

FOUR KILLED BY A KENTUCKY MOB

Jailer's Family Fought Off Mob Seeking to Enter Jail at Jackson.

Jackson, Ky., Dec. 10.—Jailer Albert Allen and his son, Deputy Jailer Robert Allen, are dead, and Mrs. Margaret Allen and Mrs. Mary Allen, wives of the jailer and deputy jailer, respectively, are perhaps fatally wounded tonight following a mob's attempt to take two convicted murderers from the Breathitt county jail.

Jackson, for years the scene of Kentucky's fiercest feuds, was quiet tonight—comparatively. A strong detachment of guards kept eagle eyes on the county jail where Al Bigsby and Art Wait, both white, were safely confined in spite of the desperate efforts of last night's mob to lynch them.

The mob waged with intensity for half an hour, the jailer's family fighting the mob almost single-handed. One by one, the jailer, his son, the jailer's wife and the deputy's wife, fell from the sides of the mob.

So far as is known, no member of the mob was seriously hurt. Reports reaching here said Governor Morrow had ordered a machine gun company from Hazard and a company of infantrymen from Frankfort to proceed to Jackson. The mob succeeded in breaking into the jail, but sheriff's deputies arrived in time to prevent the crowd from taking the desired prisoners.

Warrants were issued tonight by the county judge for men believed to have been implicated in the plot, and sheriff's deputies were scouring the hills for them.

Dr. Brown was a native of Rowan county, this State, and a graduate of Rowan College and was for a number of years senior missionary of the United Lutheran Synod of the South in Japan, and afterward traveled in various mission fields of that church.
