

State Federation Convention Plans—Mr. McNinch to speak.

The following article from a Greensboro paper will be of wide interest to Charlotte club women, a number of whom will leave Monday and Tuesday to attend the convention at Wrights Beach, June 7-10, and practically completed and the official program as prepared by Miss Margaret Lovell Gibbons and other members of the program committee is ready for the printers. The opening session on Thursday evening will be featured by the address of the president, Mrs. C. C. Hook, and greetings from Wilmington and from the various state organizations of women. Wednesday will be an interesting day. There will be a business session in the morning and in the afternoon. Mr. F. R. McNinch of Charlotte will talk on Community Service, Mrs. C. E. Landeman, of Greensboro, on Recreation, and Mrs. T. W. Bickett, of Raleigh, on the Training Camp for Women located at Asheville. At 5 o'clock there will be an automobile ride to the Cape Fear pagant as a climax to the program of Community Service and Recreation will be given that night in a hall devoted entirely to business, with prizes to be awarded that night. One of the outstanding features of the convention will be the presentation of the Cape Fear pagant, a brilliant spectacle and one of the most notable community enterprises in the history of Wilmington.

The presidents of the clubs have been notified by Mrs. R. W. Hicks, chairwoman of the hospitality committee, the number of delegates expecting to attend the convention. The sessions of the convention will be held at the Raleigh Hotel, where many of the clubwomen have reserved rooms.

Children of Confederacy to Entertain Veterans.

The seniors and juniors of the Julia Jackson Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, will entertain the members of the Mecklenburg camp of Confederate Veterans after the veterans' meeting Saturday afternoon. The children will meet them at the Veterans' hall, where the meeting will be held, and will conduct them by automobile to Lakewood Park, where an elaborate picnic dinner will be spread.

Flower Sale Marked Success.

The flower sale given Saturday by the Julia Jackson Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, in front of Ivey's was a pronounced success, so liberally did the public patronize the sale. Love flowers of all kinds were sold for 25 cents a bunch, and nearly $25 was realized, the sum to go to the work of the chapter. Mrs. Ellis W. Hendrickson, the splendid leader of the Children, had charge of the affair.

At the Country Club.

An unusually large crowd was at the Country Club swimming pool Saturday afternoon. The pool, which was filled Thursday, is one of the most attractive features of Charlotte's lovely country club, and draws hosts of swimmers every day throughout the summer. The young set was well represented at the pool Saturday. Among the attractive girls of that set were Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Louisa Gibson, Miss Martha Lee, Miss Laura Tillet, Miss Lillian Floyd and guest, Miss Estelle Tomlinson, of Jacksonville, Fla., Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Estelle Tomlinson, Miss Alice Walker, Miss Margaret Yorke, Miss Julia Baxter Scott.

Watching the swimmers from the shady veranda of the club: Miss Alice Van Ness and guest, Miss Amy Herick of Hendersonville, Mrs. C. E. Bryant, Mrs. William Myers, Jones, Mrs. Henry McAden, Mrs. C. B. Bryant, Mrs. Carol D. Tallafero, Mrs. Elizabeth Mayer, Mrs. J. Leak Spencer.

Among the young men in the pool were Herndon Alexander, Warren Brice, George Lowe, Ralph Brice, Lawrence Nichols and guest, Bob McLeod, of Maxton, Edward Dowd, Morgan Sikes, Hugh Sinclair, Sidney Dowd, Henry Barringer, Ben Finney, Stuart Gilchrist, Phil Woolcott, Dr. George Fisher, Armand Myers, Lloyd Good, Wilson Cosby, Sam Smith.

Persons

Mrs. H. L. McClaren will leave Sunday for New York, to accompany her young daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been in school there during the past winter, home.

Wesley Heath, son of Mrs. E. D. Heath, has returned home from Charleston, S. C., where he has been attending Porter's Military academy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Heath left Friday for a motor trip to Blowing Rock. They expect to be gone about a week.

