

"Excellent Tonic"

MRS. S. A. WEIR, 827 W. 15th St., Pueblo, Col.

"Peruna is an excellent tonic for the weakness that follows grip. If everybody could have a bottle or two of Peruna after they have had grip they would get well a great deal sooner than they usually do."

"There is no better medicine in the world for colds and grip than Peruna. One bottle did more to relieve me of a bad cold and case of grip than any remedies that I have ever taken."

"Other things being equal, the ready-to-take medicine is the cheaper. On this phase of the subject Mrs. Weir says:

"I am a widow with a very small income, and have to look to every penny very closely. Under these circumstances your medicine is a godsend to me. One bottle of Peruna has accomplished for me more than an expensive course of treatment of any other sort. Of this I feel sure. As a matter of economy every one ought to have a bottle of Peruna in the house."

Registration Books Close Tomorrow - Who Can Vote on Saturday

The hours of the primary to be held next Saturday will be from 2 to 3 p. m. in the county outside of Charlotte, Matthews, Huntersville, Pineville, Cornelius and Davidson. In these places the polls will be open from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m. It is deemed necessary to hold the polling places open to 8 o'clock in the Charlotte precincts and in the precincts in the incorporated towns mentioned above, as there are many voters in those places, especially in Charlotte, who do not get off from work until nearly 8 o'clock. In view of the fact that there has been some misunderstanding as to the hours of the primary, Chairman Hamilton C. Jones, of the democratic executive committee, calls special attention to them.

The last call for registration for Saturday's primary is today and tomorrow. The registration books will close tomorrow, (Thursday) at sundown. All who have not had their names properly entered on the books in their home precinct by that time will be debarred from exercising the franchise on Saturday.

Chairman Jones, of the county democratic executive committee, also calls attention to the fact that failure to pay poll tax in 1913 will be no bar to voting in the primary Saturday, but will be a bar to voting in the general election next fall. He states that there has been an impression over the county that one can vote in the primary if he had not paid his poll tax for 1913. It is said, however, that had the rule been to debar all from the primary who had not paid the tax for 1913, it would not materially cut down the voting strength in Saturday's primary, as the great majority of citizens have already attended to this duty.

Pictures of Baraca-Phiatheta Meeting

Moving pictures of the annual Baraca-Phiatheta Union meeting at Durham are being shown again today at the Princess theater on West Trade street. They were made by Mr. F. L. Pizance of this city, and were shown there a few days after the adjournment of the union, where they were witnessed by hundreds of people. There have been so many requests for them to be shown again, however, that Manager Powell has decided to answer the request. The pictures include the annual big parade through the streets of Durham, which was a very spectacular event.

DRAWN UP IN A KNOT WALKING

Peculiar Was in Which Lady Had to Walk and How Easily She Was Straightened Out.

Laurel Hill, Fla.—The following advices from this town tell in detail of Mrs. Nellie Moore's peculiar condition. "About three months ago, I was taken down with terrible cramps. I didn't pay much attention to it at first, but slowly and surely I got worse until I could hardly walk, and I had to go drawn up in a knot, when I did walk."

My husband got me some medicine, but it did me no good. I suffered that way for a week. Finally, a motherly old lady told me to get a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I knew it was a good medicine from the start. I took it according to directions, and in a short while I felt like a new person.

Cardui is like a dear friend to come and take hold and do women's tiresome work, such as washing, ironing, sweeping, or sewing. I take a dose of Cardui and it seems to go to all my aching places and relieves me almost instantly. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a trial. It will do wonders for them. Give Cardui a trial for your troubles. It has helped over a million women in the past 50 years. Why not you? At your druggist's.

TRADE EXCURSION TO STAR WAS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

The first trade excursion ever run from Charlotte, that over the Norfolk-Southern Railway to Star in Montgomery county yesterday, was successful in every way. Instead of the 300 and professional, jobbers, merchants and professors who men of Charlotte who were expected to make the trip, it was found that 373 made it. The Norfolk-Southern officials, anticipating that there might be more people to make the trip than had expressed intention of doing so, had furnished a train of seven passenger cars at the Sixth street station. So that all the 373 passengers who left Charlotte and a number of visitors who were picked up along the way were accommodated with comfort.

