'The outstanding feature of the year's work has been the shortage and under-efficiency of labor not only affecting the 1921 crop, but having its baneful influence also on planting, progress and rotation of future crops. How serious will be the effect on fature crops remains to be seen. "The price for raw sugar in 1921 also has been disastrously low. The upheaval in the market has resulted in a sination little short of chaotic, not only in Hawaii, but in every cane-growing country of the world.

On the Road to Anywhere

Whether on business or pleasure bent, you do not want to assume any unnecessary troubles.

You want a smoothly running motor responding to the slightest touch on the accelerator.

You want all the power your car is capable of giving you on the hills.

The greatest aids to the proper performance of an automobile are good gasoline and a dependable lubricant.

To get these you should ask the man at the pump for the improved "STANDARD" MOTOR GASOLINE.

And when he asks "How about some oil?"

Say "Polarine." Do not accept a nameless product for which you will pay just as much.

There is a background of more than fifty years' experience supporting the reputation of the Standard Oil Company (N. J.) as producers of the best petroleum products.

Never has this reputation been better deserved than it is today.

If you are having difficulty these frosty mornings in getting your motor started, look to your gasoline and oil. It costs less per mile to use "STANDARD" MOTOR GASOLINE and POLARINE.

They are obtainable wherever you motor.
