Kappa Alpha June German.

Handsome invitations engraved in red over a background of the coat of arms of the Kappa Alpha fraternity in gold, reading as follows have been issued:

"To Whom It May Concern Greetings By these presents, know ye That thou, a Knight of the Crimson Cross, art hereby summoned and ordered To present thyself before a conclave of thy Brother knights and their ladies in holy Court assembled on the evening of Thursday, ye twenty-third day of June, A. D. nineteen hundred and twenty-one, at Ye Country Club, Charlotte, N. C., to Celebrate ye second annual 'June German'."

Signed and sealed Thy Brother Knights Charlotte Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha.

Accompanying card: "This card will admit Mr. ... and partner to the Second Annual June German of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, Country Club, Charlotte, N. C., June 23, 1921."

Society reminiscences with keen pleasure the elegant German of last June given by the Kappa Alpha fraternity, which was one of the most brilliant and elaborate balls ever seen in Charlotte. It was attended by hundreds of dancers, and was beautiful in every detail. The favors given the ladies were handsome silver lockets bearing the coat of arms of the fraternity. Music was furnished by a double Garber-Davis orchestra, and girls from all over North Carolina came to Charlotte for the German. It was an affair long to be remembered in the annals of the Queen City's ultra society circles.

The German of 1921 promises to eclipse even last year's German in elegance of detail. One of America's most famed dance orchestras, the original Smith Saxophone orchestra of Lexington, Ky., will furnish their wonderful music for the dance. Breakfast will be served throughout the night. Elaborate favors will again be presented to the ladies. Hundreds of charming girls from both the Carolinas, Virginia, Tennessee and other nearby states will come to Charlotte for the German, and invitations to brother Kappa Alphas have been issued throughout the South. It is the aim of the Charlotte alumni of the fraternity to make their annual June German one of the most notable social affairs in the entire South, and they have succeeded in doing this.

Hosts of Charlotte's prominent couples will act as patrons for the dance, the list to be published later.

Admission to the German is by card only.

Jefferson Davis Birthday Anniversary Observed.

Stonewall Jackson chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy was entertained very delightfully by Mrs. Charles E. Platt last Friday afternoon at the Woman's club, in celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday anniversary.

The beautiful assembly room of the Woman's club was thrown open and artistically decorated with roses from the club gardens.

Mrs. Henry E. Thomas, president of the chapter, presided, and a brief business session preceded the program.

Mrs. Ellis W. Henderson, leader of the Children of the Confederacy, announced that the Julia Jackson chapter would be hostess to the Mecklenburg camp of Confederate Veterans on Saturday after their regular meeting entertaining them with a picnic dinner at Lakewood park.

Mrs. Charles E. Platt gave a brief report of the district meeting held at Cleveland Springs on May 31st.

Miss Malvena Alexander, a pupil of Mrs. E. Alexander Graham High school, was awarded the U. D. C. medal for the best essay written of the Ku-Klux Klan. The judges announced that it was very difficult to decide on the winner, so many excellent essays were submitted.

A social program in celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday anniversary was prepared by the historical committee.

Mrs. James A. Fore read Senator L. Q. C. Lamar's dramatic speech on the proposed amendment to the Mexican war pension bill by which it was sought to exclude Jefferson Davis from the benefits of that legislation.

Next on the program was the singing of "Old Southern Songs," by girls in lovely old-time costumes.

Miss Rachael Summerer sang "Home Spun Dress," and "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Miss Mary Allison sang "Maryland, My Maryland," and the "Bonnie Blue Flag."

Miss Mary Peasley sang "Annie Laurie," and "Ben Bolt."

Mrs. Frank S. Neal, Jr., sang "Old Kentucky Home," and "Massa in the Cold, Cold Ground."

The songs were accompanied by Mrs. Alexander Stephens and Mrs. Gooding.

Each old song was preceded by its history written by Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson of Gastonia, state president of the U. D. C., and charmingly read by Mrs. E. J. H. Smith, Sr.

An interesting historical sketch of Mrs. Jefferson Davis was read by Mrs. Charles Platt, and pictures of the Davis home, Bouvoir, in Mississippi, and the picture of Mrs. Davis were displayed. This concluded an exceedingly delightful program after which the chapter invited the guests into the solarium, where delicious ices were served by Miss Mabel Platt of Aiken, S. C., guest of Mrs. Platt, Miss Mary Peasley, Miss Mary Allison, Miss Rachael Summerer, Mrs. F. Neal, Jr., and Mrs. Gooding.

