Mr. Crisp was the leading man in public life in Georgia, and one of the most popular men in the State. He would have undoubtedly been elected to the Senate by the Legislature at its next session had he lived.

SPAIN'S DEPLORABLE CONDITION

Must Import Breadstuffs—Only Patriotism Prevents Rebellion at Home.

By Telegraph to The News.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—A Madrid dispatch says the Queen Regent presided at a council of ministers today. Senor Canovas, Premier, gave a complete sketch, which was gloomy enough, of home and colonial affairs.

The loss of men in the colonial wars has proved disastrous to husbandry as indicated by the marked decrease in exports. Spain will be compelled to largely import breadstuffs.

Only the patriotism of the peasantry prevents the latent discontent from breaking out.

WATSON'S CLARION CALL.

He Cannot Speak to the Voters But He Writes From His Sick Bed a Ringing Address to the People.

Hon. Cyrus B. Watson, Democratic candidate for Governor is still quite sick and his recovery before the campaign ends is unlikely. He will be able to make no more speeches in this campaign, but he writes from his sick-bed a stirring appeal to the loyal men of North Carolina.

In it he says:
"According to custom, esteemed for its usefulness as well as its antiquity in North Carolina, I desired to meet my opponent, Mr. Russell, in joint debate upon all question in this campaign, but they rejected my challenge and declined to stand up in the field with me before the people. From exposure and fatigue I have been stricken down with sickness and am now confined to my home. I am advised that I may not be able to again enter the campaign. Fearing this may be true, I write this that the voters in those sections of North Carolina I have not been able to reach may know my heart is with them. I write because I can not come to speak. I would that every letter in every word of this might be a tongue to shout a warning that comes from the surging depths of these anxious days—a warning against the blow to the liberty of the masses of the people that threatens us in the clinched fist of Mark Hanna. My own voice cannot now be raised in your hearing, but let the voice of this letter plead with you, not for myself, but for my name on the ticket and for the names of my comrades; not for myself or for them for our own sakes, but for us and our names only because the cause we represent is the righteous cause of a righteous, long suffering people, your selves, who cry for deliverance and who yearn not for the "purple and gold of palaces," but who seek only to dwell, as their fathers intended they should, under their own vine and fig tree, where none dare to molest or make afraid."

CARLISLE ROTTEN EGGED.

Crowds Called Him Traitor and Hooted Him Down in His Own State.

John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury, was rotten egged and hooted down in his first speech of the campaign in his own State. He spoke at Covington, Ky., Thursday night. When he appeared on the stage he was received with hearty applause, followed vociferous cheers for Bryan.

This continued for some time after Secretary Carlisle began to speak, completely drowning his voice so that those nearest him on the stage could not hear his words. At the same time a crowd occupied the street and rent the air with shouts for Bryan. This continued at frequent intervals during the entire speaking. Now and then a man on the outside would shout:

"Carlisle the traitor."
Carlisle's voice was strong, but not able to cope with the tumult on the outside. He had spoken perhaps three minutes when an egg came sailing through the air from the rear of the hall. It missed his head less than a foot, falling on the platform behind him and breaking. A second later another egg shot from the rear and fell at Carlisle's feet.

Carlisle hesitated a moment amid hushed excitement. He then said he hoped those who did not desire to hear him would leave the hall. A cheer followed this, and Carlisle proceeded. He spoke two hours, and while no more eggs were thrown, he was hooted and jeered at throughout his speech. Every minute or two some one in the rear would propose three cheers for Bryan, and the hall would shake with cheers. The crowd outside would then take it up.

Carlisle fought bravely against this treatment, and yelled at the top of his voice in order to be heard. His exertions appeared painful. He consumed several lemons during his speech. Much sympathy was expressed for him by the better element. Except the side remark he made when the eggs were thrown at him, he appeared oblivious of the terrific tumult, but showed signs of deep chagrin at the brazen insults heaped upon him by his neighbors.

At the conclusion of Carlisle's speech he was escorted from the hall to the street by several friends. He was accompanied to his home, six squares away, by a squad of police. An immense crowd followed him, hooting and howling, and for a time it was feared that the Secretary would be mobbed. The police, however, kept the crowd back and Carlisle reached home safely. Serious trouble is feared when he speaks at Bowling Green Saturday night.

