Surplus Harness Violate Criminal Code.

Washington, June 15 .- On advice of the Attorney General, President Hardinging has annulled War Department contracts with the United States Harness company for disposal of surplus Mr. Daugherty held these contracts to violate criminal code sections prohibiting participation by government officers or employes in such transactions.

The President's action was disclosed in a memorandum made public today by Secretary Weeks, saying in part: "These contracts were entered into by the former director of sales, with failure." the approval of Secretary Baker, and provided that the large accumulation or stock of surplus military harness and accessories were to be turned over to the United States Harness company defeated Mile. Balezeaux, of France, 5 to be reconditioned and sold, or sold in its original condition upon a profitsharing basis.

"The facts developed by the Attorney General led him to the conclusion that these contracts had been entered into as a result of the conspiracy on the part of certain former temporary officers of the army to secure these contracts and the control of large stocks of harness on hand for their own

"The War Department has naturally followed the advice of the law officer of the government in this matter." Secretary Weeks said the case now was in the hands of the Department of Justice for such action as deemed proper. He believed, he said, it would be made a part of the general investigation of war contracts ordered by Mr. Daugherty. The only other war contract case transmitted to the Department of Justice, Mr. Weeks added, was that known as the "Salmon case."
