Edmunds on the Reorganization-Buchanan will be Returned to Congress. orrespondence to THE NEWS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—I was talking with Congressman Shuford a few days ago He said he wanted it understood that he would sacrifice all the matter of office for what he deemed to be loyalty to the farmer; that he, himself, was a farmer, and thought he knew their interests He said that the Populists had not yet been able to get proper recognition from Reed, else he would have been heard from more. I asked him about that vote of his on the tariff bill, which taxed the farmers 12 cents a bale on their cotton—ties and bagging. He said he knew what he was doing when he voted for that and would have his reason ready when the proper time comes. It is said that the Hog-Combine got to be so greedy that they turned out a Corker on the Democratic side of the House who had been there twenty years. retaliation, I am told that the Democratic representatives are boy-cotting him, and so he stands like a statue tacitly labelled, "Mud, or Watching and Waiting."

> Rising to a Question of Personal Privilege He Makes a Lively Breeze.

Special to THE NEWS. Washington, Feb. 7.—Another sensation was sprung this morning, growing out of the Pearson-Talbert 'session" scrap last Wednesday night. Talbert arose to a personal privilege, saying his words had been misenterpreted by the press, though under similar circumstances he would be in favor of secession again. Here he was called to order by Barrett, of Massachusetts, the same who wanted to impeach Bayard, and Barrett offered a resolution of censure, for treasonable utterances. Here Crisp intervened, moving that Talbert be allowed to explain, and the faction led by Barrett and Boutelle worked up a bloody shirt tumult trying to deny him the right, but to censure him immediately. The excitement was intense, and the scene interesting. Barrett was met with jeers from the Democrats and from many Republicans, led by Cannon, of Illinois, who moved to lay Barrett's motion on the with a shout voted the right to exagainst and made a stirring patriotic speech saying that while he would do the same thing again under similar circumstances, he said he was glad that such conditions would never PINEVILLE, Feb. 12.—Rev. VERDICT I. THE RITCH CASE.

Motion for a New Trial to be Heard Saturday -Mr. and Mrs. Ritch to Return Home

The second edition of The News of Tuesday afternoon, gave the re sult of the trial of Chas. Ritch for murder, and Emma Clark as an accomplice. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree against Rich and fixed his punishment at 10 years in the State penitentiary. They found Emma Clark guilty as an accomplice and fixed her punishment at 10 the fire. The race down Trade street years. The Judge set aside the verdict in the Clark case, holding that there was no evidence that she was an accomplice, and she went forth a free woman.

Rich was remanded to jail. Next Saturday he will be taken into court again, when a motion for a new trial will be made, and Ritch will probably be given the benefit of bond. A letter received Wednesday morning by Mr. J. P. Ritch, from Mr. T. L Ritch written Monday night, says that he and Mrs. Ritch will leave Knoxville for Charlotte next Monday. They hope to bring their son with them. Mrs. Ritch has undergone a terrible ordeal and is greatly distressed at the result of the trial. Mr. Ritch had at no time considered that the verdict would be other than one of acquittal. The expressions about town when it was known that the Clark woman had been freed were of a tone of mingled indignaton and regret. It had been hoped that the penitentiary would get her on general principles. Sentinel.

Two Farmers Fleeced.

For the News and Times.

MINT HILL, Feb. 12.—Two farmers in Clear Creek township, W. H Hartis and H. M. Lipe, some time ago had some horses to trade, and having some scruples in regard to "swapping" themselves employed one Bud Talbott to take their horses off and trade them for them. It now appears that Mr. Talbott did trade their horses off and findly sold out the remnant and bought a ticket for Texarcana, Texas, leaving each of the two farmers minus a horse.

This week's MECKLENBURG TIMES. It contained 14 pages, and 96 columns. If the columns of this paper were pasted in strips it would make a string more than 50 miles long, longer than from here to Salisbury, and nearly long enough to reach entirely around Mecklenburg county. It goes into more homes in Mecklenburg county than any two weekly papers published here. Its tremendous circulation has been built up by hard work. Not content with past achievments it is now making efforts to double its circulation. We desire to return thanks to the people of Mecklenburg and the merchants of Charlotte for helping us to make THE TIMES what it is.
