaware of the perfect fitting and superior wearing qualities of the "Merode" Underwear, and to interest Charlotte's part of these women to give Merode a trial-for this week only we are offering these special inducements:

$1.00	Combina	tion	Suit	sale	price	 	 	75
	ests and

With long, short or no sleeves, ankle or knee lengths.

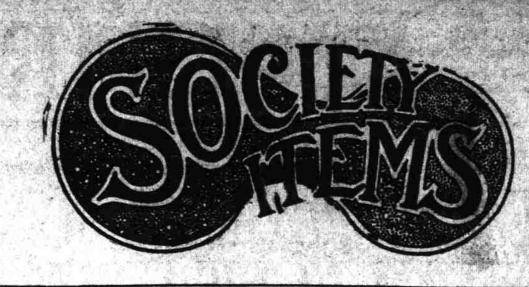

PURCHI'S

"Merode"

"Merode"

Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian Church will meet with Miss Mary Irwin at her home on North Tryon street. Mrs. Robert C. Moore will this week be hostess to the Wednesday Auction Club, at her home on Kingston avenue. 000 Miss Annie Pegram Oates has returned to Lincolnton, where she will resume her studies as a student at Fassifern. Miss Oates spent a few days in the city with her mother, Mrs. R. M. Oates, of Flat Rock.

Miss Julia Cone arrived in the city this morning from her home in Richmond, Va., and will spend some time as the guest of Miss Flora Bryan at her home on South Tryon street. Miss Cone has many friends in Charlotte, where she formerly resided, and where she has often visited since her change of residence. QQQ A meeting of St. Elizabeth's Guild of the Church of the Holy Comforter will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock on Cleveland avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Springs is spending a few days in Lancaster, S. C., where she is the guest of Col. Leroy Springs. She was yesterday joined by Mr. Springs, who will remain for the week-end. 000

Misses Sarah Tanner and Nancy Anderson have returned from Norfolk, Va., where they were guests for two weeks of Miss Cammie Rodman. 000

The following cards have been issued: Mrs. Latta C. Johnston

Miss Johnston At Home Wednesday, November the twelfth from four to five 609 North Tryon street. Mrs. H. R. Borthwick, Miss Elizabeth Hill.

Mrs. Borthwick arrived in the city last week from her home in Bridgewater, Va., and has since been the day Afternoon Bridge Club will be what stingy in the matter of precipi-guest of Mrs. Johnston. She is a entertained by Mrs. J. P. Quarles at tation, November is expected to con-sister of Mrs. Johnston. Miss Hill is

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the Cornie Fore, Nancy Anderson, Emily Young Woman's Home and Foreign Durham, Nell Saunders, Susan By num, Bettie Nash Mary McAden Myers, Anna Forbes Liddell, Margaret Moore, Mesdames Preston B. Wilkes, Jr., Frank L. Pegram, R. L. Goode Thomas D. Mackay, L. F. Poag, J. P. Quarles, Thomas P. Moore, Langley

Ingraham of Maryland, Joe Jones, Margaret Kelly Abernathy and Law-rence S. Holt, Jr., of Norfolk, Va. The punchers were Misses Minnie Little, Lavonne Maxwell, Carrie Con-Iver Wilkes and Caroline Constable. 000

The following cards have been received in the city: Mr. and Mrs. Hiram D. Wheat invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Irene Bayne

Mr. Oliver Preston Richardson Wednesday evening November 19, nineteen hundred and thirteen at seven-thirty o'clock Limestone Presbyterian Church Gaffney, South Carolina.

The recent announcement of Miss Wheat's approaching marriage was received with much interest in this city where the charming bride-elect with Mrs. R. H. Peasley, at her home made many friends during the course of her stay at Queen's College. QQQ

After a few days spent in Spartanburg. S. .C., as the guest of Miss Nell Brown, Miss Minta Jones has gone to Birmingham, Ala., where she will visit Mrs. Holland Harris Fletcher. 0 0 0

On account of the illness of her aunt, Miss Jane Wilkes, at her home in Washington Mrs. Lockwood Jones was unable to attend the General Convention of the U. D. C. in New Orleans, La. Mrs. Jones was to have been a delegate from Stonewall Jackson Chapter.

000 After a stay with Mrs. Charles Pritchett at her home on North College street, Mrs. U. B. Blalock has returned to her home in Wadesboro. Mrs. Pritchett entertained Thursday morning in honor of her attractive guest.

000

On Tuesday afternoon the Thurs-

INDIGESTION, GAS OR WATT, DOXEY & WATT SICK, SOUR STOMACH Time "Pape's Diapepsin!" In five minutes all stomach misery is gone. "Really does" put bad stomachs in order-"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your in-sides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing-almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness. A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home-should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world. Advertisement

WATT, DOXEY & WATT Women's Tailored Suits

'An exphess shipment this morning of new Winter Suits in Navy, Brown and Black, latest style three-button cut-a-way coat with plain or draped skirt, marked at special low prices for quick selling, $17.50 and $22,50.

