

SCHOONER YACHT GIVEN TO NAVY

America Which Brought Cup to This Country on Last Voyage.

Boston, Sept. 9.—The last voyage of the schooner yacht America which, by lifting the Royal Squadron Cup in English waters, opened the way to the long international competition for the cup that now bears her name, will begin at this port tomorrow.

shipyard at 9 A. M. tomorrow for the waterfront here from which departure will be taken in the afternoon for Marblehead. The itinerary thence follows: September 11, at Manchester, Mass.; September 12, passes through Cape Cod canal and calls at Monument Beach and Marion; 13, at New Bedford; 14, at Fall River Yacht Club; 15, at Newport; 16, at Providence; 17, at New London; 18, New Haven; 19, Stamford; 20, Indian Harbor; 21, Oyster Bay; 22, Larchmont or New Rochelle; 23, New York Y. C.; 24, at 23rd street; 25, Gravesend Bay, with call at Battery; 26, Newark; 27, Trenton; 28, Philadelphia; 29, Wilmington; 30, Baltimore; 31, Annapolis.

At Annapolis, the America will be formally given over to the government. Secretary Denby, who accepted the schooner yacht some time ago is expected to be there in person. The transfer will be made by Charles H. W. Foster, a yachtsman of this city, who has owned her for four years. His offer to give her to the Navy Department free and clear was made conditional on his acceptance of $1.

SUIT OVER WIG.

New York, Sept. 9.—Miss Alice Bloom, a model, wore a $125 wig when her bobbed hair began to fall out. She was a guest on a yachting trip up the Hudson and her host's pet terrier chewed up the wig when she took it off in her cabin. Result, a suit in the municipal court. Miss Bloom compromised for $50.

KEEPS RECORD OF STOLEN CARS

Nebraska Has Unique System of Recovering Stolen Automobiles.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 9.—The index records and files of the Nebraska automobile theft department of the State enforcement bureau have been placed at the disposal of every person in the United States who loses a motor car by theft, State Sheriff Gus A. Hyers, chief of the bureau, announced today.

The department, organized by an act of the legislature, was primarily installed for the purpose of Nebraska motor car theft protection, but by direction of Governor McKeever, under whom the enforcement bureau is managed, it is aimed to make the branch a nationally known and co-operative agency in aiding in apprehending stolen motor cars and thieves in all parts of the country.

RECEIVERS NAMED FOR DEFUNCT BANKS

Greensboro, Sept. 9.—In Superior Court here Thursday, Judge James L. Webb, upon the recommendation of the State Commissioner, signed orders placing the Bank of Thompsville and the Bank of Denton, which recently were closed by a State bank examiner, in the hands of temporary receivers, T. P. Finch, of Lexington, was appointed receiver for the Thompsville bank and J. Arthur Ross for the Denton bank. Attorneys for the two banks were ordered to appear before Judge Webb here September 14 to show cause why the temporary receiverships should not be made permanent.

ENGINEER WAS WARNED.
Fitzgerald, Ga., Sept. 9.—County officials announced Thursday that Engineer Joe Morris, who was killed in a wreck on the A. B. and A. road near Atlanta Wednesday night, following an explosion, had been warned that he would be blown up. "I'll die fighting," was Morris' statement, it is said, as he left here on his last run.

METHODISTS WANT COMPLETE SUCCESS

London, Sept. 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The world's conference of Methodists at the outset of this morning's session adopted a resolution declaring the conference hoped that complete success would crown the negotiations between the British Government and the Irish Republicans for a solution of the Irish question. The resolution said: "This conference, representing almost 40 million adherents, is watching with prayerful and deeply solicitous interest the present attempt at a satisfactory and permanent adjustment of Irish affairs, and fervently hopes that complete success may crown the negotiations."

RUSSIAN STUDENTS HELP.
Paris, Sept. 9.—Russian students in Paris have organized to aid their people at home in the famine-stricken provinces. They have sent a message to American students urging them to use their influence toward active support of the plans to feed the hungry and care for the weak and sick.