The table in the solarium was elaborately decorated with shasta daisies and ferns.

Miss Gillis to Entertain.

Miss Mildred Gillis will entertain at a large morning tubular heart party Wednesday at 10:30 o'clock at her home on the Plaza, Chatham Estates, in honor of her house-guest, Miss Erma McCord of Roswell, N. Mex.

Miss Jamison to Entertain.

Miss Sara Jamison will entertain at her home in Myers Park Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in honor of Miss Jane Taliaferro's house-guest, Misses John and Douglas, McMillan and Shelton.

Fashions Forecast

LADIES' AND MISSES' BLOUSE.

One of the new cotton voiles in a pretty allover design would be inexpensive and quite the proper thing for a cool, slip-over blouse for summer wear.

The ladies' and misses' blouse No. 1015, is cut in sizes 34 to 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch material, with 5-8 yard 2 1/2 yard contrasting. Price 15 cents.

Every woman who wants to dress stylishly and economically should order at once the Summer issue of our Fashion Quarterly, which contains over 300 styles, dressmaking lessons, &c. Price 10 cents. Postage prepaid and safe delivery guaranteed. Send 25 cents for a pattern and Fashion Quarterly.

Flower Show Tuesday.

A flower show will be given at the Park Road community house Tuesday between the hours of 4 p. m. and 10 p. m. A small admission will be charged for the benefit of the community house building fund. Refreshments will be served.

A variety of lovely flowers will be on display until 6:30, after which the flowers will be sold, and the proceeds will go to the building fund. A musical program will be a feature of the show.

Mrs. L. Parker is chairman of the house committee, and Mrs. George Marsh will be in charge of the refreshments.

Interesting Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Q. Bauerfeld, of Hamlet, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Harding, to Dr. Bias Wingate Williamson, the marriage to take place on June twenty-second at the Presbyterian church in Hamlet.

The bride-to-be is one of Hamlet's most charming girls, and is widely known in Charlotte. She was a student at Queen's college for two years and was one of the prettiest, most popular girls at the college. She is a petite blonde, and is widely admired.

Cranford Book Club Holds Last Meeting of Season.

The Cranford Book club held its last meeting of the season Friday afternoon with Mrs. Hamilton C. Jones, at her home in Myers Park.

It was decided to study miscellaneous topics during the coming year, Miss Jones, chairman of the book committee, Mrs. Hamilton C. Jones, Sr., Mrs. William White Johnson and Mrs. C. L. Hunter arrange the programs.

Officers of the club are Miss Lily Long, president, Mrs. A. P. Graham was elected secretary at the meeting Friday. The Cranford club does not elect a new president and vice-president every year.

The club now has eighteen members, two new members, Mrs. A. H. Washburn and Mrs. J. P. Little, Sr., having been elected at the meeting. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson was, during her life time, an honorary member of the club.

Mrs. W. A. Allen, Sr., is at present the only one who has not joined.

The meeting was splendidly attended and most enthusiastic. Mrs. Jones served delightful refreshments.

Cranford is Charlotte's second oldest book club, the Grace King club having been formed a short while before the founding of Cranford. The club was organized by a group of school teachers in the charter members being Miss Lily Long, Mrs. Walter T. Taliaferro, Sr., Miss Julia Young, Miss Sallie Bethune, Mrs. C. L. Hunter and Mrs. M. J. Durant.

The Cranford Book club is one of the city's most delightful literary organizations, and recently celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary.

D. A. R. Meeting.

The various D. A. R. chapters of the city will meet Thursday afternoon as follows: Mecklenburg chapter, at the Woman's club at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Paul Matheson hostess. Last meeting of the season.

Signers, with Miss Florence Jamison at her home, 904 West Fourth street at 4 o'clock. Last meeting of the season.

The Liberty Hall chapter postpones its meeting until Tuesday, June 14th, when a flag day celebration will be given at the home of Mrs. Isaac C. Hardeman in Myers Park. An interesting program for the occasion is being planned by the committee in charge, being composed of Mrs. F. C. Roberts, Mrs. P. L. Groome and Mrs. John Paul Lucas. Mrs. Hardeman will give her annual history report at this time, and the meeting will also be of a social nature.

University Women To Meet.

The Charlotte Branch of the American Association of University Women, which organization is the result of the amalgamation of the Southern Association of College Women and the American Collegiate Alumnae, will meet with Mrs. J. P. Lucas, 1701 East Seventh street, on June 15 instead of June 8. A full attendance is urged on that night which will be the last meeting before fall.

