Paris, Sept. 15.—Three American jockeys, Frank O'Neill, of St. Louis: Matt McGee, of Sheepshead Bay, and Guy Garner, of Kentucky, respectively with 90, 79 and 69 winning mounts, led the riders of the Brench turf as racing was resumed on the Metropolitan track after having held sway since August 1, at Deauville, Dieppe, Cach and other resorts.

Prince Aga Khan, of India, who is getting together what probably will be the largest stable on the French turf E in 1922, has retained first call on Garner's services for next year. It is reported that the Prince has made an offer to A. K. Macomber for Macoinber's entire stable, including the horses bought from the estate of the late William K. Vanderbilt.
