$1.10

Seven answers are allowed for each picture, and use of the full allowance will count against a player only in the event two or more have the same number of correct solutions. In this event, the one with the smallest number of total answers will out rank the other or others. If you are not sure of a picture it is better to use your allowance rather freely than to take a chance on missing an answer entirely.

In submitting answers, write your name and address as well as the title and author, as legibly as you possibly can.

After all answers are in, the list of correct titles will be turned over to the judges and the big task of checking will begin. It is expected that it will require at least two weeks to finish.

HORNETS OUTCLASS

the bases in the sun. Weiser's triple followed by Emery's single, a steal an infield out, a base on balls and a single produced two runs in the first. Three singles, a sacrifice and a base on balls produced two more in the second. Two hits, a base on balls, and a sacrifice fly sent another across in the third while three singles, a hit batsman and an infield out sent the last two across in the sixth. Fourteen Hornets died on the paths.

The fielding of Emery, Mollenkamp and Williams featured for the locals, while Corbett's and Watson's fielding featured for the visitors. The hitting of the entire Charlotte outfit and the hitting of Rohe, Bumb, Welsh and Freye featured for the visitors, since they were the only ones to connect.

Three Weeks of Civil and One Week of Criminal Court Ahead

Next Monday morning at 10 o'clock Judge Walter J. Adams, who has been holding all the courts in Mecklenburg county for the past five months, will convene a two-weeks' term of civil court. This will be followed by a one-week term of criminal court, on Monday, June 8, and that in turn will be followed by another week term of civil court.

There are many interesting civil suits to be tried during the three weeks of civil court that will be held during the four weeks to come and the week of criminal court that will be held between the second week of civil court and the third week of civil court will likely have some very interesting cases if they are put on the docket for trial at that time.

It remains to be seen whether C. E. Trull, charged with the murder of Sidney Swain on the night of May 16; H. O. Williams, charged with the murder of Dillard Hooker on the afternoon of May 17th, and Will Sims, colored, charged with the murder of his father-in-law, Bob White, on last Tuesday night, will come up for trial at the term of criminal court immediately ahead, but it is likely that one or more of them will be tried.
