

TWO CONVICTS ARE CAPTURED

Escaped from the State Farm Near Raleigh; Captured the Next Day.

Raleigh, Nov. 29.—Mike Bray, of Beaufort county, and Grover Cleveland Henderson, of Madison, two of the prisoners who escaped from the State farm Friday night, were recaptured Saturday night by prison guards near Morrisville.

Bray, who is serving 18 months, and Henderson, 10 years, said their four associates are traveling together and are dressed in the dark gray honor clothing of the prison. The prisoners are sending out circulars with complete photographic description, every convict having these cuts of himself made when received.

The missing men are Toy Clayton of Cumberland, serving 20 years for murder in the second degree; Lester Kennon, of Cabarrus, in the first of five years for larceny of an automobile; Pink Perkins, of Rockingham, doing three years for robbery; Charlie Helton, of Caldwell, serving from two to five years for larceny.

The crimes have been such as to make any concession unlikely. They were bad fellows before they came up and are still bad. Clayton seems the degenerate of the crew. He wears a tattoo of Jesus Christ on the Cross and carries a gunshot wound under the shoulder blade.

The prison people were not able to say whether the guards who fired on the men hit anybody. One prisoner fell in the firing, but rose and took up his bed. Rewards have been offered for the capture of the men, Clayton being good for $100, Hensley was good for $50, and the others for $25.

BETTER BANKING FOR THE FARMER

Among Needs of Farmer Better Credit Facilities and Lower Freights.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 29.—Adaptation of the banking machinery of the country to the credit requirements of the farmer and reduction of freight rates on farm products were advocated as the most pressing needs of the agricultural industry in an address here today by Representative Anderson, chairman of the joint Congressional commission of agricultural inquiry, before the fifth annual meeting of the National Milk Producers' Federation.

Pointing to the farmers' need for credit of a maturity corresponding to his turnover and his ability to pay, Representative Anderson said he favored permitting all existing financial institutions dealing directly with the public, including National and State banks, to make loans to farmers for periods of three months to six years. They should be able, he added, to discount the paper with the Federal Land Banks or act as the direct agent of those banks in making the loans. The farm notes then to be used as a basis for issuance of short-time debentures by the land banks. In turn, the Federal Reserve banks, he said, should be authorized to buy and sell these debentures and also to rediscount for the land banks, within six months maturity, other farm paper.

The farmer not only needs an immediate downward revision of transportation rates on his products, Representative Anderson said, but also material reduction in other elements of the spread between the producers' and the consumers' prices, which, he stated, constituted half of the latter price. The problem of distribution costs, he added, could not be solved by the farmer alone, but required the co-operation and understanding of all who enter as factors in distribution. Development of sound co-operative methods by farmers, however, he believed, could contribute much to the solution.

BEAUTY CHATS

ANSWERED LETTERS.

H. A. R.—There is no other way to restore the hair to grey, but to wait for new growth and the natural process of the bleaching out of the dye.

Y. W. G.—You are about 30 pounds below the average weight for your height and age. But you have many years still in which to grow so there is no reason why you should be concerned.

C. B. G. F.—The formula for the eyebrow tonic will be mailed to you if you send a stamped addressed envelope.

Fair One.—If powder does not adhere to the skin on your nose, try using a cream first, which is not a vanishing cream. If you care to make such a cream, I will be glad to mail you the formula.

Beatrice.—Massage the calves of your legs until you reduce them to the size you desire. Use a motion much the same as kneading.

Sarah E.—If the skin is loose and the muscles flabby, it shows that the system is run down. If this condition followed reduction through some rapid process, consult the doctor about it. Reducing the weight slowly through a choice in foods will not leave one flabby, but will tone up the system as the excess weight is being consumed.

B. M. M.—With brown eyes and a clear olive skin the hair could be the shade of henna; however, if nature has given you the rich chestnut shade which usually goes with this combination, you will not improve your appearance by making any change.

R. W. B.—There is no reason why you should not regain your hair, even though you are almost 70 years of age. Your health must have improved by reason of these operations and the growth of hair depends upon general health, plus cultivation. Send a stamped addressed envelope for a formula for a tonic and meantime, massage the scalp each day until it glows from the increased circulation.

Mary Q. C.—Massage the ankles with cocoa butter which will fatten them. The preparation you mention is a patent article and I do not know what it contains.

Jane L.—You will have to wait until nature restores your hair to its natural color. You had better have some of it cut off, than to try any more experiments to even the shades. Dampening the hair before rolling on the curlers will not affect it beyond making a tighter curl as it dries.

Sammie.—Olive oil does not act as a laxative except with some people, who would be sensitive to it. Taken with the meals it is assimilated with the food, giving that much more nourishment. It depends upon your power of assimilation how fast you will take on weight, but three months should make a great difference. Some people show an improvement in less than a week.

WESTERN UNION TO USE AMERICAN COIN

An innovation in the way of meeting the emergency of the constantly declining German mark on the international exchange has been devised by the Western Union Telegraph Company, according to Manager Ramsay Dulin, of the Charlotte office. Instead of sending money by the cable route to Germany, using the German mark to pay for the cable, good American money will hereafter be used. The Western Union Company has adopted this policy both for its own protection and for the protection of its patrons. The new arrangement went into effect Monday.

The same system has also been adopted as to Italy and as to Great Britain, according to Mr. Dulin, although the fluctuation of the exchange rate of the Italian lira and the British pound sterling has not been so erratic as the fluctuation of the German mark.

Therefore, when a person filed a cable with the Western Union here either for sending money to Germany or sending a cable message, the cost of it was paid for in German marks, for which American money was paid. If it were a day or two in delivery, it might be found that $500 cabled from here on a certain date was worth $450, or maybe less, when it reached Germany. The actual method of transmission has been for the telegraph company to buy as many German marks as would be equal to $500, say, on the date when the cable was filed.

NEW YORKERS TO FLY TO THE MOUNTAINS

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Nov. 29.—It is reported here that a group of wealthy New York men who own camps in this section of the Adirondacks are planning an aerial passenger service between the metropolis and northern Adirondacks, to be put in operation next summer.

Plans call for the construction of six hydro-airplanes that will each carry seven passengers. This estimated cost of the planes is $8,500 each. One way fare will be forty dollars and landings will be made at Saranac Lake, Paul Smiths, Saranac Inn and Lake Placid. Time between New York and the resorts will be four hours, against twelve by railroad or motor. The service will be open to the general public.

It is said organization has been completed and that the contract for the hydro-airplanes will soon be let.

CINCINNATI HOME OF COL. PROCTER ROBBED

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 29.—Police today are seeking four armed robbers, who late last night, raided the residence of William Cooper Procter, president of the Procter and Gamble Company, in Glendale, a suburb of Cincinnati, imprisoned three woman members of the household, who were alone in the house, in the cellar, and then ransacked the home, escaping with jewelry valued, Cincinnati police say, at more than $100,000.

The robbery, which, for boldness, surpasses any residential burglary in Cincinnati or vicinity for years, was executed with such dispatch and thoroughness as to induce police say, that it had been carefully planned.

The robbers escaped in an automobile, leaving no clue except such descriptions of them as the frightened women were able to furnish.
