OVERCOATS,

Price is cut on every

Overcoat we have in stock.

WE DON'T STOP AT COST.

WE SIMPLY MAKE A PRICE

THAT WILL MOVE THEM.

A few of these noble English Melton Coats are left. We don't want to carry them, hence this cut. Those that were $25.00 are now $18.00 and the $22.50 ones are $15. Some elegant black double breasted Coats are here, sizes 36, 37 and 38, that were cheap at $20. They go as low as $12.50, $13.75, and $15. Very long heavy weight Ulsters that sold for $15 are now $10. Surely it will not require a cold wave to move them at this price.

A few sizes left in Cape Overcoats, some with woolen and some with waterproof linings. Reduced as follows: From $17.50 to $13.75, from $16.50 to $13.49, from $15 to $10. All cheaper coats are reduced in same proportion.

Whiskey Indictments.

Growing out of evidence developed in court before the county indictments for

The Weather. Following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a. m., to-day. An extremely low barometer is central at Norfolk, Va., and extends from the Lakes to the Gulf, from the Atlantic coast to the Mississippi River. Light and heavy rains have occurred over this area. Snow is falling at Knoxville, Tenn.; Cleveland O.; and Buffalo, N. Y. West of the Mississippi, clear and cold-wave weather prevails, which is rapidly moving east. Freezing and clear weather will prevail over this section by to-morrow morning.

The Week of Prayer Services. Following is the programme for the remainder of the week for the "Week of Prayer" services: To-night at the Associate Reformed church, by Rev. R. C. Reed. Subject, "The Family and the Young."

Thursday night, at the First Presbyterian church, by Dr. McManaway. Subject, "Nations and their Rulers."

Friday night at the Second Presbyterian church, by Rev. C. E. Todd. Subject, "The Church Abroad."

Saturday 11 a. m., in Second Presbyterian church by Rev. Dr. Creasy. Subject, "The Church at Home."

The Richest Gold Mine in North Carolina. The Old North State Mining and Manufacturing Company, which was recently incorporated in this city, has just received a scientific geological report of their property in Nash county, this State, and the report shows it to be the richest vein of gold bearing quartz ever discovered in North Carolina. The quartz vein is three feet thick with two feet of slate on either side, all carrying free gold, absolutely free from sulphurets. The vein has a surface tracing of more than two miles, and is a true fissure.

There are several other smaller veins on the property, all rich in free gold, besides the "pacer mining" is said to be unusually rich.

Specimens of this ore have been exhibited to some of our best mining men and all agree that it is the finest quartz ever seen in the State. One small specimen shows nuggets which have been estimated to be worth $20. We are glad to know that some of our enterprising citizens are interested in this property. Capt. John A. Harrison is especially to be congratulated.

Opera House To-Night.

A very fine play is promised at the opera house to-night in "A Social Session." The San Francisco Chronicle says of it: After a day of sunny splendor, a clear, starlight night aided in attracting many light-hearted people bent on recreation and the enjoyment of musical pleasure, towards the California Theatre, to witness "A Social Session." The orchestra chairs were filled and the gallery packed. A splendid overture by celebrated Star orchestra, received the appreciation it so richly merited, and the curtain promptly rose and disclosed the first scene of a three act play, which is just a happy, gay, ludicrous combination of pleasant nonsense, well filled with good singing and dancing, all of which excites fun and merriment without the slightest strain on the emotions. Shouts of laughter and continued applause testified that the audience received all the amusement they expected. A grand burlesque on the opera of Il Trovatore closed this captivating play.

The Royal Arcanum meets Thursday night 7:30 at which time will take place the installation of officers for the ensuing year.

"WE DO NOW ADJOURN,"

NO SAID CHAIRMAN FAIL AND SO THEY DID.

Leaving Joe Lindy on the Brother—The Commissioners "shake" the Whiskey Business Until Next Monday.

As soon as the county commissioners had convened this morning, chairman Thos. L. Vail announced that the board would adjourn at 1 o'clock until the next regular meeting in February, and that if anybody had any business they wanted to transact they had better be quick about it. The law allows the commissioners pay for extra days in June and December, of each year. They are allowed pay for only two days during the other months. The lawyers for the whiskey men were ready with the application of Joseph Lindy, who had been granted license by the board of aldermen, and who offered to sacrifice himself upon the character-altar erected by the commissioners. As Lindy had never been in the whiskey business, there was no hope of proving anything against him in the matter of selling whiskey to minors, or on Sunday, but the anti license side was undaunted by that. Those charges did not exhaust their resources. Mr. Boyte the boarding house keeper was called to prove that Lindy's character was bad. Mr. Boyte admitted that he owed Lindy for a suit of clothes; that Lindy dunned him on the street; that he refused to pay, and thereupon Lindy cursed him, therefore Lindy's character was bad. Mr. C. Scott said that there was no suitable place in Charlotte to sell whiskey. Mr. Lindy proved a good character by H. G. Springs.

