lotte's most prominent society girls and COLLEGE CARNIVAL third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. PUT OFF FOR WEEK

The Queens College carnival, which was to have been given Saturday night, has been postponed until April 16. ARE WORTH $80,000

The reason given is that the carnival s planned on such a large scale that it is impossible to prepare it in time for Saturday night. The girls are delving into ancient books for knowledge in the art of fortune telling, and the palm of the human hand will be an open book to the beautiful 'Gypsies" when the Oriental lamps are lit in their tents a week from Saturday night. But the fortune teller will not be the only celebrated personage in evidence on that night, for shows of every description "hot weenie" stands and every thing that goes with a carnival will be on hand. The college will be arrayed in the gayest of colors. Thre carnival will be the annual Queens College carnival, but is said to excel any of previous years in prepara-
