Freshman Club Officers.

The Freshman Club of the Girl Reserves elected as their officers for the year the following: President, Louise Garibaldi; vice-president, Nida DePass; secretary, Margaret Mather; treasurer, Mildred Greenleaf; social chairman, Mildred Cave; service chairman, Sarah Dodd; program chairman, George Spratt; and membership chairman, Katherine Armstrong. The new officers will have a get-together conference to plan the work of the club under their administration. In order to get the real conference atmosphere they will have a spend-the-night-party with business sessions Friday night and Saturday morning.

The "Red Caps" of the Freshman Club will entertain in honor of the new members of the club by giving them a banquet on Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A. They are carefully keeping themselves all details of menu, place card, decoration or program. The only fact known to the mystified members is that they are to be woe boys and girls for the night and must come dressed like their little brothers and sisters. The "Red Caps" are to meet Friday afternoon to complete their mysterious plans.

Mrs. Starnes Entertains.

Mrs. Mattie Starnes entertained at her home on East Seventh street Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by Messrs. Banks, Davis and Ferris, of Lenoir, and the floors were cleared for dancing. Throughout the evening, refreshments were served.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fite, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Starnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hagler, Mrs. A. Kiziah, Misses Bernice Elliott, Fanny Martin, Lucy Daniels, Ada, Hattie and Joie Leach, Bertha Starnes, Margaret and Marjorie Ferris, Carrie Hall, Bessie and Minnie Pierce, and Messrs. Jim McLeod, J. C. Martin, J. H. Sehorn, Eustace Daniels, Ralph and Cecil Ferris, Lester Starnes, Charlie Whitl, Louis Helms, Arlie King, Felix Sims, Rush Taylor, Bill Pierce, Charlie Hayes, Ernest McLeod Allen Martin, and Joe Starnes.

REWARD WILL BE PAID FOR LOST SUIT CASE.

W. C. McIntyre at the Central Hotel, would appreciate the return of a suit case containing ladies' and baby's wearing apparel lost Thursday morning shortly after 3 o'clock. These articles are needed badly and the party finding them will do a great favor to Mr. McIntyre by notifying him. A satisfactory reward will be paid.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION?

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 1.—The Jackson County Medical Association today started a campaign to make vaccination against smallpox universal in Kansas City. Nearly one hundred persons have died here since September 1 of smallpox out of about 285 cases, according to health officials.

OLD RELICS DISCOVERED

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—Discovery of relics, believed to be of the extinct Susquehanna tribe of Indians, was announced today by Professor Frank G. Speck, of the department of anthropology, of the University of Pennsylvania. His excavations were made four miles from Port Deposit, Md., in a field near the Susquehanna River.

Fashion's Forecast

LADIES' ONE PIECE APRON.

The only trimming this comfortable bungalow style of green chambray would need would be a few yards of rick rack braid and pearl buttons.

The ladies' one piece apron No. 1131 is cut in sizes 36, 40 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 3/4 yards 32-inch material, with 3 1/4 yards trimming. Price 15 cents.

PROMINENT LAYMEN ARE TO SPEAK HERE

Laymen from Mecklenburg presbytery will gather at the Second Presbyterian church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock to hear addresses by C. R. Caldwell, of Stanton, Va., and F. S. Slaymaker, of Athens, Ga., prominent workers in the laymen's movement of the Presbyterian church.

During the week these speakers have been holding meetings in various parts of this section under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Association of Mecklenburg Presbytery. Wednesday afternoon a meeting was held at Marshville and another at Second Presbyterian church here Wednesday night.

The schedule includes the following: Thursday, Rockingham at 3 p. m.; Friday, Second Presbyterian church, here at 3 p. m. and Tenth Avenue at 7:30 p. m.; Saturday, Wadesboro at 3 p. m.; Sunday, Troy at 11 a. m., and Albemarle at 7:30 p. m.

The Laymen's Missionary Association of Mecklenburg Presbytery was organized recently when Mr. Slaymaker came to the city to tell of the movement. The officers are Peter S. Gilchrist, president; C. Parks Brown, vice president; M. J. Spencer, secretary and Jesse Oldham, treasurer.

WHITE YOUTH HELD FOR TAKING GOODS

Deputy Sheriff D. W. Sedbury, of Anson county, stopped in Charlotte Thursday on his way home from Vienna, Ga., where he went to get Hammond Johnson, a white youth, who is accused of stealing a car here several days ago at the corner of Poplar and Third streets belonging to the White Truck Company and also of robbing Smith & Morrow Company, a mercantile firm at Ansonville in Anson county.

Johnson is said to have confessed to helping steal the car and to have aided in the other theft. Of the about $300 alleged to have been stolen from the Ansonville store, Johnson and another white man, his partner, sold some of it in this county as they were making their way to Georgia in the stolen car.

Detectives Dan Bradley and Mack Riley of the Charlotte police force went out in the county Thursday morning and recovered some of the goods Johnson is alleged to have sold on his trip through this county. Johnson's companion, another white boy, is said to have broken jail in Georgia before the Anson county officer could get to Vienna.

YOU DON'T NEED A FINE COMB.

If you use Kill-ve for your children's heads. For sanitary reasons, your domestics should use it, too. Absolutely harmless, non-oily, non-sticky and doesn't interfere with color or growth of hair. Kill-ve destroys all vermin, and the eggs or nits that cling to the hair. Buy it today at drug stores—35c, 65c and $1.25. Don't be ashamed to ask for it.
