Never Handsomer Coats

Such Coats as these a few years ago would have been considered garments for royalty alone. Now here they are for any Charlotte woman of good taste and intelligence in buying-for surely it is wise to buy the best when the best is to be had.

Many of the Coats we show are richened with gorgeous furs. But, be they plain or fur trimmed, all are of the loveliest materials you ever saw-thick and warm and velvety and entirely desirable. The very adaptable collars and the splendid big pockets make them really practical, too. Certainly no well regulated wardrobe should be without a Coat this season. Superb values here at $55.
