What The RUUD Means In The Household

With a Ruud in the home, all the inconvenience of the range boiler, with its limited supply of stale water, is removed. The Ruud means unlimited hot water at every faucet, at any time, day or night, without even a thought of anything but a mere turn of the faucet. The Ruud is so perfect in its action, and unfailing in its ability to furnish ever-ready, abundant hot water, that the ideal of hot water service is realized. The Ruud is moderately priced, and inexpensive to operate, and is so constructed that it will last a life-time.

PROVOCATIVE OF MURDER.
(Lumberton Robesonian.)

We are peaceable as peaceable and never advocate violence, but if ever murder is justifiable it would be in the case of some auto drivers. Making unnecessary noise and utterly disregarding in every other possible way the rights and feeling of others—the whipping post ought to be revived for that class of drivers.

CORN CLUBS AND BASEBALL CLUBS.
(Lumberton Tribune.)

We like to see baseball and we like to see the boys having a good time at such sport, but we hate to see play interfere with work. The boy who leads his neighborhood in the production of corn and has the best pigs and calves is doing a great deal more for the country than the boy who can knock a home run on the baseball diamond, but knows nothing about corn, pigs and calves. Of course, a boy can have both of these accomplishments. He can raise corn, pigs and calves, and also strike home runs, but the ones that we are talking about are those who let baseball and pleasure absorb everything else. We have known boys who would leave their corn in the grass, and leave their poor old fathers to do all the feeding and other duties around the home just for the sake of a little baseball; and they would not only do this one evening, but perhaps every day in the week.

A PARADE WITH A PURPOSE.

(Beaufort News.)

The children of the graded school paraded again in the evening before the speaking. The procession of children was headed by a wagon and an old patched-up mule. In the wagon were an old bench and bell. In the rear of the procession were a prettily decorated automobile and a nice appearing horse and buggy. The contrast between the old mule and wagon and the automobile and horse and buggy was intended to exemplify the contrast between the present school buildings and the proposed new one. Some one suggested that the old patched-up mule represented the men and women giving for being against the bonds. The children sang splendidly, and altogether the parade was an inspiring sight.

MATRIMONIAL ADVICE.

(Albemarle Enterprise.)

A well known singer, who has had much experience in matrimonial alliances and misalliances, says that no woman should marry before she is 44. This no doubt will prove a happy consolation to many on old maid, for really she may be just approaching the ideal age for matrimony. And it is nothing but logical that the average man, therefore should not be married till he has reached about the half-century mark. That must be great consolation to three or four men about Albemarle, who are approaching rather rapidly the half century mark and have not thus far been fortunate to secure a "partner of greatness."

HEAVY STORM AT ENFIELD.

(Enfield Progress.)

Quite a heavy storm broke over Enfield and vicinity late Wednesday evening with it a considerable change in temperature. There was some hail but no damage has been reported. We understand that considerable damage was done by hail around Weldon.

MAKING ICE IN AUGUST.
(Monroe Journal.)

Your compositor made me say in my last news items, that Rev. Hamp Austin spent several days in Wingate Saturday. Everybody knows that "won't do." It should have read hours instead of days.

This calls to mind the story of the good old Primitive Baptist deacon and the elder. The story runs like this: It was during late summer and the preacher, on his way to his appointment in a strange congregation, stopped off at Charlotte for a short while during which time he visited the ice plant where he saw, for the first time, ice being made artificially. This was just after the industry had been started in Charlotte. The next day in the course of his sermon he was commenting on the great discoveries and wonderful achievements of man. "Why," said he, "I saw in the city of Charlotte yesterday men making ice, great blocks of it, by the ton." After services this good and pious old deacon took the clergyman to one side and soundly rebuked him for telling "such unreasonable tales. "Why," contended he, "everybody knows that won't do. God Almighty Himself can't make ice in August, and you know it. So you move on, we don't want any more such stuff here."

IT DEPENDS ON THE SECTION.
(Rowland Sun.)

In our ramblings we see crops in some sections that are the best on record for the time they have been planted, while in other sections prospects are very poor. For instance, up around Rennert we find an excellent stand of cotton and corn, and all of it looking well, while in the Maxton section crops in some places were almost destroyed by the sand and wind that swept over the fields on Tuesday of last week. Much crops in that section have had to be planted over, and there was much complaint when we were up there on last Saturday of dry weather. Splendid rains visited some sections of the county on Thursday evening previous, but Maxton escaped them.

THREE LEGGED CHICKEN.
(Morganton Messenger.)

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Tate of Perkinsville, were in town the other day and gave The Messenger a most pleasant call. Mr. Tate tells us that he has a three-legged chicken several weeks old and that it does not appear to be handicapped by the appendage. Now if he will only increase this particular breed his fortune will have been made, for any man will give more for a fully developed three-legged chicken than he will for two-legged variety.

Rub This On and Your Pain Will Stop

If you suffer from any kind of an ache or pain such as comes from rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, headache, a sprain or bruise or you will get a tube of PANGALAY, squeeze a little of this wonderful mixture into the palm of your hand and rub it over the affected spot, you will have instant relief. This is not mere advertising talk. It is a cold hard fact.

Here is a preparation wholly unlike anything ever used for this purpose. It is not a liniment or an oil, it contains no injurious drugs that dispel a pain by deadening the nerve. It is composed of six remarkable ingredients only recently adopted as possessing great penetrating and healing properties.

Just to give you an example. One of these ingredients if you were to mix it with some strong drug such as quinine and then rub it on your knee it would so quickly pass all through the system that the quinine would soon be felt by the buzzing in the ears. This is why PANGALAY will stop an ache or pain almost the second it touches the skin because it carries the ingredient to the sore, aching spot and heals it.

You'll say, as we say, that PANGALAY is one of the greatest blessings ever discovered in medical research for the purpose of relieving a person when he is suffering from great pain. It is guaranteed absolutely harmless and safe for man, woman or infant to use. Try a tube to-day. Price 25 cents. At all drug stores, or by mail from the Curtis Chemical Company, 117 East 24th Street, New York City.