Blankets and Comforts

Blanket season is here in earnest. Cotton and Wool Blankets and heavy Comforts at specially low prices. Cotton Blankets, 85c, $1.25, $2.25. Wool Blankets, $4.50, $5.00 and $5.50. Comforts, $1.25, $1.50 and $4.75.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 .- With an | Massachusetts is the most importan output valued at more than six hundred and twenty-five million dollars, the cotton mill industry in 1909 among the industries of the United States ranked third in the number of the States next in rank. In general, persons employed and seventh in the the percentages of increase in the value of goods produced. The figures leading Southern cotton manufactur-

State; North Carolina ranked second South Carolina third, and Rhode Island fourth. Georgia, Pennsylvania. New Hampshire, Connecticut and Alabama, in the order named, were for that year, just compiled by the ing States were greater than those Census Bureau, were made public to- in the Northern States."

In three States, Alabama, South

Mise Dorothy Williams, daughter of | held open for him. Mr. McCombs ac-Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, of cepted' the President's offer several months ago, but indicated immediately the United States Army, who, it was afterward that he would like to have announced in London, would wed time for further consideration. It has William F. McCombs of New York, been regarded as a certainty among airman of the Democratic National his friends here that he would accept ommittee, made her debut three ultimately and the President apars ago in Washington society. She parently has been of the same opinonce became one of the belles of ion. At any rate the French mission le season and has remained such. is at Mr. McCombs' command.

he is now with her parents in Lon-In his original declination of the con. Mr. McCombs has been abroad Ambassadorship at Paris Mr. Mcsome time. There was no word of the Combs gave as a reason that he had engagement before he left. So friends not enough private means to conduct of both parties were taken unawares when the announcement of the en- With a wife, the expenses of the Amgagement and wedding to follow at bassador would be increased and Miss Williams is not regarded as wealthy. once was made President Wilson was surprised Miss Dorothy Williams, like her when he was told Thursday that Mr. elder sister, Mrs. Joseph Leiter, was McCombs was to be married. It was educated at the Visitation Convent in all news to him, he said. Nothing had Georgetown. Later she went to a been heard from Mr. McCombs at the convent in Paris. She is an extreme-White House lately and it is not ly graceful girl. known with any certainty whether he

Mr. McCombs is 36 years old, a nawill now accept the post of Ambassa- tive of Arkansas, and a graduate of dor to France. This place has been Princeton in the class of'98.

WILSON'S VIEWS

Trial of Judge Emery Speer Before Congressional Committee Will Begin Next January.

failed completely today in many in-WASHINGTON Nov. 10 .- Only in from the outside world so far as telethe sense that the Democratic party graph and traction facilities were conwill be responsible for currency legcerned islation and therefore must direct its progress, does President Wilson belen since Saturday night. No raillieve the currency bill will be made road trans have been operated out of day that he expected it would be a non-partisan bill when completed. "The President said he regarded it conference called for Wednesday by neous at on their part and not at his request. The President pointed out that the move however me' with his

RESINOL STOPS

There is no earthly need of itching and the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Hill of Raleigh, and is pleasantly remembered in this city as a former student at Queen's College.

ØØØ Mrs. H. M. McAllister of Knoxville, Tenn., is spending some time in this city as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Talbert, at their home on South Cedar street 0 0 0

An event of Saturday afternoon was the euchre party which was given by Miss Hannah Constable at her hame on North Church street, in honor of Miss Ruth Macaulay Dowd. whose wedding to Mr. Albert Sidney Goss will be solemnized on Wednesday evening of this week. A hand some ivory fan, the first prize, was won by Mrs. Margaret Kelly Aber nathy. Mis Jean Dowd cut the consolation, a box of correspondence cards, while a special guest-of-honor prize, a silk handkerchief bag, was presented to Miss Dowd. At the conclusion of play a delicious two-course luncheon was served. A color scheme of green and white was observed throughout, the home being decorated with a profusion of white chrvsanthemums and ferns, while the score cards were clusters of white and green hearts tied with white satin diplomatic establishment there ribbon. The hostess wore royal blue crepe de chine with trimmings of lace, while Miss Dowd was handsomely attired in brocaded taupe chiffon velvet, with beaded chiffon bodice over yellow satin, and wearing a black velvet hat with paradise trimmings. She wore a corsage equipment of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. The invited guests were Miss Dowd and guest, Miss Marie Mahone of

Norfolk, Va., Misses Anna Belle Dowd, Esther Springs, Margaret Haughton, May London, Frances Ray, Jean Dowd. Laurie Spong, Sudie and Gladys Scott Ruth Shannonhouse, Laura Reilley, Katherine Pegram,

Nearly Every Child Has Worms Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. stances. Cleveland continues cut off Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer in pleasant candy form, alds digestion, tones system, overcoming constipation and increasing the action of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it.

ner home on Park Drive. Miss Ruth Macaulay Dowd will be the guest of honor. 0 0 0 noon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. F. D. Sampson, at her home on South Boulevard.