The Charlotteans met with a most cordial reception at every one of the thirteen stations they stopped at between Charlotte and Star. At many places the city officials were an official one, the city officials laying aside their duties and extending to the visitors from Charlotte expressions of welcome and appreciation. At Ridgeview, the first stop made, there was a crowd of people to greet the emissaries from Charlotte, many of them being ladies. They were addressed on behalf of the Charlotte folk by Mr. J. Garibaldi, who explained the purpose of the trip yesterday as one intended to bring the people of Charlotte and the people along the Norfolk-Southern line into closer relationship. He told them to buy goods from their home market, in so far as they could do so, and to come to Charlotte for the goods they couldn't get at home. This exhortation was the basis of the remarks made by the Charlotte speakers to all the people along the route.

At Wilgrove the train stopped for a few minutes, while representatives of Charlotte business houses distributed literature and information regarding the firms they were connected with. At Allen, the last stop before leaving Mecklenburg county, President C. C. Hook of the Greater Charlotte Club, made a short talk to the people assembled and urged them to come to Charlotte for the goods they could not get at home. Mr. Thomas Allen, one of the leading spirits of the community about Allen station and vicinity, boarded the train and made the trip on to Star and back with the Charlotte party.

Both at Cabarrus and Midland good-sized crowds gathered at the stations and welcomed the Charlotteans. At Stanfield the welcome was expressed in the substantial terms of ice cold lemonade. The visitors were invited to the store of H. D. Crayton & Company, where the refreshments were on tap, and while there was hardly enough of the fluid to serve the 375 people aboard the train the evidence of hospitality was accepted in the gracious spirit that prompted it. Here Mayor Bland made a short address to the people assembled, urging them to buy goods at home, as far as the home merchant was able to furnish them, and to come to Charlotte for those they could not obtain at home. It was the desire of the Charlotte business people, Mayor Bland explained, to cooperate with them in building up their community and to secure their aid in building up this entire section, thereby building up the state.

At Oakboro, Mr. Gilead, Norwood and Troy the larger towns on the route, the visitors were accorded a warm welcome by the town officials and citizens. At Oakboro the commercial club of that thriving municipality had prepared against the coming of the Charlotte folks several tubs of ice-cool, refreshing lemonade, which the visitors partook of and showed their appreciation by three rousing cheers for Oakboro and its commercial club. After partaking of the lemonade the Charlotte delegation formed and marched through the town.

A short stop was made at Aquadale, where the stores were visited and everybody's hand was shaken that showed himself. Norwood was the noon stop of the party. Here the Charlotte visitors were welcomed in the handsome new high school building, to which the delegation marched. Mayor T. W. Hunter first made a welcoming address and then introduced Mr. J. I. Campbell, who also made a very appropriate welcoming address. Mayor Bland, Mr. C. O. Kuester, Mr. C. O. Hook and Mr. Robert Glasgow responded to the addresses on behalf of the Charlotte delegation.

At Mount Gilead a dozen or more automobiles were awaiting the Charlotte visitors at the station. The machines were filled with all they would hold of the Charlotte folks and the others formed in line and marched to the center of the town where the speaking took place. The parade was headed by Mayor John A. Lisk, who wore the uniform of a captain in the Confederate army. He was of that rank in the Southern army of the sixties and is the only man living who served as a full bearer at Stonewall Jackson's funeral. He and Mayor Bland, wrapped in the Stars and Stripes, posed for a picture. A tremendous crowd greeted the Charlotte delegation. Speeches were made by Mayor Lisk and other Mount Gilead citizens and responses were made by Mayor Bland and other Charlotteans.

At Troy, another big crowd welcomed the Charlotte party, which marched to the court house. A welcoming address was made here by Mayor Hurley and was responded to by Mayor Bland and others from Charlotte. The mills and business houses were closed down in honor of the Charlotte visitors and they were given a royal welcome.

At the last stop, Star, a cordial welcome was also extended. The speakers were Mayor Morris and Prof. Greene for Star, and Messrs. F. C. Abbott and C. O. Kuester, for Charlotte. By the time the train arrived at Star the number of passengers had been increased by additions along the route until the entire party numbered nearly four hundred.

Cigars Presented.

