Encouraging News From Cuba.

Washington, May 13.—Senor Tomas Estrada Palma, representative in this country of the Cuban Republic, says the tone of the advices from Cuba are of a character to afford the friends of the Republic gratifying encouragement. His opinion is that only arms and ammunition are needed to end the war. The Insurgent Generals are progressing in their marches to the west of the island, The leaders of the army are constantly reanimated, and sustained by their successes. He says the Cubans will consent to noth. ing only to absolute independence.
