Fads and Fancies Of Official Family

THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, almost immediately after taking office, established his standing as a "real dirt farmer" in keeping with the promise of President Harding to put such a man at the head of the Agriculture Department.

Wallace called in newspaper men and speaking with evident earnestness, succeeded in impressing them with the fact that the American agriculturist simply must receive a better return from his work if he is to continue to feed 100,000,000 residents of the United States. Wallace, a newspaper editor as well as farmer, knew how to "put up his copy to make it get across." It did—in a series of newspaper headlines which extended from New York to San Francisco.

Wallace's desk is constantly littered with charts, showing the financial standing of the American farmer, his problems and profits. The Secretary burns the midnight oil in getting these charts in shape for publication. And scientists in the Department also work at all hours to supply the Secretary with information to go into the charts.

GORDON FINGER IS FINED TWICE

Brought in Court Charged With Nuisance and Assault and Battery.

Summoned to the police court on two charges, committing a public nuisance and assault and battery, Gordon M. Finger, 118 E. Eighth street, was found guilty in both cases by Judge Laurence Jones Saturday morning. He was fined $25 and costs for the first conviction and $10 and costs for the second.

According to the evidence, Mr. Finger had a fire started in his back yard several days ago which threatened to smoke out the entire neighborhood. Trash and shingles from a house he was remodeling fed the flames. Several witnesses living in the neighborhood were on hand on Saturday morning with complaints.

The first climax to the story came soon after the fire was started, when Dr. L. D. Walker, who lives next door, went out in his back yard to complain to Mr. Finger.

"Didn't your chickens scratch up my yard some time ago?" is the answer Mr. Finger was alleged to have made. This was followed by Mr. Finger's instructions to Dr. Walker to "mind your own business and I will mind mine."

Dr. Walker then had a warrant sworn out for the defendant. The major climax came Friday night, it was alleged that Mr. Finger saw Dr. Walker in a car in front of his house playing with his little girl. He made a bee line for him, according to evidence, and struck at Dr. Walker, who had his glasses on at the time. A bruise under his right eye in the police court showed that the blow struck home. In the scuffle that ensued, Dr. Walker's coat was torn and his glasses lost and several minor bruises inflicted upon him by Mr. Finger. The fight lasted for some time, with many neighbors as witnesses.

Dr. Walker then had another warrant sworn out. In court Saturday morning, Dr. Walker's cook testified that after Mr. Finger had been warned by Dr. Walker to stop the fire, he ordered a negro boy to pile up more fuel on the fire and exclaimed:

"Smoke hell out of them!" It was alleged that the smoke filled nearby houses to such an extent that the windows had to be closed. On the witness stand Mr. Finger was cut short by Solicitor Guthrie when he declared that "his neighbors didn't fit in with that section."

The entire evidence heard was against Mr. Finger.

MILADY CAN KEEP HER "PEACH BLOOM" COMPLEXION WHILE CAVORTING IN WATER

Bathing beauty at Palm Beach wearing one of the new diving bells.

Since milady took to applying a beautiful "peach bloom" complexion to her face just before appearing in public the problem of how to preserve (no pun meant) that complexion while enjoying a dip in the surf has bothered said lady. Now comes the complexion saver, so to speak. It is a little diving bell made of rubber and celluloid which fastens over the fair bather's head and permits her to wade and swim about at her pleasure. Of course she mustn't dive with it, for air holes are needed in the top.

RULES AND WORKING STATUS UNCHANGED

Chicago, June 18.—The rulers and working conditions now governing the Big Four brotherhoods will continue in effect until changed by negotiation between the brotherhoods and the railroads, or by the railroad labor board, under a ruling of the board today.

The board's ruling was issued as an interpretation of its decision of April 14, abrogating the national agreements to be continued pending hearing of the rules controversy before the board.

The four brotherhoods appealed to the board to define the April decision. Today's announcement said the existing rules and conditions will continue in force despite the April decision until changed in the regular manner. The board said: "Changes in such schedules or agreements may be made after the required notice either by agreement of the parties or by decision of this board after conference between the parties and proper reference in accordance with the provisions of the transportation act and the rules of the board."

Mason, chairman, said.

Caretakers have been employed by the city to look after Latta Park and Independence Park. They are kept on the job throughout the day to see that the properties are not abused.

TWO DEAD BODIES FOUND ON TRACK

White Man and Negro Man Discovered Dead by Train Crew.

Lying side by side on the Southern railroad tracks, the body of a white man and a negro man were found by a train crew at 4:30 a. m. Saturday about a half a mile beyond North Charlotte.

In the pockets of the negro were papers which identified him as Monroe Beatty, of Spartanburg. Upon his person was a gold watch, several knives, an empty pocketbook and a pistol. Not even a pocket handkerchief was found on the white man. He had absolutely nothing in his pockets.

Sergeant Black, Officers Griddle, Grizzell, West and Pitman and Deputy Sheriff J. E. Hunter were sent from the police station for investigation.

The two men were found lying in the middle of the tracks with the tops of their heads torn off. It appeared that they had in some manner fallen asleep near the track and a passing train had struck them. The theory was advanced that they were both hoboes. Nothing has been found to throw light on the manner in which they met their death.

The body of the white man was taken to the undertaking establishment of J. A. Hovis, where it lies awaiting an inquest and identification, if identification can be found. The body of the negro was taken to the Cole undertaking establishment. The white man appeared to be about 20 years old while the negro appeared to be about 40.

DYNAMITER OUT BUT BROTHER STILL HELD

San Francisco, June 18.—John J. McNamara, dynamited, has been released from San Quentin prison, after serving nine years and five months for dynamiting the Llewellyn Works in Los Angeles in 1916. McNamara evaded all interviewers on arrival in San Francisco.

Later these officials announced by telegraph with McNamara's friends, and that no attempt had been made to rearrest him on charges made to be pending against him in the federal court at Indianapolis.

J. H. WEDDINGTON HAS NEW RIVAL

Ditch Digger Comes in to Claim Job as City Postmaster.

Sauntering up to the stamp window at the city postoffice recently, a tall, muddy negro, who appeared to be a ditch digger, accosted Miss Louise Irwin, in charge of the window, as follows:

"Lady, I've come for dat job."

"Miss Irwin looked up at him in astonishment. The negro shifted his balance first on one foot and then on the other. He finally exclaimed again: "I see here fer dat job, lady."

"Why what job are you talking about?" asked Miss Irwin.

"Well," said the negro, as he shook a few surplus pounds of mud from his ragged overalls, "heard tell dat dey was a job here open ter all, and ter git it, you had ter be in some application paper to de bosses what runs de government."

With an exclamation of bewilderment, Miss Irwin said:

"By the only job open here is the postmaster'ship. That is a $4,500 a year job. Mr. Weddington is the postmaster now, but examinations are open to those who want to make a try for it. That is the only kind of job I know of around here."

A beaming smile broke across the negro's face.

"Dat's de job I come after," he cried. "I knowed dem was some job like dat here. I see ready to git it. Jes tell me what ter do."

"Well," said Miss Irwin with a smile, "you will have to fill out a lot of papers and send them to Washington."

A look of utter despair and disappointment came over the negro's face. He wiped the perspiration from his face, shook some more mud from one foot, and sighed the only kind of "my life!"

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.
