

CHESTER STARTS BOARD OF HEALTH

Chester, S. C., June 18.—The Chester board of health has been reorganized with John M. Wise as chairman. At the meeting it was decided in the future to assemble monthly. Dr. W. M. Wallace acted as chairman of the reorganization meeting. For the initial time in its history the Chester board of health is honored by having as one of its members one of Chester's most prominent women, Mrs. H. E. McConnell, wife of the late Dr. McConnell who performed such wonderfully constructive work when he was chairman of the board of health. Other members of the reorganized board besides Chairman Wise and Mrs. McConnell are Dr. W. R. Wallace, Dr. A. M. Wylie and Dr. George A. Hennies.

GROCERS PLAN ORGANIZATION

Steps Taken to Form Body to Affiliate With Merchants' Association.

Charlotte grocers are to organize and affiliate with the Charlotte Merchants' Association, if steps taken Friday night at a meeting of grocers at the court house are carried out. The meeting was called by the Merchants' Association and attended by some of its officers and members.

Paul Findlay, of Los Angeles, Calif., a merchant of 36 years experience and a student of mercantile problems, was the principal speaker at the meeting, and C. H. Keeler, of Philadelphia, who addressed the Charlotte Association of Credit Men at its monthly meeting Friday, also spoke.

J. B. Vogler was elected chairman of the meeting and appointed a committee to present a plan of organization at a meeting of grocers to be called in the near future. The committee consists of R. W. Miller, W. M. Sigman, W. N. Mullen and J. A. Vogler.

Mr. Findlay, from his long experience as a merchant and close study of mercantile problems, gave the grocers many suggestions about the technical details of business and methods likely to aid in carrying on a successful grocery business. Profits should always be figured on the sale price and not on the cost of goods, he said. It must be kept in mind, he said, that no money is made until money replaces the goods carried in stock.

Mr. Keeler talked briefly, emphasizing the value of co-operation, even among competitors, stating, as one example, that by credit information exchange, the man or family that stays at one place as long as he can and moves to another without paying his bills, and keeps on shifting and evading, can be eliminated, resulting in great saving.

MANUFACTURERS ARE ORGANIZING

E. A. Cole President of Temporary Organization of State's Industrial Captains.

Plans started in North Carolina several months ago looking toward the organization of the North Carolina Manufacturers Association have resulted in the formation of a temporary organization, with headquarters located in Charlotte. E. A. Cole, of the Cole Manufacturing Company here, has been president. J. F. Trazzare, of Atlanta, has come here to take up the duties of secretary and J. H. Separk, of Gastonia, has been made treasurer.

Permanent organization is expected to be made here this fall during the period of the Made-in-Carolina exposition, which will take place September 12 to 28 in two big buildings erected for the purpose.

Mr. Trazzare is one of the promoters of the project and has spent several months in the state working up interest in it. He has visited manufacturers in many parts of the state and says the response to the organization idea was immediate.

The idea behind the movement is to bring all the manufacturers of the state, of whatever kind, into one body to collaborate for their mutual protection and for furthering the manufacturing and industrial welfare of the state.

A weekly bulletin, gotten out by the secretary, will be one of the features of the organization, which will keep the members of the association informed on many topics of interest to them.

WHITLOCK ADDRESSES TRINITY MEN'S CLUB

Paul C. Whitlock spoke of the value of acquaintanceship at a jollification meeting of the Men's Club of Trinity Methodist church in the assembly room of the chamber of commerce Friday night. How concerted action may come from those who know each other was stressed by the speaker.

Friday night's meeting of the club the first attempt of the officers to reduce the non-acquaintance list to a minimum. Intimate acquaintanceship and fellowship was the keynote of the meetings.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Roanoke, Va., June 18.—I. D. Chapman, Jr., who last week was graduated from Roanoke College, was struck and instantly killed by lightning at his home near Salem Friday afternoon, when he sought refuge in a barn from a sudden thunderstorm.

SELF MASTERS

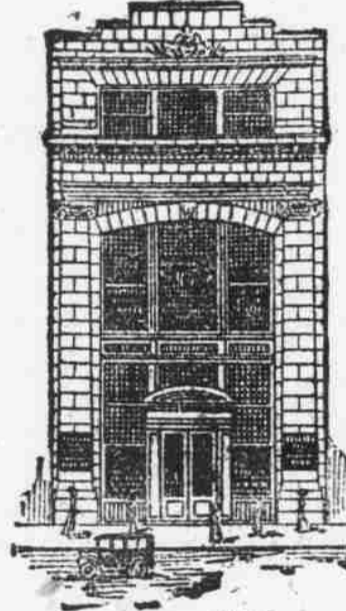

The only way to get along with yourself agreeably is to be the Master of Yourself.

Self Masters are contented, happy, forceful and independent.

Those that are slaves to themselves are always miserable.

Thrift is a habit of Self Masters. It means mastering yourself a little every day.

Be a Self Master and take some portion of your earnings whenever they come to you and put them in the bank.

A DISTINGUISHED PREACHER

of the Methodist Church, a teacher of my early years, told me "to aim high if I shot low." This strengthened me many times when obstacles seemed insurmountable. I haven't reached many of the rungs of the ladder I should have, but they CAN and SHOULD be mounted by you. Your opportunities today are far greater than were ours in the long ago.

THE MUTUAL B. & L.

is a potent means to success and honorable manhood, and with all my mind and heart I urge you to use it, for, as the clouds gather and you dispel them, as troubles come and you overcome them, I know from long observation and experience that then you will appreciate the advice here given in simple truth and in all sincerity.

BY THIS SIMPLE SYSTEM

many a home has been saved, many tears dried, many sorrows soothed. By its use many roofless are sheltered, many unfortunate cared for, many are educated, many disconsolate renewed in hope and faith and determination. All these are worth while, so let's make it shine and shine and shine.
