SOCIAL

WHY NOT?
Some one the briers
May pluck from the way!
Why may not I?
And why not today?

Some one for others
May toil in the sun;
Why may not I
Till my short life is done?

Some one may visit
The grief-stricken home
That comfort and hope
To the sad ones may come.

Some one the sigh of the Traveler may heed,
And food and fresh water
Supply to his need.

The Water of Life too
And bread from above
O may I distribute
With gladness and love!

MISS HUTCHISON ONE OF THE GUESTS

The following from the Smithfield Herald will be read with interest: In Honor of Miss Evans. Probably the most elaborate social function of the season, occurred last Thursday, at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sanders, on Oakland Heights, when the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club gave its annual luncheon.

The honoree of this occasion, is by a rule of the club, the one who has made the highest scores during the preceding year, and all the members were glad, when fortune's favor fell this time, upon Mrs. T. C. Evans, who came to Smithfield last fall a stranger; but who, by her sweet disposition and gracious manners, has already endeared herself to a host of new-made friends.

The beautiful, frescoed walls of the lovely colonial house, needed no further embellishment; but a suggestion of tall vases of lilies and daisies, harmonizing with the color scheme of yellow and white, which prevailed throughout all the decorations.

At one o'clock the dining room was thrown open, where covers were laid for eighteen. The color scheme of white and yellow was carried out by means of white baskets, filled with daisies and tied with yellow ribbon, serving to further adorn the table, already beautiful, with its embroidered linen, cut glass and silver. The place cards were hand painted in daisies.

The menu was as follows:
Grapefruit
Bouillon Cream of Asparagus
Stuffed Tomatoes
Anchovies on Toast
Frozen Punch
Broiled Chicken, Green Peas en Pates,
Beaten Biscuit, Olives, Iced Tea
Fruit Salad
Musse White Pound Cake
Parmenter Cheese, Coffee
Salted Almonds, Mints.

Afterward Bridge was played at four tables, and the happy moments passed all too quickly. The members of the club and their guests were:
Mrs. T. C. Evans, Miss Hutchison, of Charlotte; Miss Evans, of Greensboro; Mrs. N. H. Canady, of Oxford; Mrs. Jno. O. Ellington, of Fayetteville; Miss Ruth Young, of Clayton; Mrs. E. W. Pou, Mrs. E. B. Blandy, Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Mrs. S. T. Honeycutt, Mrs. H. P. Stevens, Mrs. W. M. Sanders, Mrs. H. L. Skinner, Miss Mildred Sanders, Miss Mattie Pou, Miss Mildred Young, Miss Ruth Sanders and Miss Ione Abell.

MRS. WINCHESTER'S CLASS AT TRINITY
The young ladies of Mrs. R. H. Winchester's Sunday school class of Trinity Methodist church will give an ice-cream party on the church lawn this evening from 6 to 10, the receipts to be for the beautifying of the class room in the Sunday school.

A LINVILLE PARTY.
Mrs. W. C. Dowd, Miss Cornelia Dowd, Messrs. W. Dowd, Jr., and Edward Dowd, and Miss Sarah Canler left this morning for Linville, where they will spend a week or so. Mr. Dowd joins them later.

MRS. JONES SINGS AT KNOX.
Mrs. Frank Jones was heard in two beautiful solos at Knox church yesterday morning and evening. Mrs. Jones has a voice of rare beauty, and she is more than generous in the use of it. She sings at Knox often.

MRS. JESSE CHAMBERS DESPERATELY ILL.
The city will learn with distress of the critical illness of Mrs. W. J. Chambers at her home on North Tryon street. Her condition this morning was considered desperate. She is suffering with her heart. Since yesterday last she has been confined to her room, but only since Sunday did her symptoms become alarming.

Mr. Chambers, Mrs. T. W. Andrews, her sister and other relatives are with her, and her physician, Dr. T. H. Wright, constantly in attendance. Mrs. Chambers is beloved by host of friends in Charlotte, and in Wilmington, her old home, and to each, news of her serious affliction will come as a shock and distress.

GUESTS AT GALLOWAY HOME.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Galloway and attractive young daughter, Miss Mary Louise Galloway, of Oklahoma, are guests at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Galloway on Morehead avenue, the Messrs. Galloway being brothers.

MRS. DALTON JOINS HOUSE PARTY.
Mrs. Charles Dalton left Saturday for Dalton to join Mr. Dalton and their little son, Master Parks Hutchison Dalton and the latter's two guests, Masters Olin Nisbet and Olin Wearn, the boys and Mr. Dalton having been with Miss Georgiana Dalton for a week. The entire party returns this week.

SOLDIER BOYS TO CAMP GLENN FROM JULY 20 TO 28

Coast Artillery Will Go to Fort Caswell Also—The Instructions for Infantry and Sanitary Troops Issued by the Adjutant General.

Mr. Hudson C. Millar Calls Attention to Fact That City Gives $300 Yearly to the Coast Artillery—While Hornets Get Auditorium Armory Free.

Prepared for eventualities and mustered up to a fine footing, the members of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen will follow the drum and fife to the station on Monday, July 19, and on Tuesday, July 20, the soldiers will go into annual encampment at Camp Glenn, Morehead City, down by the sea and will remain a full week.

The members of the Coast Artillery also go to Fort Caswell for their annual encampment and practice in gunnery and range-finding. Announcement of details will be made later.

A copy of order No. 19 has been received here by officers of the Hornets and this official document, signed by the adjutant general, Laurence W. Young, of Raleigh, contains the following instructions:

General Order No. 19, 1915.
"Under the provisions of circular J 14, Division of Militia Affairs (D. M. A.), war department, 1914 * * * the following organizations of the North Carolina National Guard will encamp for field instruction and rifle instruction at Camp Glenn, Morehead City, on the following dates:
"Second Regiment Infantry and sanitary troops, July 19-28.
"First Regiment Infantry and sanitary troops, July 20-28.
"Third Regiment Infantry and sanitary troops, August 3-10.

