Women Outnumber Male Population in The Two Carolinas

Washington, June 27.-There were 2.090,132, more males than females in the United States in 1920, male ing the ratio 104 to 100 as compared with 106 to every hundred females in the period of 1900-10, the Cen-sus Bureau announced Sunday

A preponderance of males has been shown in every census, due primarily, the announcement said, to the considerable number of foreignborn residents among whom the males greatly outnumber the opposite sex. Thirteen per cent of the country's total population in 1920 was foreign born.

Every state except Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama had excess of males over females. These seven states had ratios ranging from 96.3 to 100 for Massachusetts, to 99.9 for North

The District of Columbia has far greater excess of females than any state, its ratio being only 87 to 100, and Nevada had 148.4 males to every 100 females, the highest ratio of any state, the statement

90 DAYS DISTANT

Katydids and Farmers Get Together and Pick September 24 as Date.

There will be a first frost of the fall season on the night of September 24, if signs implicitly believed in by farmers and dwellers in the rural districts hold good. Last Thursday night the first katydid of the season was heard, and three months from the date the first frost of the autumn season may be expected, many declare. Farmers and others at the court house Monday were commenting on the fact and half a dozen of them in one group testified that they heard the katydid for the first time this year-Thursday night. Several people who live in the city and were present while the matter was being discussed said they also heard katydids on that night.

Charles H. Caldwell, member of the Mecklenburg county board of education, who attended the injunction hearno brought by the Rama community Saturday against the school board attended the hearing and gave it close attention, but that didn't prevent his showing interest when the subject of katydids came up. Mr. Caldwell, who is a keen observer of Nature's ways and one of the most successful farmers in Crab Orchard township said it had been a commonly accepted saying in the country-side since his boyhood days and before that when the lonesome and melancholy cry of the katydid was heard it could be taken as an accurate forecast that frost, was just three months away.

The sound made by the katydid, it is said, is made by the fly rubbing its wings together as it reposes on the of a tree or a blade of grass. It is commonly accepted that it does not make its appearance until there has been a brief period of quite typical hot summer weather.

Since last Thursday night the insect has been heard nightly and daily. Numbers of people who sought the cooler breezes of the countryside Sunday report that the katydid was heard with great frequency as they sped along thickets and wood clums by the road-

A DRESSER WAS HE!

His trousers were short that she might see his silken socks unpaid for. The shirt of silk adorned his manly breast and his three dollar tie proclaimed his artistic taste and his utter disregard of mere matters of money or credit. She said "just speak to Papa" and to papa he strode with those same socks of silk, that same shirt that spurned the cotton field, and with that rainbow tie.

AND PAPA SAID

"How many shares do you carry with Keesler and the Mutual?" None. I don't like to bother with little things like that. That's for working people. "Is your suit paid for, and what did it cost." It cost $75.00 and I'm paying for it monthly, that is I'm going to start on it next month. "How about your socks and handsome tie and lovely shirt?"

have an account and don't have to pay cash.
"Do you belong to the clubs? Oh, yes, I'm a member of all the best clubs and entertain in approved style. "How about the church, and do you help your parents in their strug-gles?" I'm a member, but don't go in for sissy stuff very strong. Don't have the time. As for the old folks, they don't bother me, and I have my own affairs to look after. "How much have you saved during the last 5 years?" Well, I haven't saved anything yet, but I'm going to start when I'm married. PAPA TOOK HIM SOFTLY to the door and said "I've worked hard for what I have, and I'm willing to support Susan as long as she lives, but if she even wanted to marry a feller of your stripe I'd be tempted to disown her. You're just a simple, ordinary fool, and hunting for a support. Go learn something of real life and some day you may be able to marry a self-respecting girl.
