for the purpose of selecting and ordering new books They intended doing this earlier but by numerous delays it was postponed until to-day. Most of the books contributed by thy people of Charlotte have been received and stored away and among them are many rare and val-uable works. The shelving has not as yet been received but it will be here very shortly. In the meantime the carpets will be put down and by the time this is completed, the furniture will arrive and everything will be in readiness for the reception of the books. Mrs. B. L.
