WE DON'T STOP AT COST,

THAT WILL MOVE THEM.

A few of these nobby English Melton Coats are left. We don't want to carry them, hence this cut. Those that were $25.00 are now $18, and the $22.50 ones are $15. Some elegant black double breasted Coats are here, sizes 36, 37 and 38, that were cheap at $20. They go now at $12.50, $13.75, and $15. Very long heavy weight Ulsters that sold for $15 are now $10. Surely it will not require a cold wave to move them at this price.

A few sizes left in Cape Overcoats, some with woolen and some with waterproof linings. Reduced as follows: From $17.50 to $13.75, from $16.50 to $13.50, from $15 to $10. All cheaper coats are reduced in same proportion.

THE CITY WHISKEY QUESTION.

The Board of Aldermen Grants Licenses and the County Commissioners are Again Appealed To.

The News' report of the aldermen's meeting yesterday afternoon closed at 5 o'clock, just after the third license had been granted, and as intimated, the board granted licenses to all who had applied. Those who received licenses were: The Portner Brewing Co., Rudolph Arndt, Joe Lindy, W. A. Jacquins, A. R. Bowles, W. F. Snider, S. J. Austin, C. C. West, C. Roediger, O. W. Badger and J. N. Hunter. Messrs. J. B. Ross and John McCorkle were granted license by the board at the November meeting. In granting licenses yesterday, the board did so under some very proper restrictions that were unanimously adopted. They were made at the suggestion of alderman Sifford. The platform under which the licenses were granted provides first that the city shall not be responsible for lawsuits that may arise. A sign must be placed over each door to this effect: "No person under 21 years of age allowed in this house," under a penalty of $25 for each offense. Any minor who invades a bar is to be fined $25. The barkeeper is to keep a registry book in which he is to record the name of each party he has challenged. The barkeeper who sells or gives liquor to a minor, or sells or gives it away on Sunday, is to pay a fine of $200. Any barkeeper or clerk who shall enter his place of business on Sunday, or stand around the front door, shall be fined $25. The bars can be opened only between sunrise and 11 o'clock at night. A resolution offered by alderman Clarkson that all screens be removed from the saloon doors and windows, was voted down.

Alderman Sifford voted for license. Before doing so, he read this paper: "I wish to make a statement to the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen, as to what manner of vote I shall cast in this contest. I deem it a duty that I owe to myself and my constituents to whom I am indebted for my election as an alderman to say that great injustice has been done me, as one of the officials of the city government. "It has been stated that I had been forced against my honest convictions to vote for license on account of the business I was engaged in (ice). I brand this as a falsehood. 'Tis true, it is in a large measure against my business, but I hold principal and honor far above the paltry 'loaves and fishes.' When I was nominated for alderman from my ward, fears were entertained that I could not be elected on account of having voted the prohibition ticket at some previous elections, these fears were allayed by myself and my friends, that I could not and would not attempt to meddle with any business under the existing laws, that such matters could only be settled by a majority of the people at the ballot box. "The several laws in existence then are still in existence. There has been no change, either State or municipal. Two months ago eleven out of twelve aldermen favored license. To-day some of them say they have received sufficient authority to change their votes. I shall not question their authority. They have a perfect right to their opinions. I accord to myself the same. "I contend that it is contrary to the oldest landmarks of civil government to usurp a power not delegated by the people. I honestly believe that there is not an alderman on this board that could have been elected on this issue. I know I could not. Therefore usurping a power not given me by my constituents, is something unknown in the history of this country so far as my knowledge goes, and contrary to the oath I took to uphold the city government.

"These, with other views, such as high license with a well regulated system, and the city government properly and economically administered, is what a majority of the people want just now. I shall vote, for license."

Although granted license by the aldermen, the saloon keepers have not essayed to open their doors, and the saloons remain closed. They prefer to await the action of the county commissioners, and are not inclined to take any risks. Alderman W. F. Buchanan, who was granted license by the city, yesterday, applied to the commissioners for license, and the same old scenes are being enacted over before that board again. Clarkson & Duls appear for the opponents to license, and Jones & Tillett, Burwell & Walker, and Osborne & Maxwell for the applicants. All the afternoon has been spent in examining witnesses.

Woman's Missionary Society.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church of Concord, met for the first session of the present year, at the Manse yesterday afternoon. This society, during the past year increased steadily both in numbers and interest and the funds collected from its members make a material increase in the amount contributed by this church to foreign missions. The following officers were elected by acclamation to serve during the ensuing year:
President—Mrs. M. M. Gillon,
Vice-president—Mrs. T. Chapman,
Recording Secretary—Mrs. M. A. Harris,
Corresponding Secretary—Miss L. Stuart,
Treasurer—Mrs. G. M. Lore.

Executive Com. — Mrs. E. Hall,

Another of Mr. Dixon's "Sermons."

Rev. Tom Dixon delivered another characteristic sermon in New York, last Sunday. The Sun refers to it as "an excited harangue by an intemperate preacher." The recent railroad disaster was his theme and he pronounced it one of the most brutal and devilish performances within the annals of "railroad crimes." "If you say that Mr. Depew is not responsible for these murders," he shouted, "the who is? It is high time our Government defined clearly who is responsible for life on the public highways of this continent." Then Mr. Dixon said the New York Central officials should be sent to the penitentiary for accepting fares and starting trains when they knew the road was blocked. He ridiculed the idea of Messrs. Depew, Webb, and Vanderbilt going to the funeral of some of the victims of the Hastings disaster and sending flowers to put on the coffins of those whom they murdered, and said these gentlemen should be tried for their lives.

Leg Cut Off.

Drs. Wilder and Farrow left this morning for Huntersville for the purpose of amputating the right leg of Mr. Avery Black, son of Mr. John C. Black. The young man had been suffering from white swelling. The leg was amputated above the knee.

The Weather.

Following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a. m., to-day. Low barometric conditions exist over the country except a remnant of a high off the Florida coast.

Precipitation has generally occurred from the Atlantic to the Mississippi River, and threatening conditions at present obtain over this area. To the west of the Mississippi more settled conditions prevail, and temperatures in the extreme Northwest have fallen slightly since yesterday.

Rain is probable for to-day and to-morrow.

The New Institution a Success.

The Charlotte Commercial College recently established here, is starting out prosperously. It gives us genuine pleasure to know that, for an institution of its kind is one of the needs of a growing place like Charlotte. It is a real Commercial college, with competent teachers and just fills the bill. It now has not only a good list of pupils from North Carolina, but Virginia and Georgia are represented on the rolls.
