FALL OPENINGS IN CHARLOTTE STORES

Many of the larger Charlotte stores were scenes of unusual bustle and activity Wednesday in anticipation of their formal fall openings on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The autumn stocks of goods of the latest modes and cuts adorned counter, show window and other points of vantage in such array as tto attract all comers.

As the date is near at hand in which most of the stores are accustomed to have theeir formal fall openings, the proprietors decided tto time the openings with the opening of the Made-in-Carolinas exposition. From scores of towns and a wide area of territory around Charlotte visitors are to attend the exposition and other scores and hundreds are expected as the days go by. After a visit to the exposition ground visitors, it is assumed, will take the opportunity to look over Charlotte and inspect the fall array of goods in theeir favorite store or stores.

Long experience has taught merchants, so one of them confided today, that goods sell themselves if attractively displayed and if the store displaying them enjoys a reputation for handling standard goods at reasonable figures. The fashion of having shopping festivals here at stated periods, sponsored by the Merchants Association, has taught the public the value of looking over stocks of merchandise here when public announcement is made of special merchandising events, and shoppers are expected to be out in force on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

CANADIAN SHIPPERS OF GRAIN PROTECTED

Montreal, Sept. 14.—Grain shipments through this port have become so heavy that the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk railroads today announced restrictions for the protection of Canadian shippers.

Hereafter, it was announced, grain ships from American ports bound for Port McNichol and Tiffin, Ontario must obtain permits before using the docking facilities here.

Approximately 90,000,000 bushels of grain have passed through the port so far this season, setting a new record. About forty per cent of the total was American grain.

HERE'S BALM FOR ERRING HUSBANDS

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 12.—The husband who forgets to mail "friend wife's" letters can now breathe easier. Even postoffice officials forget that important marital duty.

W. N. Collins, Assistant Postmaster of Kansas City, found a letter reposing in his pocket. Investigation proved that his wife had given it to him two weeks before to mail and that it was intrusted to him for a visit which is now "on."

"That's not the worst," Collins said. "I once had three postcards addressing me were coming on a visit and I forgot to stamp them. We beat the cards to our destination."
