WHERE BURGLARS DRAW THE LINE.

The professional burglar picks a lock or opens a window and thus has access to your household valuables about as easy as you open your door with your latchkey. There is little between your valuables and robbery while they are disposed about the house.

But burglars, in their activities, draw the line at Safe Deposit Vaults, and do not even attempt them. Therefore, would it not be well to place such of your valuables as are not in constant use, in the security of a box at the Commercial National Bank? $1.50 a year and upward.
