Felix Hayman announced this morning that Ezra Midkiff, Hornet pilot, had received a telegram from Ralph O'Connell stating that he would return to Charlotte Saturday. O'Connell is at his home, Newport, R. I., where he was called last Saturday on account of the illness of his sister.

It is expected that O'Connell will play in the games against Columbia Monday. Two games will begin the series there, one in the morning, the other in the afternoon.

Does Deschamps Use Hypnotism?

Came the weird tale from France some months ago that the hypnotic eye of Manager Deschamps has had much to do with the success of Georges Carpentier in the ring. The story pointed out that Deschamps fixed his eyes on Carpentier's opponents and that they, falling victims of the wily manager's glance, were easy prey for the man in the ring. The story drew considerable comment from hypnotists, scientists and the more material fighters and managers. Deschamps, by his secretiveness, his aloofness and his general manner since arriving in the U. S. has kept an air of mystery about him.

Manager Deschamps with his eagle eye turned on Carpentier, above, and what Georges was doing, at the time—exercising his back muscles by bending on the ring floor.

TO STAGE FIGHT IN EIGHTEEN-FOOT RING

New York, June 30.—Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier will meet in an 18-foot ring, which will be installed today in the Jersey City arena.

This is the minimum sized fighting area permitted under the contract signed by the boxers. The maximum was 24 feet, and sporting men both here and abroad expected that the Frenchman would argue vigorously for a platform that would give him more opportunity for the skillful footwork for which he is noted. The fact that no official protest has come from the Carpentier camp has given ground for rumors that the challenger intends to box Dempsey toe to toe. Confusion arose last night over the size of the ring because of the fact that, although it will measure 18 feet from rope to rope, there will be an overhang of a foot or so to prevent the boxers being hurled from the stage.

EIGHT-OUNCE GLOVES FOR SATURDAY BOUT

New York, June 30.—Eight-ounce gloves will be the weapons used by Dempsey and Carpentier in their match for the championship Saturday. This was announced today by Tex Rickard, promoter, who said the eight-ounce mitts were more favorable to the New Jersey Boxing Commission than those of the six-ounce variety. Managers of both fighters inspected the gloves and pronounced them satisfactory.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR.
Ruth hit his twenty-third homer off Bigbee in the first inning of double header and his twenty-fourth in the second game of a century.
The Robins beat the Giants in a double header.
Vaughn held Pittsburgh to one hit, Chicago winning 1 to 0.

DEMAND LONG ODDS ON CARP

Out of 225 Sportsmen 165 Pick Dempsey as the Easy Winner.

New York, June 30.—Jack Dempsey ruled the favorite among 165 sportsmen out of 225 interviewed as to the probable outcome of his match with Georges Carpentier at Jersey City, Saturday. Fifty-eight predicted that the French challenger would don the world heavyweight championship belt, while a scattering few, including a college track trainer of considerable note, said they expected the bout to be about even.

The usual "if" figured largely among the speculations. Men declaring for Carpentier generally declined to state out and out that the French is their favorite. Their general opinion was that, if the bout goes five rounds, Carpentier will outbox the champion for the remainder of the contest. The great majority professed to believe that Dempsey's biting power will bring the battle to a sudden close if he lands a blow on Georges.

Those favoring Carpentier said they believed the challenger's supposed superiority in boxing would stand off the champion through the early rounds. Only a few were willing to predict that Carpentier will knock out the champion and those demand long odds.

Willie Lewis, veteran welterweight, who Carpentier defeated in twenty rounds in France, in 1912, was among the boxers who lined up with the European visitor.

Dempsey And Carpentier Fist Episodes In Long Rind History

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent.
New York, June 30.—The Dempsey-Carpentier battle, called "the bout of a century and the greatest of all times," adds a chapter to a list of important heavyweight championships that started back in 1832.

John L. Sullivan was the first to be considered one of the real greats of the ring. He won the title by knocking out Paddy Ryan in nine rounds at Mississippi City, Miss., Feb. 7, 1882. He successfully defended his crown by knocking out Jake Kilrain in a seven-five round battle at Richburg, Miss., on July 8, 1885. It was the last fight with bare knuckles.

Figured without a chance, James J. Corbett, a bank clerk, gave one of the first proofs of the merits of brains and science against brawn and brute strength when he won the championship from Sullivan Sept. 7, 1892, in a twenty-one round fight in New Orleans. Corbett defended his title against Charlie Mitchell in a three-round fight at Jacksonville, Jan. 23, 1894.

After defeating Peter Maher in one round in Mexico in 1896, Bob Fitzsimmons came along then and won the title from Corbett after fourteen rounds in Carson City, Nevada, March 17, 1897. He held the crown until June 8, 1899, when he was knocked out by James J. Jeffries in an eleven round fight at Coney Island, N. Y.

On the same battleground, Jeffries beat Tom Sharkey in twenty-five rounds on Nov. 8, 1899. Fitzsimmons challenged again for the title, but Jeffries knocked him out in an eight-round bout in San Francisco on July 25, 1902. Corbett then challenged Jeffries and was knocked out in ten rounds at San Francisco on Aug. 14, 1903. Jack Munroe challenged him but he suffered the same fate after two rounds in San Francisco Aug. 26, 1904. Jeffries retired in 1905, undefeated.

Marvin Hart claimed the title after knocking out Jack Ross in a twelve-round bout at Reno, July 3, 1905. Jeffries refereed the bout and presented Hart with his title.

Opportunity Knocks at Every Man's Door

Delay in the Purchase of Coal will be Costly

Senator David Elkins of West Virginia a few days ago published a statement from which we quote:

"The only way that the country can be properly fueled is to start to fuel it now. It is to be regretted that some department or high official of the government does not assume a duty that might properly be expected to adhere to the prospective Department of Public Welfare and advise the country that if coal bins are not filled before the inevitable demand comes with cold weather the railroads will be unequal to the task of distribution, and another so called coal famine is bound to ensue."

The U. S. Geological Survey report for last week says output of coal for the first five months of 1921 is 28 per cent behind 1917 and 1918, 23 per cent behind 1920, and even 7 per cent behind the year 1919, from which the high prices later resulted.
