WEBBER SINGLES VICTORY IN 9TH

Charlotte Bids Farewell to Home Crowd by Beating Spinners Again.

The interim isn't mentioned in the proverb "The first shall be last," which maybe, accounts for the Insects bowing farewell to the 1921 baseball season with flying colors by licking Greenville 2 to 1 Wednesday afternoon at Wearn

The contest fairly teemed with pep being one of the shortest frays of the season. The weather at first looked threatening, and a downpour did send the players scattering in the sixth. but the game was quickly resumed af ter the shower.

conflict. It was in the ninth inning that he singled and sent Utt home with the winning tally. He pitched admirably during the game, and managed to keep the hits of the opposing outlay well scattered. Allen showed up well for the Spinners, also.

Whitman put across the Bees' first New York91 run in the sixth when he clouted one Pittsburg85 that sent O'Connell across the place. St. Louis82 The rally came in the ninth when the Kirke popped out, and Ray Kennedy, Utt on third. Webber then got his second hit of the afternoon, which cinched the score.

A double by Allen, Buckley's sac:1fice and Wagner's clout gave the visitors their lone tally in the third. The only other time they threatened was in the first frame. Here Wagner drove a scorcher to right. Lance Utt nalbed it by a spectacular catch, which was by far the feature of the game. A decision by Umpire Johnson at the by the grandstand and hooting was