At Star a pleasing incident took place. Engineer Davis and Conductor Chestnut, who had conducted the special train to that point were called forward and each presented with a box of cigars by the Charlotte delegation as a token of appreciation for the way they had handled the train. Mayor Bland presented the cigars to Engineer Davis and Mr. W. S. Dorr did the like duty toward Conductor Chestnut.

Accompanying the Charlotte delegation on the trip were the following Norfolk Southern officials: Col. H. S. Leard, general passenger agent. C. W. Akers, general superintendent. E. D. Kyle, traffic manager. J. F. Mitchell, traveling passenger agent. George B. Underwood and L. H. Johnson, commercial agents. W. R. Pennal, master mechanic. J. K. Fowell, Charlotte, agent. Coulton Cobb, fireman. J. W. Murray, flagman. John Evans, porter.

The Norfolk Southern officials were tireless in their efforts to provide for the comfort of the passengers, and a hand primary taken of the party would have said unanimously that they succeeded well in their task. Among the Charlotte party who addressed the people at various points along the route were Mayor Bland, C. O. Kuester, C. C. Hook, R. Kent Blair, John S. Blake, F. C. Abbott, W. S. Dorr, J. W. Lewis, C. W. Akers, Judge Little, David Shaw, Joe Garibaldi, Robert Glasgow, Dr. George Dennis, Ben Pillow and others. The Steel Creek band, under the direction of Capt. R. C. Freeman, accompanied the excursionists and dispensed lively music at all stops, adding very much to the enjoyment of the trip.

Invitation to Celebration. At every point along the route a cordial invitation was extended to the people to come to Charlotte and stay during the week of the Twentieth, and it is likely that a large majority of them will accept the invitation.

It is Just Natural To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the cooing infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is ever before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the most helpful things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mothaline." We have known so many grandmothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommend it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicates. They have used it for its direct influence upon the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the strain and pain so often experienced during the period of expectancy.

A little book mailed by Bradford Regulator Co., 205 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., refers to many things that women like to read about. It refers not only to the relief from muscle strain due to their expansion but also to nausea, morning sickness, caking of breasts and many other distresses.

WIFE'S ILLNESS DELAYS JUDGE M. H. JUSTICE.

Asheville, May 13.—Judge M. H. Justice, who has been presiding over the sessions of superior court here for the trial of civil cases, telephoned to Marcus Erwin, clerk of superior court, this morning that owing to the illness of his wife at Rutherfordton he would be unable to reach Asheville until Thursday morning. At this time the judge expects to take up the docket of the last week of court and it is thought by the attorneys that he will be able to finish the docket for the week during the last three days of this week.

A CURIOUS SITUATION.

(Lumberton Robesonian.) Many people in Lumberton who clamored for free delivery of mail and cursed the postoffice department out for that it was slow about putting it on are now sorry they got it. It is one of those town conveniences you have to pay for all the while. The other day a man went to the postoffice with a big batch of letters for town delivery and put on each letter a one-cent stamp. When told he would have to put a two-cent stamp on each letter, he came near fainting. "Great guns," he said, "aint there no way to stop this free delivery? Don't you reckon the government would call it off if we'd get up a petition and have everybody sign it?" Assistant Postmaster R. O. Edmund, to whom this disgruntled citizen was talking, laughed and reckoned not; he reckoned that now that the town has got what it thought it wanted it would have to keep it.

So, the local postoffice people are not worrying. The rent of only six boxes has been lost on account of free delivery and the increase in receipts is taking care of the increase in expense. This is one city convenience that Lumberton could have raked along without cheerfully, but those who were keen for it had not figured out what it would cost. The laugh is on those who clamored for it as a right since the town's postoffice receipts had reached the required amount. And we are not denying that The Robesonian is one of the guilty ones. COTTON WELL UNDER WAY.

(Monroe Journal. Mr. John Arant of Chesterfield county was in town Saturday and reported that his cotton was ready to be chopped. Mr. Arant says that he never has trouble in getting hands to chop cotton for the reason that his cotton is always ahead of others and there is not much demand for labor. For the same reason he never has any trouble in getting his cotton picked. Mr. Arant has for several years sold the first bale in the Monroe market.