The following officers have just been elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. B. T. Groome, president; Mrs. C. W. Tillet, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. J. D. Sandridge, secretary, and Miss Ruth Crowell, treasurer.

Dance Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued in Charlotte to a dance to be given in Lancaster, S. C., on Thursday evening. Music will be furnished by the Serenaders' orchestra, of Lancaster, Pa., and Charlotte. It is expected that a number of Charlotte dancers will be in attendance.

Miss Taliaferro Entertains.

Miss Jane Taliaferro was gracious young hostess at a delightful dance at the Woman's Club Friday evening from 8:30 till 12 o'clock, in compliment to her house-party which she is entertaining at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Taliaferro on Park avenue, Dilworth.

The members of the house party are Miss Peggy Coleman of Asheville, Miss Adelaide Douglas and Miss Elizabeth Shelton of Winston-Salem, and Miss Margaret McMillan of Wilmington, all school chums of Miss Taliaferro at the Fassifern school at Hendersonville.

Miss Taliaferro received her guests in a frock of yellow chiffon, Miss Coleman wore pink georgette, Miss Shelton white organdie, Miss McMillan pink satin, and Miss Douglas white satin.

Assisting Miss Taliaferro in entertaining were her aunt, Miss Anna Taliaferro, gowned in yellow taffeta, and her cousin, Miss Rosalie Burbank of Wilmington, in blue organdie.

The club house was decorated with a profusion of daisies. Punch were served throughout the evening, and music was furnished by Shadd's orchestra.

A hundred or so guests enjoyed the charming hospitality.

And Girls!

Mrs. Thomas W. Lingle, of Davidson, will be in the city Tuesday and invites all mothers and all girls interested in a vacation at camp to meet her at the Woman's Club Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, at which time the attractions and advantages of "Camp Ivy Hill" at Pisgah Forest will be discussed.

The tutoring opportunities at this camp are very exceptional, and any girl who needs an additional unit for college entrance in the fall will miss a big opportunity if she fails to combine her summer work and play at Camp Ivy Hill, here in our own home state, near Asheville.

The Woman's Club is the place, 11 o'clock the hour.

McPheeters-Anderson Wedding.

Of notable brilliance in the social world will be the marriage of Miss Lois Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, and Thomas S. Last Of Mrs. Harding's Parties Proves Great Social Success

BY BETTY BAXTER, Staff Correspondent of The News, Copyright 1921, by News Publishing Co.

Washington, June 4.—All good things come to an end—and the perfectly charming garden parties which Mrs. Harding gave and which society anticipated with so much pleasure, are a thing of the past. The last one of the series of three was given Wednesday and was just like the other two: was just as beautiful and enjoyable a party. Of course, all of the diplomatic corps, all of the cabinet officers, and a number of close friends of President and Mrs. Harding were invited to this party too, just as they were to the others.

Though the late spring has been marked by numerous rainy and cloudy days, and garden parties under such conditions have been all spoiled by the horrid old weather man, it has been clear and lovely for every one of Mrs. Harding's parties. Last Wednesday clouds began to gather before the party was half over and scared some of the guests away earlier than they might have gone otherwise, but the Harding "luck" prevailed to the end and it did not rain at all.

A THOUSAND MORE.

The guests at all of the parties seemed to be torn between the desire to roam around the beautiful lawn or to dance in the East room, where the navy band played most danceable, jazzy music, the kind that just won't let your feet behave. This last party was larger than the others, fully a thousand more, as so many people, realizing it was the last of the series, strove to get cards for it until Miss Laura Harding, Mrs. Harding's social secretary, had to put her foot down and say no more could be invited, though it did notice one or two people there whom I knew must have received invitations at the very last minute before they came. But only just reached this city after landing from abroad.

SKINNERS ENTERTAINED.

I was interested to see Robert Skinner, consul general in London, and Mrs. Skinner, who had only been in town about 24 hours. Mr. Skinner, who stands very high in the service and is an intensely interesting man, is in this country on two months' leave of absence which he, with Mrs. Skinner, plan to spend at their home in Ohio, visiting his relatives in Virginia and Maine. She is a very handsome, charming person, a striking blonde with a most agreeable personality. They were entertained every minute of the few days they were in town.

The first of June is usually marked by a general exodus of Washington society for their various summer homes, for Europe or the many different resorts. But nothing of the sort this year—Washington is as gay as in mid-winter and gayly during some winters. Few are going away yet and the majority are not even making any definite plans, because things are so pleasantly here and give promise of being interesting for weeks to come.