NOVEL REPLY TO BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

tribute but 2.86 inches of moisture. With the running start which she registered at this early period of her Sorosis will meet tomorrow after- existence, it would seem that this November will go down in the an-ing to the general public only in that it opens fields for cogitation in determining what proportion of the aggregate was received personally,

When the Government auditors check up November's record for the year

1913, and officially ask what she has contributed toward the annual output of rain, she should have scant difficulty in returning her portion of the talents. Credited with being some-nals of the weather bureau as a record breaker. Saturday's downpour was the heaviest November rainfall which the city has known in 35 vears.

During the 48 hours which extended from Saturday morning until 8 c'clock this morning, the thermometer registered a fall of 22 degrees; tumbling from 50 on Saturday, to 38 yesterday, and further descending unth the mercury stood at 28 this morning, which incidentally is the coldest of the Winter. Mr. Atto is in expectation of unchanged temperature for the next 24 hours, with the ther-"mometer but a few degrees below freezing tonight. A possible flurry of snow is thought to be contained in The last-named pair are the sons of the gray clouds which commenced to the first of the trio, and arraigned darken the horizon this morning.

For the heavy rains, high winds, house in a battle royal. The old man and the sudden tumble of the mercury, a South Carolina storm retering and boisterous fellow has since costs for their portion of the affair, plea of not guilty.

departed the border of the Palmetto which seemed to have been some-State coast, proceeded, of course, what aggravated by their worthy sire, along Cape Hatteras, and when last who was found not guilty. reported was threatening Buffalo, N. Y., with its pent-up Fort Sumter tobacco during the peace and quiet June 14 he shot Jennie Wiggins, a wrath. High winds and rain, fol- of yesterday's Sabbath afternoon cost woman of his race, causing instant lowed by cold weather, marked the Charlie Metseanis, a Greek, the sum death. A shotgun, utilized at close trail of the pioneer on its northern of $24.65, when he was arraigned in tcur. The flurry of snow which fell court this morning upon a charge of employed by Jarrett. The negro sucin Asheville yesterday afternon, was violating the "blue laws."

being repeated at an early hour this morning.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE TO MEET

Seventeen true bills against two individuals constituted the work of the

MANY TRUE BILLS

AGAINST FLASHERS

Wednesday afternon at 4 On clock, a meeting of the Equal Suf- grand jury this morning. The recipfrage League of North Carolina will ients of this unusual array of legal

day. A striking feature of the report was the discovery that the increase in | and North Carolina, the report sets manufacturing was much greater in forth, nearly 19 per cent of all emthe Southern States than in the ployes in the mills were children un-North.

der 16 years of age. In Massachu-"The industry is confined almost setts, New Hampshire and Rhode Isentirely to the States east of the Mis- land, however, it was found that the sissippi," says the report, "from ter- proportion of women employed in the ritory west of that river only twenty mills was much greater than in the establishments having been reported. South.

WANTED TO PLEAD COSTLY VIOLATION OF CITY BLUE LAWS

An uneventful session featured this morning's convening of recorder's court, which was attended by the usual array of Monday morning drunks. A family disturbance which might have had a serious termination was aired in the three-cornered affray case in which Buck, Tom and Fred Sellars were the defendants.

Oscar Jarrett, colored, theoretically attempted to seat himself in the electric chair, when in Superior Court this morning he made an effort to enter a plea of guilty to the charge of murder in the first degree. It is doubtful if Oscar was cognizant of the fact that such a plea could have but punishment, but nevertheless, he upon that first degree plea. themselves against the head of the As the State of North Carolina's penal code refuses to accept any such succeeded in wresting an axe from the plea, Judge Harding appointed Messrs. grasp of one of his hopefuls, there-Louis J. Hunter and J. L. Delaney as ceives the official condemnation of by preventing some possible heavy attorneys for the defendant, who, the weather department. This blus- work. The sons were taxed with the somewhat against his will, enters a apparently had his wollly cranium set

GUILTY OF MURDER

The murder which Jarrett committed was indeed worthy of almost any first degree plea which he might The sale of one sack of smoking care to submit. On the night of range, was the implement of death cessfully eluded the local officers for a number of months, and was only several weeks ago captured in Salisbury. His case will be heard so soon as his attorneys are able to prepare their defense.

PRINTER'S HEAD FOR LABOR COMMISSIONER

STORM KING RTIGNS TODAY

IN MIDDLE WESTERN STATES

(Continued from page 1.)

tion facilities in all parts of the State

At Akron 20 inches of snow has fal-

