DOZEN PERSONS LEAP FROM BURNING HOUSE

nen, women and children leaped from the roof, second story and first story windows of a boarding house at 214 East King street here early Monday be-fore firemen could be summoned to rescue them from flames which had spread throughout the house. The buildin, a frame structure, was gutted. M. S. Wiggs, a road construction foreman, was severely burned on the hands. Wiggs clunfi to an upper story window sill, afraid to drop to the ground, until flames caused him to turn loose. Oone other man is reported to have been cut in leaping through a window. All the others escaped in-

Mrs. E. B. Whitehurst, wfe of the owner of the house, residing next door, said eight minutes were spent in trying to get a telephone connection but the firemen said the call was prompt and the burning of a wire caused them to lose the telephone alarm. The screams of men on the roof who later jumped aroused other neighbors and a box alarm brought the firemen.

ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE BY PUBLICATION.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina (in Bankruptey): In the Matter of C. S. Oakley and the Matter of C. S. Oakley and C. S. Oakley, Trading and Doing Business as Pineville Lumber Company, Alleged Bankrupts.

Whereas a petition was, on the sixth day of June, 1921, filed herein for an adjudication of bankruptcy against C. S. Oakley and C. S. Oakley, trading and doing business as Pineville Lumber Company, and it appears from the petition of John A. McRae, filed herein, that said bankrupts have absconded, are not within the district or the State of North Carolina, and 100 fbs. $6.75 that personal service of subpoena herein cannot be made on them. Now, therefore, on motion of John A. Mc Rae and Plummer Stewart, attorneys for petitioners, It is ordered that service of subpoena be made by publication; that this order go with said subpoena in the Charlotte News, a newspaper published in Charlotte in said district, once a week for two consecutive weeks, the last of such publication to be made on the 28th day of June, 1921, and by mailing a copy of this order and said petition and subpoena to the last known place of abode of the said C. S. Oakley and C. S. Oak ley, trading and doing business as Pineville Lumber Company, in said district, on or before the day of the first publication.

Witness, the Honorable James E. Boyd, Judge of the said court and the seal thereof at the city of Greens-boro, in said district, on the 17th day of June, 1921.

DILWORTH SHOES

have been sold in our store for more than fifteen years.

They are the product of a nationally known manufacturer.

When Dilworth was first being developed in Charlotte as a suburb, we asked to have the name "Dilworth" stamped on these shoes, and it has been there ever since.

At the peak of war prices Dilworth shoes sold at $17.50.

This season's price is $10 and $11.

For three days only-Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday-we are selling Dilworth oxfords at $6.85 the pair.

Ho You Boy Scouts! Take A Lesson In SANDWICHES

The good scout knows how to appease the hunger of the road, and so keeps the knapsack of sandwiches always slung where it may be opened at an instant's notice. Draw up, my hearties, and start the camp-fire burning. Any form of sandwich that mother packs may be turned to royal picnic fare by the simple rite of toasting over the blaze. Tell Mother about these:

Baked Bean Sandwich

Mash thoroughly one cupful of plain baked beans. Add four tablespoonfuls of grated American cheese and a dash of salt. Moisten with four teaspoonfuls of orange juice. Spread between buttered slices of white or brown

Salmon Sandwich

Chop fine two hard-boiled eggs and add one-half cupful of mineed salmen. Season to taste and bind together with mayonnaise dressing. Spread between neatlyout slices of buttered Bread.

And of course no good scout is satisfied with any Bread but the Best—for he wants his food to give him the most in the health and energy that mean manhood.

BUTTER-NUT BREAD

-is the loaf for good scouts. Eat it to the last crumb. It builds health and vigor.
