THE HOUSE. The house was convened at 2:30 o'clock with Representative Grier of Iredell in the chair. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Poole of the Methodist church. There were laid before the house a number of bills from the senate askthe rate for legal advertising at the standard local rates of the newspaper used for the advertising. The amendment prescribed that the newspaper receiving the advertisement must first file with the clerk of the court a sworn statement showing the rates of advertising charged regularly for the various kinds of advertising it carries. Another house bill amended by the senate was that calling for reports by keepers of county homes. It had been so amended as to make it necessary for the keeper of the homes to also supply on demand reports from the state board of public charities. The house voted to reject this amendment at the instance of Representtaive Williams of Cabarrus, and a conference committee provision was made. Mr. Williams suggested to the house that the keepers of the county homes were busy men and had no time to make up the numerous reports that might be called for at the discretion of the state charities board. New bills introduced in the house were: Bryant of Durham-Amend the revisal relative to the sale of property by corporations.

Eccles-Amend the law as to the Buncombe county tax collector. Rose-Regulate the fees of the Gaston county jailor.

Burnett-Fix compensation of Swain

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting will show that I am always right. Far seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or oints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet — colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
