

HEART-BROKEN

"Anxious": In case of your death your husband will inherit one-third of your estate and the children two-thirds. Go to a lawyer or a notary public and have him help you make a will so that your children will inherit everything. The charge for making the will will be small. Do not delay in this matter.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl nineteen years of age. I am very unhappy. I have been keeping company with a young man for the last eight months. I do not love him, but he loves me so much that I can't quit him. My folks say if I quit him I will have to leave home.

This young man is good-looking, dresses well, has a big car of his own, but still I do not love him. He is good to me at all times. Do you think if I married him this fall that I could learn to love him in after years? I am not engaged, but he always speaks about getting me a ring.

I am in love with one of my old schoolmates, whom my friend is jealous of. I have been going with my schoolmate now and then, and she says if he sees me with him or if I go with him again he will whip him. I do not want him to hurt my sweetheart for the world. My little schoolmate seems to be in love with him.

How can I quit this young man without hurting his feelings? I tell him I don't love him. I have been out west several times. Do you think it would be all right to go out there for awhile to get away from him? He has been working for a father and also for a married sister of mine. They think I have to marry him just because he did so much for them. He is a good man but I don't like the rest of the family at all. I know if I marry him I will be miserable for life.

HEART-BROKEN.

Do not marry the man you do not love. Go west if you can, or anywhere else to get away, but do not consider a loveless marriage. Your family is entirely wrong in trying to persuade you in this matter. You will have to live with the man and therefore your happiness should be considered above everything else.

The man will not whip your classmate nine chances out of ten. If he does, let your classmate fight his own battle. It is very considerate of you not to want to hurt the man's feelings. I think, however, the kindest way will be for you to let him know definitely that you do not care for him and you never can. Do not marry, hoping that love will come after marriage.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of sixteen and am in love with a man of thirty-five. I go with him real often. The other night he asked me to marry him. As I have no folks I would like to live in a real home instead of working out. Should I?

I am afraid there is too great a difference in your ages for you to be happy together. I would suggest that you wait at least six months before you give your answer. At the end of that time you will know better whether or not you will be happy together. Lovers who are afraid to wait have reason to doubt the sincerity of their love. A deep, true love stands the test of time. I would not advise you to marry for two years or more but for the fact that you say you have no home life now.

TAFETA, ORGANDY AND HORSEHAIR MAKE NEW SUMMER HATS

Variety in fabric and style mark the newest summer hats. Here are three which will please. At the left is an opal blue taffeta with an opal blue taffeta with an abrupt off-the-face roll. A piccollo frill of the taffeta finishes the frill and a rosette of it adds a piquant trimming touch. The hat at the right is lavender organdy. It is the type of hat for the garden party, a large drooping brimmed sailor shape. It is ornamented by huge grape clusters of self fabric. For late and leisurely summer dining there is a hat of black horsehair pictured in the center. It is trimmed with uncurled ostrich and may be worn with any color and any style gown.

SEVEN DAYS REMAIN FOR PROPERTY LISTING

Seven days remain in which property owners of Charlotte and Mecklenburg county may make return of their property and list their poll tax. A considerable per cent of those liable for both property returns and poll tax have not appeared at the court house and made their accounts with the list takers. Those who have not done so by July 1 will not only be liable for the tax that is to be collected on all property and polls, but also be liable for a penalty for not meeting the requirements of the law.

County Auditor Floyd Gresham states that there are still a considerable number of people who have not made their returns and that they are in a fair way to be taxed with the penalty for non-compliance with the law. Two men are on duty now at the court house to take the returns. A. D. Neal for the city and J. C. Purcell for the county. For much of the time during May and June there were half a dozen men on duty.

GERMANY TO RESTORE AMERICAN PROPERTY

Berlin, June 24.—In making formal announcement today that all American property by the German government would be released immediately, the foreign office said much of such property already had been restored, but that certain credits and securities were still held. This was Germany's first move to know whether the United States would adopt the same system of accounting as that provided for in the Versailles treaty, the announcement declared.

Consequently, it added, Germany, in returning American property, was running the risk of having to make double payments, but nevertheless the government had decided to turn over all American property immediately save the owners further trouble, facilitate a resumption of German-American trade and establish the inviolability of private property.

