HIT IN THE 12TH BY LEO MARTIN WINS FOR BEES

Happy Ending Wipes Out the Sting of Bad Second Inning.

Leo Martin had a hit in his system in the last of the 12th inning of the game with the Spartans here Tuesday afternoon and that, with a couple of drives made just previous by Ralph O'Connell and Tom Day won the game, 7 to 6.

The Spartans worked with a will in their three extra innings at bat to break the tie made by them with the registry of a single run in the seventh inning, and they had the game won in the tenth, but poor judgment lost it. Kolseth, who donned a Spartan uniform Tuesday, had got a hit to left. Hunnicutt doubled to right-field and ran. In the distance in the foreground, in the distance is the business section of Jersey City, the Hudson river and New York.

When a team manages to come through and win a great deal is forgiven. It was a dandy ending, so congratulations are due, of course. The ending is all that saved the game from being a pretty bad exhibition, however. The Bees had five errors against them—too many for one team.

With the exception of the second inning Webber was good, keeping the rest of the 11 hits well scattered. Utt and Ed. Wright had an off day. Thomas, who relieved Wright, showed up pretty well. The Spartanbunch as a whole kept fighting. They are in the cellar but they stay in the game all the time. They make the most of whatever breaks they get. In respect they are rather dangerous. There is no telling when they will break loose and make four or five runs.

Ray Kennedy went in for Carroll in the eighth inning. He came through with a hit in the eleventh.

JOB AS HORNET PILOT MIDKIFFS IF HE WANTS IT

He Will Accept or Reject Proposition Some Time This Afternoon.

Erza Midkiff, late manager of the Charlotte Pals, is negotiating today over an offer to manage the Charlotte Hornets, made to him this morning by Felix Hayman. Erza promised to say yes or no some time this afternoon.

Midkiff stated this morning that he was undecided whether to accept the proposition or go to his home in Lexington, W. Va. However, both he and Hayman admitted that the signs are encouraging and that things look bright for Midkiff taking charge of the Hornets.

Midkiff would do the team good. Hayman wants him, because the team that Midkiff can put some spirit into the team and get it to going good. The former Charlotte manager is a well-known baseball man, and he has a job the folks can look for better than ball.