WHEAT UP AGAIN.

ANOTHER EXCITING DAY ON THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

The New York Grain Market Stronger in Spite of the Rise in the Rate of Sterling Exchange.—Still Rising in Manitoba.

By Telegraph to The News.
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23.—Today was another exciting season in the Chicago Board of Trade. Wheat has been several points off and has seen a steady decline for the last few days.

But this morning the bulls made a charge and sent wheat spinning up again. Up to the afternoon there was a rise of two and a half cents a bushel. This is in spite of the fact that the rate of foreign exchange has been raised.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The grain market is strong today. Trading was good, and the market price for cash wheat rose two cents.

This is in spite of the fact that the Bank of England has raised the rate of Sterling exchange. Oct. 23.—Wheat continues throughout Manitoba to maintain its place at the top notch. It is not affected by the speculation in the American markets.

The Government estimate of the wheat crop in Manitoba puts the figures at more than ten million bushels.

NEW COONS ARE HERE.

Hanna's Niggers Are Circulating in the East.

A special from Williamston, N. C., to the News and Observer says: There are new coons in the East. Nearly everywhere you go you find one or more of Hanna's black emissaries, wearing stovepipe hats, yellow shoes and the loudest styles of loud clothes. They spend money lavishly, and of course are soon the great "I am's" with the native blacks. They talk sound money and protection, and tell the negroes that the free silver scheme was gotten up by the Democrats only to fool the negroes, and if the Democrats get in power, it will be good-bye Mr. Nigger.

"With us, my colored brethren, it is a question of free silver or free nigger. You can take whichever you please. I am a free nigger man myself, and therefore I am against your free silver."
This is a sample of the speeches they are making. But these Northern negro emissaries of Hanna, while they are in a manner satisfying the blacks, are also dissatisfying the whites.

TO CHECK THE FLOW OF GOLD.

Alarm in England at the Sale of the Yellow Metal to America.

By Telegraph to The News.
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The dispatches yesterday foreshadowed this action by the Bank of England to stop the tremendous withdrawals of gold. So great is the alarm in London over the continued export that a rumor is current that the Bank of France has agreed to make a loan to the British institution with a view preventing the increase in the bank rates.

The Imperial Bank of Germany raised the rate to five per cent two weeks ago, throwing the burden of the demand on England. If the rate to four per cent, is not sufficient to check the flow of gold to America the directors will undoubtedly make another advance at an early date.

It is estimated ten millions of gold are now en route to New York.

THE RALLY AT MATTHEWS.

Fine Speech of Judge Bennett and Mr. Lockhart—Big Day for Democracy.

For the News and Times.

MATTHEWS, Oct. 22.—There was a good crowd of people from all parts of the surrounding country gathered here today to participate in the grand Democratic rally which had been anticipated for sometime. The number of people here and the interest manifested go to show that the people "hereabouts" are still marching under the banner of Democracy. There was some disappointment at first, when it was known that two of the speakers expected, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator T. J. Jarvis would not be here, but while they did not get here Judge R. T. Bennett and Hon. Jas. A. Lockhart did, as did also the county candidates, excepting Mr. Ransom, and let us say that we are sure there was no one who felt disappointed in the least after listening to the speeches Mr. Lockhart's speech was excellent, and Judge Bennett just seemed to be "brimming full" and "running over." They both made strong pleas for Democracy and the free coinage of silver, as did also the other speakers. Judge Bennett's very manner coupled with appearance age, showed that he spoke from knowledge gained through the experience of years, and one could not listen to him without being convinced of the great depth of his convictions. He referred to the past history of the Democratic party in proof of his statement that the free coinage of silver had always been Democratic doctrine, and read extracts taken from the Congressional records showing that Democrats in Congress had always fought for silver. We will not go into a further description of the speeches, but suffice it to say they were all good, and the day was truly a Democratic feast, and we believe that all went away more determined than ever that Democracy shall win on the 3rd of November.
