A SHOW... If you...

An interesting note. Mr. Henry White, of Cabarrus county, has sent to the City Museum, of Charlotte, a historic powder horn, curiously wrought, and full of personal, military and political suggestions.

It belonged to his grandfather, William Morrison, and the father of Dr. Robt. Hall Morrison of Rocky River, a soldier in the Revolution and, with his father, Robert Morrison, among the first Scotch Irish pioneers to this section. It is like illustrative of the artistic skill of the Scotch Irish soldier of that day and of the military events in which he participated.

Theodore Roosevelt, in his charming "Winning of the West," tells how the style was for the early colonial soldier, Indian fighter, and pioneer to equip himself in a garb at once suggestive of the life he led and of the high impulses that inspired him. He was apt to be a man of great force and of intense zeal and self-reliance, often of religious enthusiasm.

The French wars of 1754-1764 all partook of a great struggle between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism. This horn tells the story of the long and deadly conflict for supremacy in the west in its numerous carved designs of Fort Niagara, Fort Ontario, Fort Detroit and many of the animals and other attractions of the great Indian wilderness.

Mr. Roosevelt though a Northern man frankly admits that it was Southern valor that finally secured the Kentucky and Ohio conquest in 1778. And Col. Waddell in his "Colonial Officer," states that North Carolina troops played an active part in all of the French and Indian struggles.

It also shows indications of the Revolutionary struggle and likewise of the whiskey insurrection in Pennsylvania in 1791 and of the threatened French war in 1798.

For special family reasons, Mr. White is unwilling to part with the ownership of this heirloom, but he leaves it in the Museum for the inspection of the curious. And this, we take occasion to say, would be a good idea for others having such relics, and with which they prefer not parting.

EDGAR RANSOM'S MISHAP. His Arm is Broken and Crushed by the Setting of a Cotton Gin.

Edgar A. Ransom, the sixteen year old son of Mr. J. J. Ransom, of Huntersville, was terribly injured by an accident in a cotton gin this morning at 10 o'clock. The boy was endeavoring to throw on the belt for the cotton press pulley, when his left arm was caught and was run between the pulley and the belt. The arm was broken in three places and the shattered bones protruded through the flesh. The arm was amputated by Drs. Chas. Walker, Hunter and De Armond.

The New Presbyterian Orphanage. The Salisbury Herald has been shown the plans for the new building of the Presbyterian Orphan Home, at Barium Springs. The plans were drawn by Capt. John A. Ramsay, of Salisbury. The Herald says: The main building is to be of brick, nearly a hundred feet long, with central portion three stories high. This will give it an imposing appearance to travelers on the railroad, while from its upper windows can be seen the peaks of distant mountains.

The plan of the building is intentionally plain and simple, so as to avoid all needless expenses, and secure the greatest amount of comfort, convenience and elegance for the least amount of money. It is a charitable institution, for destitute orphans to be supported by the alms of kind-hearted people, many of whom are themselves in straitened circumstances, and it would be manifestly improper to expend the hard-earned gifts of the benevolent, in building costly structures simply to gratify the taste for beautiful.

The plan of the grounds and buildings presents a sketch of railroad, sweeping along in a grand curve around the park like grounds in front of the Home. Next comes the county road leading from Statesville to Charlotte. From this road a semi-circular drive rises to the site of the main building, which is in the centre of the drive. On each side of the main building, and fronting the circular drive, there are to be cottages of various styles and capacities. Their plan is intended for development in future years, and as the necessities of the Home may require.

A Register for Whiskey sales. It is reported that at the next meeting of the board of aldermen, an effort will be made to pull down on the whiskey prescription business at the drug stores. As THE NEWS hears it, the board will pass an ordinance requiring the druggists to keep a register showing the name of every party to whom they sell whiskey, how much the prescription called for, by what doctor prescribed, and for what purpose it was prescribed. This register shall be open to public inspection, the same as the "poison register."

Trinity College. Trinity college at Durham is going to be an honor to the State. The main building is nearly completed at a cost of $70,000, and is substantially built. Dr. Crowell's gift, in honor of his wife, the Technological building, is nearly completed, and work is progressing on the $30,000 Inn. Dr. Crowell, J. S. Carr and B. N. Duke were appointed a committee, says the Advocate, to devise ways means for the completion of the Inn. Col. J. W. Alsbaugh has been elected president of the board of trustees; Prof. W. H. Pegram succeeds O. W. Carr, resigned, as secretary, and B. N. Duke was re-elected treasurer.