The order above-mentioned, a copy of which was furnished The News by Mr. Frederick L. Black, who is an officer with the Second Regiment, also contains many details regarding the approaching encampments of interest to military men.

In reference to municipal aid, Mr. Hudson C. Millar, who recently resigned as lieutenant of the coast defense company here, points out that the published list from Raleigh giving the amount contributed by cities to their local militia, as reprinted in The News, failed to make mention of a $300 appropriation to the Coast Artillery from the city of Charlotte.

Rev. Daniel A. Tedder Delivers Able Sermon on "Behold the Lamb of God."

Rev. Daniel Allen Tedder preached at Independence Hill Baptist church yesterday morning on "The Lamb of God." He said his subject was not so much to talk about Christ as to point to Him. Verbal descriptions are worse than superfluous when one stands in the presence of a majestic mountain. To see, is to believe; to look is to live.

The speaker pictured Jesus Christ as the Pascal lamb in His spotlessness, His gentleness, and in His being put to death that sinners might live. He urged his hearers first to behold the Lamb and then, as did John's disciples, "follow Jesus."

He also described the time mentioned by John in Revelation, when those who had refused to behold the Lamb would be compelled to worship the Beast, and when the Lamb, having now become the "Lion of the tribe of Judah," would be so fearful in his wrath that the ungodly would hide themselves in the dens and the rocks of the mountains and would say to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?"

In contrast, Mr. Tedder pictured the happy state of those who, on beholding the Lamb, determined to follow Him. They would hereafter see the Lamb glorified and the object of worship of the faithful among all nations and tribes and nations, while, having washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb, they would be before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in His temple.

COLORED REFORM SCHOOL MEETING

(Reported for The News.)

Grace A. M. E. church on South Broadway street, was the scene of an enthusiastic mass meeting in the interest of the Mecklenburg Colored Reform School yesterday at 4 o'clock.

The pastor of the church, Rev. H. T. Medford, served as chairman of the meeting; Mrs. G. C. Clement presided at the piano; C. H. Watson offered prayer; Mrs. J. W. Crockett sang as a solo, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight." The chairman Rev. Medford introduced Rev. S. T. Eldridge who has been appointed by the trustee board of the Reform School to lead the campaign to raise fifteen hundred dollars within the next ninety days. This amount must be raised within that time to secure a proposition offered the trustees by the Vinton Liddell Estate. Following a speech setting forth the needs of such an institution, Rev. Eldridge gave the following plan for raising the money:

To get 100 people to give $5.00 each; 100 people to give $1.00 and solicit $4.00; 100 people to give $1.00 and become responsible for $1.00 each; to ask each Sabbath school in the city, white and colored to contribute $5.00, and each missionary society of both races to give $5.00.

It was stated that Mrs. E. W. Quinn, directress of the Grace church choral club, had asked the privilege of raising $100.00 through the efforts of her club while Mrs. Annie Williams of Ebenezer Baptist church (colored) proposes to raise a similar amount by the repetition of a play recently given at her church.

Mrs. Hamilton Jones, mother of City Recorder Jones was present, by request, and was asked to make remarks. Mrs. Jones pledged her influence to the movement and spoke sympathetically of the perplexing problems that confronted her son as judge of the city court as to the best method of disposing of the negro youthful criminals without a reformatory to which to send them.

Mrs. E. W. Quinn sang a solo, "Save the Boy;" Messdames A. A. Wyche, H. E. Johnson and T. J. Anderson were asked to record the pledges and many people pledged themselves to help the cause under the various plans above set forth.

Death of Mr. R. C. Elliott, Well Known Citizen Of Sharon Township

Mr. Robert H. Elliott, one of the best known citizens of the county, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home in Sharon township, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Elliott was 52 years of age and had lived all his life in Sharon township near where he died. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mannie Kirkpatrick, daughter of the late Thomas Alfred Kirkpatrick, of Sharon, and a sister of Alderman Parks Kirkpatrick, and four sons and two daughters. The sons are Messrs. A. B. Elliott, of Wichita Falls, Texas; Robert W. and George W. Elliott, of the county; the daughters are Mrs. Query Alexander, Mrs. Parks Elliott and Miss Cynthia Elliott, all of the county. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Messrs. J. W. Elliott, of Sharon; T. W. Elliott, of Sanford; Mr. J. P. Elliott, of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. B. W. Elliott of Durham; Mrs. Mollie Porter, of Sanford, Mrs. C. C. Brown, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. E. Den-Kistler, of Fayetteville. He was the son of the late Ben Elliott, in his day a well known and influential citizen of Sharon.

The funeral services took place today at noon at Sharon church, of which Mr. Elliott had long been a prominent and influential member, having been a member of the board of deacons for many years. The services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Little, pastor of Sharon church, assisted by Rev. Dr. G. R. White, pastor of Ebenezer A. R. P. church. The interment was in the cemetery at Sharon.

Mr. Elliott was a man who enjoyed the esteem and confidence of a wide circle of friends. Being a man of marked integrity and probity of character, kindly and courteous to all with whom he came in contact, he was beloved by all who knew him.

Superfluous Grit.
During a particular nasty dust-storm at one of the camps a recruit ventured to seek shelter in the sacred precincts of the cook's domain. After a time he broke an awkward silence by saying to the cook: "If you put the lid on that camp kettle you would not get so much of the dust in your soup." The irate cook glared at the intruder and then roared out: "See here, me lad. Your business is to serve your country." "Yes," interrupted the recruit, "but not to eat it."—Tit-Bits.