Miss Elizabeth Heath and Miss Marie Matthews of Columbia, S. C., have been visiting Mrs. E. D. Heath, Sr., at her home on Central avenue, Piedmont Park. They came to Charlotte to attend the three Davidson dances given here last week. They will leave Wednesday for Spartanburg, S. C., to attend the final dances at Wofford college.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y. W. C. A., will be with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cave at their home, 1908 Avenue D, until June 15, when she will be married to T. A. Rivers, of Atlanta.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y. W. C. A., will be with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cave at their home, 1908 Avenue D, until June 15, when she will be married to T. A. Rivers, of Atlanta.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y. W. C. A., will be with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cave at their home, 1908 Avenue D, until June 15, when she will be married to T. A. Rivers, of Atlanta.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y. W. C. A., will be with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cave at their home, 1908 Avenue D, until June 15, when she will be married to T. A. Rivers, of Atlanta.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y. W. C. A., will be with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cave at their home, 1908 Avenue D, until June 15, when she will be married to T. A. Rivers, of Atlanta.

Among the prominent Charlotte club women who will attend the State Federation...

Warren Brice of Charlotte and Greenville arrived in the city Friday night and is spending several days here with his father, R. G. Brice, on South Boulevard. Dilworth. Mr. Brice is connected with the Greenville offices of the Klipstein company.

Joe Hendrix, of Greensboro has been spending the past few days in the city on business.

Miss Faith Price has had as her house-guests during the Davidson dances Mrs. Hietey Young and Miss Nell Hendon, of Asheville, Miss Marguerite Vaughan of Greensboro, and Miss Mildred Walker of Lexington.

One of the most charming visitors for the Davidson dances was Miss Mary Lybrook Lasater of Winston-Salem. Miss Lasater has just returned from Washington, where she has been a student at the Gunston Hall school.

Miss Mary Alys Lindsay of Wadesboro spent Thursday in the city en route home from Asheville, where she has attended St. Genevieve of the Pines convent during the past winter. She is delightfully known here as the frequent guest of Miss Terry Bland, and Miss Rutledge Dudley.

Jasper C. Hutto left Saturday night for Birmingham, Ala., to bring Mrs. Hutto and baby daughter, Jeanne Marie. They have been spending a month there with Mrs. Hutto's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hargrove.

Edwin O. Clarkson returned Saturday night from Raleigh, where he has been attending the North Carolina State college.

E. Martin, who attends the University of North Carolina, is spending a week or so in the city. He will return to Chapel Hill to attend the commencement dances at the university.

H. V. Brockmann and Vener Aber of Brockmanns, left Saturday night on a business trip to New York, Boston and other Northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sandridge are attending the centennial of the University of Virginia. They will later visit Mr. Sandridge's family in Charlottesville, Va.

Among the Charlotte girls who will attend the dances at the University of North Carolina on the 16th are Miss Martha Lee, Miss Lucy Holmes Carson, Miss Louise Gibbon, Miss Rogers Gibbon, Miss Roberta Walker, Miss Virginia Whitlock, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church, will leave Monday for Kingsport, S. C., where he will conduct a Union evangelistic meeting for the churches on the mountain. Accompanying him will be Dan Milan, formerly song leader at Camp Greene. Mr. Milan will have charge of the musical part of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edwards of Spartanburg, S. C., are spending the week-end here with Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards, on East Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards are in Wilmington attending a convention. Mrs. R. P. Edwards of Greensboro is with the Edwards children while their parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander left Saturday night for a week-end trip to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Sr., left Saturday for Little Switzerland, where they have a beautiful summer home, one of the handsomest on the mountain. Mr. Cansler will be there all summer. Mr. Cansler going up for the week-ends.

Miss Alice Walker has returned from Raleigh, where she attended St. Mary's school. Miss Walker remained over for the dances at the North Carolina State college.

Mrs. M. M. McCallum and James McCallum will leave in a day or so for a trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and Misses Susie and Kathleen Sterne left Friday for an extended stay north. They will first visit Mrs. E. N. Clemens at Wolcott, N. Y. Mrs. Kennedy will go to Baltimore to visit Mrs. John Byerly and the Misses Sterne go to Washington for a visit to friends. Mrs. Kennedy will join them and the three will go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Augsburg, the latter a sister of the Misses Sterne. Mrs. Kennedy will later visit Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter in New York. The Misses Sterne will spend the summer with their sister.

Miss Margaret Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Washburn, has arrived home from Fort Towson, Okla., where she taught school since last fall. She will spend the summer here with her parents, but expects to return to Fort Towson in the fall.

Joe Kenney, who has been attending State College in Raleigh, has returned home.

Miss Grace Albee, who for the past year has been making her home at the Y.