

BUSINESS CLUB HAS IMPORTANT MEETING

Organization of the Young Men's Business club was perfected Friday night at a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Matters of importance to the organization were also discussed.

Clarence King, of Murray's tailoring establishment; R. B. Scott, of Scott-Charmley; F. C. Bradshaw, farm implement; T. A. Peck, of F. C. Abbott company; Dr. Schumucker, dentist. Much enthusiasm was shown over the program of the club Friday night. The club expects to enter a campaign for the betterment of Charlotte along commercial, civic and social lines. It is the plan of the club to meet in weekly luncheons, the first beginning next Friday at 1 o'clock. No meeting place has been yet decided upon.

STATE COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL

Being Provided for by Getting Dormitories in Good Shape.

Raleigh, June 11.—Since the close of the spring term at State College on May 31, workmen have been busy preparing the dormitories and buildings for the reception of the great throng of teachers expected to sweep down upon Raleigh for the opening of the Summer Session next Tuesday. Each dormitory has been thoroughly cleaned and renovated and in a number of cases newly painted.

The number of teachers registered is the largest in the history of the Summer School, which dates back to 1903. According to Dr. W. A. Withers, director, an attendance of more than one thousand is expected.

The faculty this year, which numbers fifty-five, has been drawn from the college teaching staff and the leaders in the education field in North Carolina and this section of the country.

The lecture staff, headed by Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, professor of English in the U. S. Naval Academy, is unusually strong, including the following prominent speakers: Governor Cameron Morrison, Thomas W. Bickett, Dr. John J. Blair, Dr. E. C. Brooks, Dr. Della Dixon Carroll, Dr. Harry W. Chase, Josephus Daniels, Prof. Chas. M. Heck, Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon, Dr. William J. Martin, Prof. Z. P. Metcalf, Dr. Clarence Poe, Dr. William L. Poter, Dr. W. S. Rankin, and Dr. George A. Works. Dr. Smith will deliver a series of lectures during the week beginning June 20. The dates for the other speakers will be announced later.

Although the Summer School is a place for serious work for those who wish to better prepare themselves for their professions, ample provision has been made for recreation. Col. Fred A. Olds will conduct expeditions every Saturday afternoon to the many points of interest in or near Raleigh. On certain afternoons of each week there will be plays, games, and folk dances on the campus. Motion pictures will be shown frequently at the Y. M. C. A. Interesting and instructive entertainments will be given July 4th and at the close of the session, probably in the form of a pageant.

The Raleigh Community Players will give a play in the College auditorium during the session with other by the pupils of the Methodist Orphanage and the inmates of the Central Hospital for the Insane.

There will be "Hay rides" and various receptions and social events to be announced later.

Miss Emille Rose Knox will give a violin recital on the evening of Saturday, June 18, with Miss Sue Kyle Southwick an accompanist. Miss Southwick will be in charge of the music during the Summer School.

NEW KIND OF SALOON.

Boston.—Max Steigman, of the West End is the owner of a double-bottom pushcart and a suitcase capable of holding five gallons of moonshine, the police declare, and they produced twenty-four gallons of alcohol in Municipal Court. Steigman was fined $100 for keeping and exposing liquor for sale.

SELF MASTERS

The only way to get along with yourself agreeably is to be the Master of Yourself.

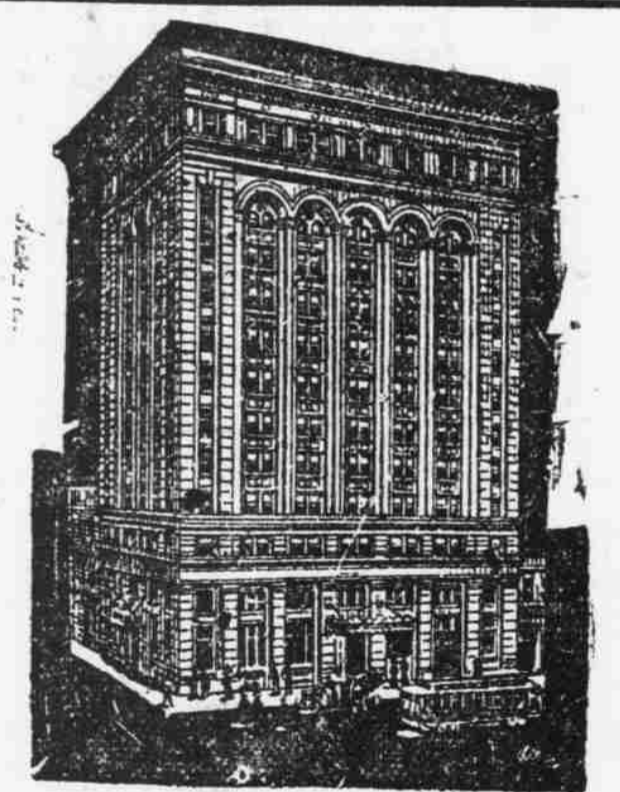

Self Masters are contented, happy, forceful and independent.

Those that are slaves to themselves are always miserable.

Thrift is a habit of Self Masters. It means mastering yourself a little every day.

Be a Self Master and take some portion of your earnings whenever they come to you and put them in the bank.

A DISTINGUISHED PREACHER

of the Methodist Church, a teacher of my early years, told me "to aim high if I shot low." This strengthened me many times when obstacles seemed insurmountable. I haven't reached many of the rungs of the ladder I should have, but they CAN and SHOULD be mounted by you. Your opportunities today are far greater than were ours in the long ago.

THE MUTUAL B. & L. is a potent means to success and honorable manhood, and with all my mind and heart I urge you to use it, for, as the clouds gather and you dispel them, as troubles come and you overcome them, I know from long observation and experience that then you will appreciate the advice here given in simple truth and in all sincerity.

BY THIS SIMPLE SYSTEM many a home has been saved, many tears dried, many sorrows soothed. By its use many roofless are sheltered, many unfortunates cared for, many are educated, many disconsolate renewed in hope and faith and determination. All these are worth while, so let's make it shine and shine.
