

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

REGARDING SANTA CLAUS LETTERS.

The great number of Santa Claus letters already received and the time awaiting publication in turn the News will be unable to print all the letters for publication if not received in this office by Saturday, December 16.

The News will endeavor to publish all Santa Claus letters received up to and including Saturday, the sixteenth.

The News requests that the children make their letters as short as possible. It is imperative that only one side of the paper be used.

If you have written Santa Claus and the letter has not yet been published, do not write again. The News undoubtedly has received your letter but it must take its turn with the others. Write on one of the fruits that Santa likes best in his children.
