Mexico City, Sept. 7 .- The federal gov ernment will not intervene in an effor: to have the Vera Cruz legislature modify its law recently passed permitting work men to share in the profit of any industry within the State. Secretary of the Interior Calles has made a statement

Secretary Calles says that in such matters the States are sovereign, adding however, that the law is not as drastic as described by its opponents-Although there is no apparent hope that the law will be repealed, repre sentatives of various industries affected have told The Associated Press that they "understand" no attempt will be made to carry out the measure in a strict form. They are prepared however, to close down all their interests in the State of Vera Cruz if the profitsharing law is invoked by the work men. It is believed the Supreme Court vill be called upon to pass on the law. Effects of the law have already been felt in other parts of the republic. In the Laguna cotton region manufactur-

HONOLULU JAPS SEND MONEY HOME

Honolulu, T. H., Sept. 7 .---- Japanese residents of the Honolulu postoffice district returned $1,011,938.83 to Japan during the last fiscal year by international postal money orders, the annual report of the postmaster here revealed when it was made public recently

This sum is an increase of $341..281.98 over the amount sent to Japan in the previous fiscal year and is the largest sum ever sent to Japan in one year with the exception of the 1917 fiscal period when $1,198,038.30, were dispatched. The 1919 remittance decreased because of the sugar plantation strike in which many Jepanese participated, the total that year being only $770,656.94.

"My First Thousand"

This phrase enters into the stories' of many men who are now established financial successes. It implies a slow, up-hill climb, attended by rigid economy, to the point of "having money to make money." There are many that have never striven for the first thousand. The savings department of this bank invites you to start your first thousand. Are you one of them?
