

SUFFICIENT CONTRIBUTIONS.
New York, June 9.—Thomas W. Lamont, chairman of the American Committee for China Famine Fund, Wednesday night telegraphed all local committees in this country to stop taking subscriptions as sufficient funds had been raised to meet the most pressing needs. This action was prompted by a cablegram from Peking, confirmed by the American minister, that abundant rains in the famine-stricken areas had insured harvests where none had been thought possible.

CANNOT GRANT REDUCTION.
Washington, June 9.—Railroads of the United States under present conditions are not in position to put in effect a general reduction in freight rates on building materials such as was requested at the recent conference between representatives of the carriers and building trades in Washington, according to a formal statement issued Wednesday night by the Association of Railway Executives.

"HARRY LAUDER" REVISITS TOWN

Boy Who Was at Camp Greene 11 Months Here on Mobile-Boston Trip.

Harry Lauder—with his famous zig-zag stick, his Scotch dialect and his sense of humor—appeared at the Ivey dining room Wednesday and gave an impromptu entertainment. Just a moment! It was not actually Harry Lauder, of course, but it was Bruce Chapman, the cleverest impersonator who ever came to Charlotte and who returned to Charlotte with a feeling of coming back home. For he spent eleven months in the 39th infantry, Fourth Division.

Mr. Chapman is singing and impersonating his way across country from Mobile, Ala., to his home in Boston. He is so clever at impersonating the famous Scotch comedian that the closest observers wonder how he does it. With his costume and crooked stick he is almost a replica of the famous comedian.

Mr. Chapman was all excitement when he arrived in Charlotte Tuesday night from Spartanburg, S. C. He had not seen the place since he left here in the spring of 1918 for Camp Merritt, N. J., while he was in military service. He instantly recognized Tuesday night and Wednesday a number of people and spoke to them. Because of the fame he has gained in recent months as an impersonator of Harry Lauder and his own ability as a singer, Mr. Chapman was engaged Wednesday morning to sing here next week for a big organization at a luncheon and has been engaged for the Imperial theater the balance of this week. He will also accompany a group of Charlotte merchants to Statesville Wednesday night to sing before the annual meeting of the Statesville Merchants association.

Mr. Chapman was formerly on the stage and is a born actor and imitator. His singing of the old Scotch song, "Doch and Doris," made famous by Harry Lauder, is said to be as good as the comedian himself could do, even including "the hurr" of the Scotch dialect. He always goes to a store carrying Victor talking machines and went to Ivey's music department, where he was "discovered" and signed up for the several events here. He has acquired a healthy tan from hiking under the Southern sun but says it's fine.

Charlotte looks very much as it did when he arrived here with the 39th infantry for Camp Greene. Mr. Chapman said, except that he saw many new buildings. He seemed immensely pleased to be back in Charlotte and said there were lots of folks here he wants to look up.