MILL WORKERS ARE STILL USING HOUSES

The occupants of eight houses on the property of the Mecklenburg Mill at North Charlotte who had agreed to vacate the houses by Thursday, June 23, at 10 o'clock thereby halting the suit of ejectment brought against them by the mill owners some days ago, had not carried out the bargain, it was learned Friday.

By the terms of the agreement the suit was to stop and to be dropped if the tenants vacated the houses at the time specified. Their failure to get out by the specified date automatically put the warrants of ejectment in effect and it was said they would be executed. The suits of ejectment were brought by the mill company shortly after the tenants walked out on strike a few weeks ago. There were several hearings on the matter before Magistrate W. S. Huggins, Magistrate George M. Pfifer and Magistrate F. B. Alexander.

SETTLEMENT OF BIG

same is true of other sections of the country which depend for their existence on the sale annually of an exportable surplus. To the dispassionate observer who has no particular relationship to the banker of either the east or the middle west it is apparent that the extreme position adopted on the one hand by Mr. Reynolds, who leans more or less toward the idea of forgetting about exports altogether, and the attitude of the eastern bankers who feel that Europe lies the cure to American business stagnation the president of the United States is steering a middle course. The contact which he had with the two theories necessarily makes him naturally conservative. The first conference with the eastern bankers disposed of the foreign trade problem by getting an agreement with the bankers to consult with the government as to the purpose of all foreign loans before offering them to the public. That enables the government to prevent the kind of abuses which Mr. Reynolds talked about, namely depleting American capital resources for the benefit of European development.

The second conference with the bankers will result in steps toward the adjustment of war claims made by the railroads and other interests who could use the money owed them to good advantage in helping the country back to an economic normal.

SHERIFF CALLS FOR COUNTY LICENSE FEE

All license or privilege taxes due the county must be paid on or before July 1, according to Sheriff W. O. Cochran, or the person or firm that owes the tax will be liable to a penalty for non-payment of the tax as well as for the tax itself.

There are still quite a number of persons and firms of the county liable for privilege tax who have not paid it. Sheriff Cochran says, and only a few more days remain before the time limit is up. He has instructions from Raleigh not to collect any tax after July 1 without also collecting the penalty. Some of those liable for privilege or license to the county are owners of automobiles, merry-go-rounds, wheels of fortune and other such devices of amusement; those who hold concessions for selling tobaccos, operating refreshment booths and the owners or lessors of hotels.

CANDY RECIPES.
Nut Balls—One cup raisins, one cup dates, one cup pecans.
Run through fine meat-chopper, moisten with orange juice until it will roll in balls; dip in powdered sugar; and serve as a confection.
Lemon Gum Drops—Three and one-half tablespoons gelatin, three-quarters cup cold water, one-quarter cup granulated sugar, two teaspoons hot water, four tablespoons corn syrup, two tablespoons lemon juice or less.
Soak the gelatin in the cold water until water is absorbed. Mix sugar, hot water and corn syrup in a saucepan and boil gently without stirring to the soft-ball stage. Remove from fire and add the gelatin. Return to the fire and stir a minute over the fire. Add lemon juice (strained) and put in a cool place for five or six minutes. Pour into cornstarch molds made by the impression of a rounded knife handle or a tumbler. When firm, put into sieve and shake off cornstarch. Use a brush if necessary. Hold sieve over steam for a second to crystallize the drops and then roll in granulated sugar.

SUGGESTIONS.
Guest Book—If every young housewife will provide herself with a large book for her desk and ask visitors and friends or the passing guest to write their names down in her "guest book" it will make very interesting reading in the years to come.
Bad Odors—By placing a small piece of charcoal on a plate inside and on the bottom of the refrigerator, it will remove all bad odors which may remain, no matter how careful or particular one may be about cleaning out the refrigerator. The charcoal insures a sweet and fresh smelling interior.
Bed Comforters—An easy way to make bed comforters is to pin all four corners of the lining to the carpet. Then lay on the batting and stretch the top on. Baste or pin all round to keep in place. Begin tacking and rolling as you tack, and you will have it done before you can place it in the frame. Or lay the material on the bed and tack about half the batting at a time.
