YOUNG T. R. AND HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW
TAKE HIKE IN WASHINGTON SUBURBS

Nicholas Longworth (left) and Theodore Roosevelt out for a hike,

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Roosevelt and his brother-in-law, Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, are great "pals" and both are fond of walking. They go for a "hike" in the woods and suburbs of Washington every Saturday afternoon that they can steal from their duties at Capitol Hill and in the navy department.

7-tf STEAMSHIP LINES GOMPERS VISITS TRY TO EVADE LAW

Washington, Sept. 3 .- Efforts of cerain steamship lines to bring in more immigrants each month than are permitted to enter under the three per ent immigration law, has led Department of Labor officials to believe that an effort is being made to bring the law into disrepute, Assistant Secretary

E. J. Henning, said today. "Unfortunately," Mr. Henning said, the law has no teeth, and the only way the offending companies can be punished is to compel them to take ack aliens who are not admissable." This is being done, he said, adding that the department had exhausted ts "milk of human kindness." When the offenses first were committed the aliens who were brought to ports were admitted under bond, but all will be sent back in the future, the assistant secretary said. TWO KILLED IN STORM IN WASHINGTON CITY
