GOVERNOR COOPER SPEAKS

The Human Element in Industry was the subject of Governor Cooper's address at the Exposition Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the South Carolina chief executive gave an exhaustive and brilliant interpretation of the need in these times of war.

PRELIMINARIES TO THE STATE

The excellency of North Carolina, said Governor Cooper, "is indicated in that it is not putting its sole trust in industry, as great as this is and as marvelous as it has been developed in recent years in your state, but in that it is giving first attention to the human element, the boys and girls to whom greater educational establishments are being provided. Industry is associated with the creation of wealth and yet, unless wealth so made comes to human happiness and to the development of humanity, it is worthless and industry itself is in vain."

THE LABOR SITUATION

Governor Cooper declared that it would be inevitable that the effects of the strike which has been engendered in North Carolina between employers and employees would be felt in South Carolina and that his State was interested in observing the manner in which these industrial difficulties are treated here. "Sampson was able to defeat

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—A new profession has been created in San Francisco. An enologist is a person who is entitled under the law to manufacture a maximum of 200 gallons of non-intoxicating wines. An "enologist" is defined as a person thoroughly experienced in the making of wine. His advertisement reads: "Since the law allows you to make 200 gallons of grape juice for your own family's use, let an expert enologist make it for you at your own residence, avoiding poor results and wasting money. Start now before grapes go too high."

W. E. Brock Becomes Superior Court Judge and M. W. Nash Solicitor.

ADAMS LONG A JUDGE. Has Been on the Superior Court Bench Since 1908; Appointed by Glenn.

Raleigh, Sept. 20.—Governor Cameron Morrison smashed the hopes of contestants for seat on the Supreme Court bench to succeed the late Justice W. R. Allen yesterday afternoon when he announced the appointment of Judge W. E. Adams, of Charlotte, as associate justice; named Solicitor Walter E. Brock as successor to Judge Adams on the Superior Court from the Thirteenth District; and appointed M. W. Nash, of Nantuxet, as Solicitor to succeed Brock.

The appointments were announced by Governor Morrison shortly after an imposing delegation from the counties composing the thirteenth judicial district had called on the Governor in the interest of Judge Adams. It was the largest delegation that has appeared before the Governor since the campaign for successor to Judge Allen started. The next largest was for Thomas D. Warren, of New Bern, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, the choice of a host of the many of the Governor's personal and political friends.

GOVERNOR'S TELEGRAM

With the announcement of the appointment Governor Morrison dispatched this telegram to Judge Adams, now holding court in Guilford county: "Believing that you are the choice of the people of the State for the Supreme Court bench, my own judgment being that you will ably and justly discharge the high duties of that exalted position, I take great pleasure in tendering you the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench caused by the death of the Hon. William R. Allen."

APPOINTED BY GLENN

Judge Adams, the son of a Methodist minister, Rev. Shockey D. Adams, and himself a prominent lay member of the Methodist church, has been on the Superior Court bench since 1908, when he was appointed by Governor R. B. Glenn. Prior to that appointment, he had practiced law in Moore county, had led the forces of the Democratic party as county chairman and had served his county in both houses of the General Assembly.

Secretary Patton stated, "Every old stockholder will be urged to retain his interests, which will provide for a dinner Friday evening at Ivey's main dining room in compliment to the heads of the companies having exhibits now on display at the exposition. It is planned to establish a dining room, an unusually elaborate affair, and it probably will be the only opportunity for all the exhibitors and exposition officials and directors to gather together during the course of this exposition. This event will be held at 6 o'clock, and will conclude at 8 o'clock, in order to allow the diners to return to the exposition at about the time when the evening rush of visitors gets under way."

Labor Federation Plans To Stage Disarmament Parades

Asks American Legion and Other Organizations to Join on Armistice Day in Great National Demonstration to Impress Washington Conference.

By DAVID LAWRENCE, Staff Correspondent of The News. Copyright, 1921, by News Publishing Co.

Washington, Sept. 20.—American labor has organized a League of Labor and other national organizations to cooperate in demonstrations throughout the United States on Armistice Day not only to celebrate the victory of 1918 but to impress the delegates to the conference on the Limitation of Armaments with the fact that the American people confidently expect a program to be adopted which will reduce military and naval expenditures and minimize the chances of war.

LABOR TO DO ITS PART

Mr. Gompers makes it plain that he is not championing a class movement. He simply is notifying every trade union headquarters in every city and town of the United States that labor should take its part in what he believes will be taken up by other civic bodies as a national celebration. When Armistice Day has passed, it is the hope of the labor organizations to put into effect a permanent committee of seventy-five members, representing all the various national organizations interested in disarmament and the cause of peace will unite in a respectful protest to be heard on the conference for the limitation of armaments so that there may be no doubt about the insistence of the American people on practical results.

