Gorham singled to right, who returned the ball to catch Morpeth. He was safe and scored when Patterson shot the ball back to Edwards at second to catch Gorham, Edwards being a second too late on the throw home. The locals came back in this very same inning and on slashing doubles by Hartle, Hicks and Patterson scored two runs. Nothing more exciting happened until the fourth, when Charlotte added another, after two were out, when Hicks walked and Edwards smashed out a triple to center field. It was a terrific swat and bordered on to the home run variety.

Things rocked along in this satisfactory condition until the seventh and it had begun to look as if there would be no further argument, but right at this point Durham came very near walking away with the affair. Morpeth, first up in this frame, proved an easy out, but not so with Gorham, who followed, for the Durham third sacker connected with one of Dronan's fast ones for two sacks.