There was some talk that a witness was being held back who would be brought forward at the proper time to prove that Joe Lindy sold goods by a yard stick that was half an inch short, but they hadn't got that far when the hour of one arrived and chairman Vail announced that the board was adjourned to next Monday. The lawyers tried to plead for business to go on to a conclusion, but Mr. Vail was firm and could not be moved.

While the Lindy case was in progress, Mr. W. C. Maxwell was arranging papers for a rehearing of the application of Mr. O. W. Badger, but he couldn't edge it in, so the whole business goes over to Monday. There is just as much possibility of a $900,000 monument to the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence being erected in Charlotte by May 20th, 1892, as there is that this board of commissioners will grant license to anybody to sell whiskey. The last thing they will fall back on is that there is no suitable place in Charlotte for a saloon. That falling, their final coup will be "no man who wants to sell whiskey can have a good moral character, therefore we can't vote to grant license."

The bars will remain closed, but the "blind tigers" will do business right along.

The wet element of the board of aldermen want to have an election on local option, and say that they will join the prohibitionists in the call for an election at as early a date as possible, but the prohibitionists are content with the situation as it is.

At the time THE NEWS went to press yesterday afternoon, the lawyers were arguing the case of Mr. W. F. Buchanan. When the vote was taken, Buchanan's application was turned down by a vote of 3 to 2. Evidence was introduced that when Buchanan was in business here two years ago, he sold whiskey to minors. As the result of the vote on the Buchanan case was announced, Col. Jones said that he had been told that Esquire Hilton had promised before hand to vote for Buchanan, else that application would not have been made, stating as his authority, Dr. Brevard and Mr. Buchanan. Mr. Hilton said that they did not understand him. Mr. Buchanan tried to make a statement of what Mr. Hilton had told him, but was not permitted.

New People in Charlotte.

An evidence of how Charlotte is filling up with new people, is to be seen by the new pupils at the graded school. On Monday last, 35 new pupils were admitted to the school, among them one each from New York, Atlanta, Dallas, Tex., Philadelphia, Jo-Tavern, Ga., Lincolnton, Waco, Scotland Neck, and Salisbury, N. C.

The Railroad Commission.

Maj. J. W. Wilson and Capt. T. W. Mason of the railroad commission returned to Raleigh yesterday from their homes where they spent the holidays. Mr. E. C. Beddingfield was also at his post at the office yesterday. The commission will be in session this week.

Gov. Scales' Condition.

The Greensboro correspondent of the Raleigh News & Observer writes that the condition of Gov. A. M. Scales has been quite critical since Sunday last. He is unconscious a large part of the time and takes but little nourishment. It is feared that the end may not be far distant. This will be sad news indeed to Gov. Scales' many friends in North Carolina.

Two Saloons Dismantled.

One bar room in the city was dismantled to-day, John McCorkle & Co., who have had a saloon at the corner of Trade and Church streets this morning took out all their saloon fixtures, counters, shelving, etc., and shipped them to Wadesboro, having sold them to a saloon keeper there.

Mr. C. Roediger this morning moved out of his old stand between the Central and Buford Hotels, where he had done business for years past. Mr. George Roediger leaves Monday for Winston, to go into business there.

The Chamber of Commerce.

The annual meeting of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce was held last night, and there was a large attendance. A great deal of interest was manifested. All the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, as follows:

President—J. L. Chambers.
1st vice president—R. H. Jordan.
Second vice-president—D. A. Tompkins.

Secretary and treasurer—Willis B. Dowd.

Board of Directors—S. A. Cohen, E. F. Young, Jos. Graham, R. A. Dunn, J. R. Holland, J. E. Brown, John Vandlingham, M. C. Mayer, J. T. Anthony.

The reports of the president and secretary are to be printed for circulation.

The signal for a cold wave was raised this morning. The indications are for clear and freezing weather to-morrow.

Sensible Holiday Presents.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO BUY?

WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO BUY?

What are you going to buy as a Christmas present? And where are you going to buy it? What will you select for Mama, for Papa, for Brother, for Sister, Niece, Nephew and for yourself and friends? It is easy to ask this question. It is not easy to answer it. You want to give something; you want to buy it where you can do the best. Perhaps we are better able to serve you than any house in the city. We have goods that make useful and sensible presents. Are not they better than something trivial? For instance we have, Mens Suits, Boys Suits,

Childrens Suits,

Childrens Kilt and Jersey Suits, Mens Overcoats, Childrens Cape Overcoats. We have good things in Underwear, in Hosiery, in Gloves, in Neckwear, in Handkerchiefs. We have good things in Hats, Umbrellas, etc. You will do as well by making your selection here as you will do any where; perhaps you will do better. We have the right goods, they are reasonable in price, and in buying from us you are buying from a responsible house.

This is much to consider in christmas shopping.
