Mr. Young was accompanied on the special by Retiring President Hix, Mr D. Kyle, of Norfolk, traffic manager; Mr. J. T. Avery of New York, assisof Raleigh, division superintendent. In company with Mr. Lawrence Johnson, commercial agent of the road here, the visitors took a trip over the city late yesterday afternoon and called upon a number of local business men. The special train with the visiting officials left this morning at 4 o'clock for Norfolk.

Mr. Young is a westerner and got into the railroad business by way of the Southern Pacific, starting it at at the foot of the ladder and working his way up rapidly. He left the Southern Pacific to take a high official position with other railway lines.