ENGINEER SAVES WATER FAMINE LIFE OF A CHILD AT UNIVERSITY

Unable to Stop Train, Climbs to Pilot and Draws Baby from Track.

Raleigh, Sept. 20.—He has been often in the moving pictures—the handsome engineer who from his cabin on a speeding locomotive, sees a sweet baby girl toddling along the track ahead, jams on his emergency brakes, staggering but not halting the heavy trains sweeping down a grade, climbs out of his cabin, down to the cowcatcher in front and scoops up the infant to safety, with just a scant fraction of a second to spare.

SEES GIRL ON TRACK

Engineer Furman was taking 25 loaded freight cars to Fayetteville, and running at about the usual speed of freight trains. Rounding a sharp curve and going down grade toward the Cape Fear River and Lillington, he saw the little girl walking along and unsteadily down the track. Her back was toward him. With one hand Furman yanked the whistle cord and with the other the emergency brake lever. The child was 75 yards away.

MOTHER HAD NOT MISSED HER

At home half mile away the child's mother had not missed her. She had wandered off toward the railroad, clambered down the steep embankment and then onto the track. Furman stopped the train and began inquiry as to whom the child belonged. With modesty as becoming of a brave man, he retreated before the demonstration of parental joy. Then he went back to write the casual, matter-of-fact reports that railroads keep, and went on Fayetteville-wards.

GOVERNMENT IN MANY COUNTIES IS INCOMPETENT

Dr. Brooks Tells of Conditions Found as Result of Study. SUPERVISION NEEDED. Most of Troubles Caused by Ignorance, Some by Indifference.

By JULE B. WARREN, Staff Correspondent of The News.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 20.—Dr. C. E. Brooks, Superintendent of Public Instruction, speaking before the town and county conference at Chapel Hill on Monday night called attention to what he considers "a most flagrant mistake of the county governments in handling their affairs in an unbusiness like way, and of the effect of this lack of business ability on the school and all other county institutions. Indirectly also the failure of the counties to handle their business well hits back at the State.

The speech is a follow-up of the suggestions made by Dr. Brooks made at a convention here last month, and is one of the most interesting and straight forward presentations of a problem the Democrats will have to face this year. The speech follows: "The continued growth of our public school system depends upon efficient county government. It is a fact easily demonstrated that in those counties which have had the benefits of good progressive government for several years, the public school system, as a rule is better organized and more efficiently administered than in the counties poorly governed. The cause is not hard to discover. The county is the unit of self government. The relation of the State to its counties is one of assistance. The county is likewise the unit of educational administration and the relation of the State to the schools is one of supervision and assistance. The board of county commissioners is the governing body of the county, and to this board the public schools must likewise look for support. Therefore, since the same defects that run through the whole county government, NEED ASSISTANCE.

"The counties are not able to govern themselves and promote the progress of the people without State supervision and assistance. However, the State through a failure in exercising proper supervision encourages carelessness and waste in the collection and expenditure of public funds. Such defects inevitably breed discontent and suspicion among the people. This is true whether the defect relates to the administration of justice, the building of roads, the development of our natural resources, or the care of the poor. It is my purpose to specify wherein county government is defective and suggest certain remedies.

"The State Department of Education has made a study of county government in several counties with special reference to collecting and expenditure of public funds. We were led to this study for the purpose of determining the State Public school fund for the year 1919-20.

"One county reported that all but about 2 per cent of the gross amount of taxes collected for the purpose of the State Public school fund for the year 1919-20, the most of which was expended in the collection and expenditure of public funds. We were led to this study for the purpose of determining the State Public school fund for the year 1919-20.

"We examined the records of a number of counties for the purpose of discovering the cause of this difference in the number of delinquent tax payers. While making this study we discovered defects, almost wholly unreported, in the records, that ought to be corrected. Therefore, what I shall say here is not said in a spirit of general criticism and fault-finding, but for the purpose of calling the attention of patriotic citizens to glaring defects that can be corrected in every county, and must be corrected if we expect to have the greatest benefits from the expenditure of large and still larger sums for public improvement, and hold the confidence and support of the people in the progressive program that is now making this State.

"The county officials in many counties do not know the cost of county government. They do not know the size of the bonded debt nor the cost of the several departments. As a result they do not know what tax rates are necessary to pay the bills. The expenses of the county, as a rule they are pledged to keep taxes down. Therefore, the authorities try to curtail expenses with

GREENVILLE HOPES TO SAVE FRANCHISE

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 20.—Business men of Greenville announced their intention of attending the mass meeting here today to buy the local South Atlantic Association franchise, if necessary, to retain professional baseball for Greenville. The club owes about $7,500 in players' salaries and assessments and unless a satisfactory settlement is made for these league debts, the franchise will revert to the league and will be sold to the highest bidder. Players' salaries amounting to $2,400 for two weeks, overdue since Thursday, must be met today, which is the last day of grace.