The Buford's Climate is Dry, but Healthful. The National Hotel Reporter, of Chicago, says: The Buford Hotel, of Charlotte, N. The Weather. Following is a synopsis of weather prevailing at 8 a. m., today. The high barometer and cold and clear weather continue to advance eastward. Temperature of from 8 to 10 degrees below freezing prevail as far south as the Gulf and as far east as Georgia. Temperatures will far over this section to about freezing by tomorrow morning. Heavy rains are reported from the south, Atlanta leading with 2.02 inches, 1.77 at Montgomery, 1.36 at Knoxville. A very high barometer is central in the extreme northwest, where temperatures are 20 degrees below zero.

A Cold wave. The cold wave flag was displayed this morning, and the indications are that the snap is to be the hardest freeze of the season. The temperature will probably fall about 40 degrees by 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Charlotte members of the Cuban party are expected home Saturday. Letters were received yesterday stating that they were off for a trip up Indian river, in Florida, and that when that trip was concluded, they would start for home.

The strike of the Express Messengers. The Southern Express Company seems to be moving its business along with considerable regularity, despite the strike of the messengers. There were no messengers on the train from Atlanta yesterday morning, but the messengers in Atlanta struck just before that train went out and the company did not have time to fill their places. A representative of the company told a News reporter that the only result of the strike would be a temporary inconvenience to the company as there is a perfect flood of applicants for the place of the strikers. In the course of a few days, these new men will be thoroughly broken into their work and the business of the company will be conducted as if there had been no such a thing as a strike. The express cars today were filled with new men.

Some Items from the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge in Raleigh. Rev. Dr. W. R. Creasy, pastor of the Tryon street Methodist church, is in Raleigh attending the Grand Lodge of Masons. Last night he delivered an address to the Grand Lodge. One of the interesting things of the session was the report of Dr. Black, superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. When he took charge as superintendent, on January 1, 1891, there were 210 children on the rolls. There were admitted during the year 94, there were placed in homes 48, returned to their homes 33; dismissed 2, ran away 3, died 6; and there are now in the asylum 218.

The plans of operation have been changed. Heretofore, some of the children would be in school two months, and out of school and some of the industrial departments two months. Now every child in school every day, the industrial departments being open in the morning, and the educational in the afternoon, study hour closing at 3:30 p. m. This plan has worked admirably, and is heartily approved by all the teachers, while the improvement of the children has been marked. Modern and improved methods of teaching are followed at both buildings, and physical culture and calisthenics have proper attention. The statement of the receipts and disbursements for 1891, shows that the amounts received were: From State treasurer, $10,000; from Grand Lodge, $2,000; borrowed by board of directors, $2,500; from contributions, &c., $9,247.41; a total of $23,747.41; and that the amounts paid out were: For current expenses, $19,157.30; on old accounts, $4,482.02; total $23,747.41. There has been paid on the note of $2,500 made by the board, $1,500, leaving balance due of $1,000. At the beginning of the year there were outstanding accounts to the amount of $5,243.26. There has been paid on these accounts $4,820.02, as above, leaving still due on these accounts $761.25.

The superintendent says: "Having seen the evils resulting from throwing out into the world, upon their own resources, girls at the critical period of sixteen years of age, and having visited a number of similar leading institutions in northern cities, under the control of Protestants, Catholics and Hebrews, and finding that without a single exception, they having also noticed the evils results, had extended the time for dismissal to not less than 18 years, the suggestion is respectfully made that the Board recommend to the Grand Lodge that our time for dismissal be placed at eighteen instead of sixteen years of age."

The strike of the Express Messengers. The Southern Express Company seems to be moving its business along with considerable regularity, despite the strike of the messengers. There were no messengers on the train from Atlanta yesterday morning, but the messengers in Atlanta struck just before that train went out and the company did not have time to fill their places. A representative of the company told a News reporter that the only result of the strike would be a temporary inconvenience to the company as there is a perfect flood of applicants for the place of the strikers. In the course of a few days, these new men will be thoroughly broken into their work and the business of the company will be conducted as if there had been no such a thing as a strike. The express cars today were filled with new men.

Now is the Time to Buy OVERCOATS.

Price is cut on every Overcoat we have in stock.

WE DON'T STOP AT COST. WE SIMPLY MAKE A PRICE THAT WILL MOVE THEM.

A few of these nobby English Melton Coat... We don't want to carry them, hence this cut. Those that were $25.00 are now $18; and the $22.50 ones are $15. Some elegant black double breasted Coats are here, size 36 and 38, that were cheap at $32. They go now at $12.50, $13.75, and $15. Very long heavy weight Ulsters that sold for $15 are now $10. Surely it will not require a cold wave to move them at this price.

A few sizes left in Cape Overcoats, some with woolen and some with waterproof linings. Reduced as follows: From $17.50 to $13.75, from $16.50 to $13.50, from $15 to $10. All cheaper coats are reduced in same proportion.
