REVENUE AND TARIFF. TWO BILLS PRESENTED IN THE HOUSE TO-DAY. All the Democrats, save Tarsney, Reasted the bill—Dingley Made an Explanatory Statement—New York's Advice are that Congress Has Decided to Promptly Grapple with the Financial Situation—Lord Dunsen Has Landed in New York—Other News Flash to-day by the Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—Two bills prepared by the Ways and Means Committee relating to revenue and finance, were presented to the House today by Chairman Dingley, who made an explanatory statement. It is expected that both measures will pass with little delay. The Democratic members of the committee resisted both bills with a single exception, Mr. Tarsney, who voted with the republicans on the adoption of the bond bill. It is estimated that the revenue bill will yield forty millions additional annually, twelve millions coming from wool, fourteen millions from compensatory duties on manufactures of wool, and fourteen million in other schedules.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—The news from Washington today that Congress has decided to promptly grapple with the financial situation, and that bonds will be issued, had a marked effect on Wall Street. At the opening of the stock market there was a general advance of one to two points. The committee on rules in the House today decided to report the rule vote on the Ways and Means tariff bill at five this afternoon, and the bond bill tomorrow. Amendments to either will not be allowed, although a vote for a substitute may be taken. The Democrats will demand an aye and nay vote on an option bill.

THE SOUTH A CHRISTMAS PRESENT. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The Senate today presented a Christmas present to the South, as Mr. Hill, of New York, appropriately characterized the bill repealing the prohibitive disabilities, passed at the close of the war, against the service of Confederates in the United States army and navy.

THE ILLINOIS POP. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 26.—The Populist state committee is in session here today to fix the time for holding state and congressional conventions.

DUNRAVEN IN NEW YORK. NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Lord Dunraven left the Tuetonic at Quarantine, coming to the city this morning. Dunraven will probably stop with American representative, Kersey, at 40 E. Twenty Fifth Street. He could not be seen today. His English attorney quietly refused to discuss the Venezuelan question, or the defender case, except to say that evidence of fraud by the defender is apparent everywhere.

THE INSURANCE CASES ENDED. TRENTON, N. J., December 19.—The insurance conspiracy trials from Newberne have all ended and Judge Graham pronounced sentence on the men yesterday afternoon. Hassell, the leader of the conspiracy, was sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years. William Fisher, colored, and five years. D. D. Delmonico, Seldon Delemar, J. C. Delmar and Levi T. Noe were sentenced to two years each in Craven county jail.

ALL of the defendants appealed and gave bond. They say they will carry the case to the United States supreme court if necessary.

SUGGESTIVE OF PANIC. NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The failure of Sands & Co., was announced on the Stock Exchange. The full force of war talk is felt in general, and a marked decline ensued. There is heavy selling. The export of five million in gold tomorrow, and high rates for money add the decline. The selling movement continued this afternoon, carrying the
