STATE DEFEATED WILD CAT ELEVEN

Pete Crayton's Wildcats were no match for Bill Fetzer's Farmers Saturday and North Carolina State won a decisive victory over Davidson at Wearn field by the score of 36 to 6. State's initial touchdown came in the first eight minutes of play, and they scored in every quarter, the Presbyte- 0. rians' defense crumbling before the mighty onclaughts of the Tech backs, while the Red and Black attempts to penetrate the Tech line proved futile. To Captain Gurley, State's star halfback, goes the biggest share of glory in the win. In addition to scoring two touchdowns, and two goals from touchdown, this mighty warrior added another three points in the first quarter with a beautiful place kick from the 43-yard line that sent the ball sailing squarely between the uprights and over par with plenty of room to spare. Besides being State's best ground gainer, he put up a wonderfully strong defensive game and managed to get in almost every play. Sharing honors with Gurley for State was Faucette, who pulled off the most sensational play of the game when he received a kickoff in the second quarter and, evading tackler after tackler, ran 75 yards for a touchdown. It was a beautiful piece of broken field running. Homewood put up a great de fensive game at left end, and smeared up several of Davidson's plays before they started.

For Davidson, Johnston showed up hest both on offense and defense, and saved his team from a shut-out when he received a forward pass in the last five minutes of play and ran 16 yards for a touchdown. Black, the Presbyterians' star back, entered the game with an injured hand and had to retire in the first quarter.

Davidson found State's line impregnable at all times and practically all of their gains were made by the overhead route. The fast and heavy State backs, on the other hand, smashed through their much lighter opponents' line for telling gains almost at will, their attack often carrying them to the line of secondary defense before they were downed. Tech's offense was confined chiefly to straight football-off tackle plays and short end runs, though toward the latter stages of the game they, attempted a few forward passes, most of which failed, but on one occasion executed a double pass that netted them a big gain.

Nearly 3,500 people witnessed the game, the only college game scheduled for Charlotte this season. Four compacontributed some mighty rooting to the afternoon's program. A large repre-

IS HARVARD GOD THE TECH CAMP

The Harvard stands, huddled to their ears in coats, had resigned themselves to the season's cruelest stroke of fate when the third period ended with Princeton leading, 7 to 3. Apparently the death blow to their last hopes came when Frank Murrey kicked a field goal, running the Tiger pile to ten points. Then, enter Mr. Casey. He ran a forward pass for forty yards. Harvard learned that, once sunk in, the claws of the Tiger have a grip of a python. At the first whistle, the Tiger bounded from its lair and hopped on the Crimson back. The ugly wounds inflicted by Colgate and West Virginia hampered not the grip of the gridiron beast and it rode Harvard for three periods. The Crimson suc ceeded in breaking the death hold only in the dying moments of a fast-fading

Princeton opened with a terrific at tack. Garrity and Trimble hit the left side of the line and ran the ends for gains at will. Then, just to show what it could do, Jack Strubing, the Tiger pilot, launched his machine into the air and Harvard was baffled by pass after pass. It was a Princeton parade down for the first time this season.

Casey alone seemed able to evade the desperate tacklers of Princeton, who shattered the Orimson line and broke up plays before they were started. Casey couldn't do it all. Harvard lost a beautiful chance to score in the first quarter. The ball was on Princeton's 15-yard line and Ralph Horween was five-yard line and the Nassau crew held goal. He fumbled and a trio of Tigers fell on the ball. Again, in the second period, Harvard worked to the Tiger's five-yard line and the Nasau crew held the Crimson seemed to come to life Garrity, who had been playing a brilliant game for Princeton, fumbled the ball in midfield. Humphrey grabbed the bounding ball from the ground and ran 30 yards through a broken field. Casey then carried the ball in a series of plays to the 27-yard line. The Tiger line held like concrete and Ralph Horween lropped back for a field goal. He booted the ball squarely between the posts.

In the fourth period, Princeton added three more points. Captain McGraw hurled himself through the line and blocked Church's punt, recovering it on Harvard's 7-yard line. Princeton worked the ball over directly in front of the posts. Frank Murrey was hurried out from the Tiger bench and he kick-
