MANY ARE AFTER TILDEN'S CROWN

Five Foreign Nations Have Tennis Stars Entered in U. S. Tournament.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Staff Correspondent.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9 .- Five foreign nations will reach out a hand today for the American national singles championship, when the annual men's tennis classic gets under way at the Germantown Cricket Club. One hundred and twenty-eight players will start in the first round today of what is the greatest international sporting event of the season. Members of five foreign Davis Cup teams and the best players in America will compete for the crown that is now worn by William T. Tilden, world's singles championship. S. Gordon Lowe and A. Wallis Myers will represent England; James O. Anderson, Jack B. Hawkes, Norman Peach and Clarence V. Todd will carry the colors of Australia; Eric Tegner You will find our will represent Denmark; Japan will have her Davis Cup stars, Kumagae and Shimidzu, and the India team will also be represented.

Among the foremost American players competing with Tilden are William M. Johnston, Richard Norris Williams and Watson Washburn, all of the American Davis cup team, and Vincent Richards, the Fordham boy wonder. Little fear is entertained by critics hat the American title will stray from the home shores. Uncle Sam will be represented by one of the most for-midable arrays of talent that has ever entered the championships.

Tilden, because of the great form shown all year, is regarded as the favorite in the tournament, but there are many who believe that Johnston and Richards have a fine chance to win the

Richards went stale in mid-season, after he had scored the rather sensational victory over Tilden. He let up on his game, however, and then came back. In the final match of the doubles championship in Boston recently, Richards, who was teamed with Tilden, defeated almost lone-handed the Davis cup doubles pair, Williams and Washburn. Tilden has had a long, hard training grind, extending for over a year. He has been showing the effects of the strain all season. The champion kept after his game on returning from the Davis Cup victory in Australia last winter, and finally had to lay his racquet aside when he went completely stale. Bill Johnston, on the other hand, let up when he returned from the An ipodes, and now is in as good form as

1921 - FALL and WINTER - 1922

During the past summer months when other plants have been closed, we have been working to capacity. Our craftsmen have been busily engaged in the manufacture of Fall Clothes for the patrons of our 27 stores.

Domestic and imported woolens of exclusive patterns are shown in the most stylish metropolitan models for both men and young men, and despite the glowing praises of high-priced advertised makes, we claim without hesitation that the tailoring of TRIV-ERS CLOTHES by our own organization of master workmen is second to none in the clothes-making industry of America.

As in seasons past—TRIVERS FAIR PRICES ARE FEATURED -our prices have always been right-it has always been our purpose since our organization was formed to please the publicto win confidence and give every man a full dollar's worth.

Today we supply the clothes wants of 300,000 men. Our business run into millions of dollars annually. We are KNOWN AS SMALL PROFIT TAKERS—our motto is VOLUME and we are going to increase to a still greater volume by giving GREATER VALUES THAN EVER, and we can guarantee you a positive saving of $10 to $20 on each garment.
